Second Inning Spells Disaster For Willamette

O. A. C. Beavers defeated the Willamette ball team yesterday afternoon 10 to 1, getting seven of her tallies in the second inning when Jackson failed to locate the pin, and "Speck" Keene landed one over the right field fence for a homer with the bases full. Willamette got her one run in the first frame, when Irvine walked, went to third on Davies' out and scored on a sacrifice by Page. Irvine replaced Jackson in the box, holding the visitors to two hits and three runs during the rest of the seven inning game, striking out six men and pulling an unassisted double play. Keene held the Beavers to two hits and got a homer, a triple and a double out of three times at bat.

Fast fielding was evidenced by both teams, but both were weak with the willow, due to lack of practice. With the exception of the disastrous second inning, the Beavers played a tight game, and should come back strong in today's game at Corvallis.

O. A. C.—Hubbard, shortstop; Hartman, centerfield; Palfrey, 1st base; Keene, pitcher; Kramien, rightfield; Gill, catcher; Summers, leftfield; Kusberger, 2nd base; Siebert, 2nd base.

Co-Ed Debaters Of Willamette Capture Contest

Co-ed debaters of Willamette university won the second debate of the series of girls contests on the subject, Resolved, that the principal cause for America's present state of anarchy is to be found in unjust labor conditions in this country. Willamette won from Pacific in both debates by 2-1 decisions. The debate held here was better than that of a week ago, as the affirmative team had entirely reorganized and strengthened their case. Miss Myrtle Mason, the local leader, was unusually convincing, and in her rebuttal clinched her argument without question. Miss Virginia Mason sang a pleasing vocal solo, and a piano solo was played by Miss Ruth Bedford. Miss Frances M. Richards, dea not women, presided, thus making the debate entirely a woman's affair. The team which debated at Forest Grove was coached by Bernard Ramsey, leader of the varsity team.

PUBLIC FORUM
To the Editor:—In a public issue in your "Open Forum," July 6, 1918, the Sunday newspaper was charged with being an abominable nuisance and the republican party with being a hypocritical ungodly old liquor party, over forty years behind the times, ruled by liquor and tobacco. Today I boldly charge the republican party with being the same old hypocritical, ungodly, license party in spirit, ruled by un-Christian, un-American Sabbath desecrators and tobacco and liquor sympathizers and supporters. To me this seems to be a vital and irrepressible issue of year and immediate importance.

Sunny Weather Brings Smiles To Salem Team

Saturday, April 24, 1920.
To Mr. and Mrs. Baseball Fan, Salem, Oregon. (All all the little Baseball Fans.)

Dear People: Tomorrow is the date of the big game with the Rupert, Idaho, Southern League pennant winners (1919). This is the third time that the Salem Senators will be seen in action in their home town.

Be there at 2:30 in the afternoon and boost for us from the first whiff of the little cork centered pill. Oxford Park at 12th and Oxford streets is your own institution, and is Salem's first demonstration that we are in the national game in a big way.

Although we lost out in the two games with the Moosejaw club, we did our very best and you believed in us when the clouds were dark. Come out tomorrow after the morning Blossom day activities and help we will put a different set of units on the score-board.

Yours to win,
BIDDIE BISHOP & CO.

And Manager Bishop, of the Salem baseball club, means every word of the foregoing. He has been following the barometer at Hartman's all week and with such perseverance that the Jewelers Protective association has been regarding the baseball promoter with suspicion.

"Anyway let's hope that Old Sol stays right on the job for Salem's blossom day," says Biddie. "After the visitors have spent the morning in trips through the flowering orchards, bring them out to Oxford Park and let 'em know that we are up and a coming on the American game," he adds.

The inclement weather of the past week has not only broken into several well arranged games scheduled during the Moosejaw sojourn, but has brought to a complete standstill all work on the park improvements as originally planned. With the re-appearance of Old Sol, the protected parkings will soon be in place. This will enable car owners to bring their machines into the enclosure and to enjoy the games without leaving the padded cushions. Signs and score-boards will also be finished next week.

Saturday, grading teams will be put on the grounds and the mud puddles worked out. To insure dependable playing surface, Manager Bishop has ordered several loads of sand to be thrown on the complete grading.

Lineups follow:
The battle line follows:
Salem—Catchers, Hays and Kracker; pitchers, Cole, Brown and Craig; shortstop, Cox; first base, Bishop; second base, Cohn; third base, Proctor; left field, O'Malley; center field,

County Commissioner Harvey of Columbia county has resigned to take effect April 26. His term would have expired next January.

A large plate glass window of a Milton store was demolished when a large touring car driven by a young lady from Walla Walla ran into it.

E. C. Dye of Oregon City, who filed for the nomination of delegate to the national democratic convention, has withdrawn his candidacy.

Women's Club to Make Canvass For Hospital Funds

The Woman's club of Salem at a meeting held last evening, decided to aid in the hospital drive by giving their services for one week. About 25 members of the club will begin next Monday morning and make a house to house canvass. They expect to continue on their work beginning Monday and every day up to Friday evening. The town has been distracted and no home will be overlooked.

This is the contribution of the Woman's club in the way of assisting to raise the amount necessary for the construction of the hospital. Mrs. Z. J. Riggs is president of the Woman's club, and Mrs. W. E. Anderson is chairman of the committee in charge that will do the soliciting next week.

The following is a list of those who will take part in this house to house canvass for the hospital fund beginning Monday morning:
Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. W. E.

POSTAL BILL SIGNED
Washington, April 24.—President Wilson today signed the annual post-office appropriation bill, which carries provisions for an air mail service between New York and San Francisco via Chicago.
W. H. Ellis, school director of Baker, has resigned in conformity to the law that no member of a school board can contract to furnish school supplies.

BOAT SERVICE

Beginning last Sunday, the Portland Navigation company started giving boat service to Salem from Portland on a daily schedule leaving here every night except Saturday night.

Inasmuch as the wholesale houses in Portland are closed on Saturday afternoon and there will probably be little freight to move on Sunday evening, it has been determined that the service would be as good to Salem by eliminating the trip Sunday night, and the service would probably be more acceptable to the merchants of Salem by making weekly trips to Corvallis.

We will, therefore, eliminate the trip leaving here Sunday night so that there will be a daily trip from Portland to Salem except Saturday night and Sunday night, the boat arriving in Salem every morning except Sunday morning and Monday morning.

On Saturday morning, the boat, instead of returning directly to Portland, will continue on to Corvallis and will return, arriving in Portland Sunday. The first trip to Corvallis will be made two weeks from tonight, the boat stopping in Salem Saturday morning and continuing on. The Sunday night trip from Portland, however, will be eliminated immediately.
