Russian Masses Will Rise Against Soviet, Is Claim

Victoria, B. C., April 22.—"In my opinion, the time is coming when the Russian masses will take things into their own hands and another bloody revolution, equalling the French revolution in ferocity, will follow," said Dr. J. C. Cahill of Topeka, Kan., member of the American Red Cross mission, on his arrival here today from Vladivostok via Manila.

Eight members of the American Red Cross mission, in charge of Dr. J. G. Bouvier, came over on the Canadian Pacific liner Montangle.

The demobilization of the American Red Cross in Siberia is now complete, members of the mission stated. Only a few details of the organization remain behind to arrange for the disposal of supplies and wind up matters incidental to mobilization.

Office Rents On Coast To Increase

Seattle, Wash., Apr. 23.—In immediate advance in office rents throughout the Pacific coast was forecast in a discussion on building costs and rents at today's session of the Pacific Coast Conference of Building Owners and Managers.

It was declared by their managers that only three buildings in the Pacific northwest, the Alaska building in Seattle, the Northwestern Bank building in Portland and the National building in Spokane, were paying their owners 8 per cent on investment plus 2 per cent for depreciation. This declaration was made during the discussion of a paper by Robert G. Walker of Tacoma on "Present Building Costs and Corresponding Rentals."
