Salem Baptists In Conference To Set Dates For Drives

A special conference of local and state leaders of the Baptist world movement conference was held in Salem Friday, when J. C. Austin, assistant director of the department of promotion conferred with L. C. Ewell, A. L. Seaman and other local directors of the movement.

Mr. Austin has been attending the various interchurch conventions held in different parts of the state at the same time conferring with local directors in the Baptist movement.

There is a splendid outlook for the successful raising of our state quota," stated Mr. Austin at the conference. "The sum to be raised is $1,945,000 and is our portion of the hundred million of dollars that will be raised in North America by the Baptist world movement. Only one Baptist church in the state has refused to take part in this great work. This is not a selfish scheme, but is a great plan whereby a world wide program of betterment will be carried out, working along economic, social and religious lines."

With the several district leaders who assembled at a conference luncheon Saturday, Mr. Austin debated plans and received suggestions concerning the Marion county and Salem apportionments, of which the principal sums are: Salem $53,253; Stayton $4329 and Hayesville $4410. Plans for this intensive Baptist program will be announced later by County Director A. L. Seaman.

Joseph Ritter of Perdue covering the appropriation of water from Stout creek for the irrigation of 20 acres of land in Douglas county.

J. S. Madoche of Drew covering the appropriation of water from Surveyors creek for domestic use and the irrigation of 40 acres in Harney county.

Public Forum

To the Editor:—I have just finished reading Wm. King's letter in the public forum and feel I cannot forgo writing a few words about it.

To me it is unquestionable how as many as thirty-two men in an institution like that could take the stand they do on the subject of the employment of an ex-convict. If they were inmates it would be easy to understand, but that so many employees should be so narrow minded is a mystery to me.

How is this man to get a living if this is the attitude people in general take. I know the cry once a criminal always a criminal, but if he can not get legitimate work is he to lay down and starve.

It seems to be that such virtuous folk would be fine for him to associate with; they ought to reconsider for the good of society.

Is it any wonder that men who have once been incarcerated in the prison are so apt to come back again after a period of release, when they bump up against such problems as this?

I wonder if I might see the books of the recording angel if we would find their records to be what their acquaintances believe them to be, or perhaps they too may have sidestepped from the path of virtue at some time in their lives.

I think it would be well to remember the golden rule, or is it altogether out of date in these days?

I feel like saying thank you to Dr. Seiner. He did exactly the right thing. He's glad to know there are still a few people in the world who stand up for the rights of the under dog.

Editor Journal: We note with pleasure the plan of donating overalls as a blow against the high cost of living. This is good as far as it goes and I can gladly say amen, but it does not go far enough. It cannot control or eliminate head and foot gear, neither does it establish a price of overalls and up to this time we could obtain them at from $1.75 to $2 but already since this agitation $6 has been suggested. Many things need regulation. The whole tendency on the one side is to work less and thus cut down the amount of production and on the other hand to profiteer on everything that is produced and everytime wages are raised the price of products is raised disproportionately. The price of building material the same as everything else, is out of sight and while we must have houses for ourselves and those who come here to live, but let us refrain from unnecessary building until material gets back to normal, for just so long as there is a ready market at present prices material will not drop to any extent. In price, the state has just erected large buildings at home of feeble minded, tuberculosis hospital, etc. It seems that having been able to get along up to this time they might stand a little longer until labor and material gets back to normal. The cost is simply passed up to the people in increased taxes and in the near future it will become burdensome and we may then need bonds and appropriations for very necessary purposes and the taxpayers will vote no. Yes let us don the overalls as it is a step in the right direction.
