ham meeting was attended by delegates from all parts of the county and nearly the entire afternoon was spent in discussing the tax question, and the "wholesale method of spending the farmers money to build good roads and educate the children." Postmaster Whitehead, of Turner, acted an chairman of the meeting and the prominent speakers were Mr. Kent of Oregon City, state grange master, Peter D'Arcy, ofthis city; Senator La-Foiette, County Fruit Inspector & H. Van Trump and Representative Seymour Jones.

veloped as much speed in oratory as Mr. D'Arcy, told of the extravagance of the highway commission in employ-ing high priced men and trucks and the time spent in needless trips and needless repairs while constructing roads near his place south of town.

Following an open meeting a busi-ness session was held and none but members of the grange were permitted to remain. The grange meeting held yesterday is said to have been the most inter-esting meeting of the present year and
