To Speak Friday

Well Known Here Howard Evarts Weed, well known Portland landscape architect, who leclibrary Friday night has spoken several times previously in Salem upon civic subjects. He is remembered also as the installer of the Waite Memorial fountain.

Mr. Weed is a fluent and eloquent speaker and is a strong advocate on children's playgrounds and urges utilizing backyards as gardens for chil-dren. It is his opinion that the tramp of today is the idle child of yesterday, and he asserts that a spirit of civic pride can be developed in the youth of the cities that will transform ugly unsightly backyards into blossom land, and at the time work wonders in the heart and mind of the growing boy or
