ARMORY CONTEST TO DRAW ORATORS FROM SCHOOLS OF COUNTY

At the Salem armory, Friday, May 7, Salem and Marion county residents will have an opportunity to witness spirited inter-county declamatory contests to be held on the evening of that date.

The contests are to be held under the auspices of the Marion Principals' association. Representatives of the two county divisions of public schools will participate in the contest. The first division includes all four year high schools and ninth grade junior high schools in the county. The second division is formed of four groups as follows and includes the seventh and eighth grades from schools having two or more rooms and from high schools having less than the prescribed four year course.

Groups are supervised as follows: grades in Salem city schools, Mrs. Lemoine K. Clark, director; grades in districts near Salem, D. K. Luthy, director; districts in and near Turner, John Blough, director; districts in and near Silverton, Clover B. Miller, director; districts 1, 15, 23, 31, 57, 45, 76, 104, Aurora, Bert P. Lovett, director.

Contests are being held at the present time between these groups and by May 1, winners of these preliminary tryouts will be entered for the big event at the armory.

Pupils are permitted to select their own subjects, which may be humorous, dramatic or descriptive. Selection of judges and a list of contestants will be made public upon completion of arrangement.

A committee from the county association is completing an attractive list of awards, to be presented to winners of the contest. Only a small admission will be charged at the armory for the purpose of securing flags which will be given to the smaller schools.

TAX MEASURES ARE FAVORED BY BROOKS COMMUNITY CIRCLE

At an enthusiastic meeting held by the Leader club, at Brooks, Wednesday night, club members from the Clear Lake, Beuna Crest, Keizer, Mile and Bottom and Brooks districts were present.

Consideration was given to all of the popular measures which go before the voters at the May primaries and the club went on record as being unanimously in favor of the two mill tax for elementary schools and road bonding measures. Endorsement of the four mill tax for higher educational institutions was also given.

The club was addressed by James S. Stewart, who spoke on various topics of the day and of special interest to the gathering. Mr. Stewart is campaigning for Hiram Johnson in this county and in the course of his remarks made laudatory mention of the California ex-governor.
