

Bible Institute For Woodburn Up to Citizens

Rev. E. G. Masters of Boise, Idaho, one of the committee to select the location for the Church of God Bible Institute, was in the city Saturday and Sunday and while here held a conference with the committee from the community club appointed to meet next. Quite a long conference was held and Mr. Masters stated that the selection of the site would depend not only on the financial aid promised, but largely on the enthusiasm displayed by the citizens. Wherever the institute is located it is expected to have its real business next fall. At the meeting of the community club Friday night it will be decided what kind of a proposition can be extended to the citizens of Woodburn. A committee consisting of John P. Hunt, J. Steelhammer, Dr. Thomas Sims, W. F. Steelhammer, H. L. Gill, is busy interviewing the business men to see what can be done to get the institute located at this point.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.
Fort Dodge, Ia.—From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16, she suffered so badly each month, that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, larkache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles, and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We all praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine.—Mrs. MRS. MARY MANDLER, 1005 S. 17th St. & 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Stayton Youth Weds Salem Girl At Vancouver

Stayton, April 28.—Wednesday the 21st, at Vancouver, Wash., occurred the marriage of Kenneth Thomas of this place, to Miss Ethel Braden of Salem. The marriage ceremony was witnessed by the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas, and Mr. and Mrs. Greenburg and Mrs. Sadie Smallman of Portland. The newlyweds spent several days in Portland. They were met Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas in Salem, and Sunday evening a small party of intimate friends were entertained in their honor at the Thomas home. The groom is a well known and enterprising young man and the bride is a popular young lady quite well known here, and both have a large number of friends who will unite in wishing them all the best in wedded life.
Mrs. J. J. Blum, Jr., was here from Mehama Thursday last, visiting friends and trading with Stayton merchants.
For some unknown cause the mail route between Stayton and the C & E train at Kingsport was ordered discontinued by the post office department last week, and now mail for the towns up the Santiam valley has to travel in a roundabout way to reach its destination. A petition, generously signed, was sent to the proper department head Friday last, and it is expected that the route will be reestablished, as it is necessary to the business interests of Stayton merchants, and of considerable benefit to the residents of the towns up the valley.

Mrs. J. W. Mayo is home from a very pleasant trip to Los Angeles and other California cities.
It is reported that Jonas Sheard, now at Long Beach, Cal., will return to Stayton to make his home.
The rural carriers on the routes out of Stayton are now running their autos, but report roads very rough.
We learn that Emory Thomas, a quite well known Stayton boy, who has been in eastern Oregon for some time, was married there recently and expects to return to this section to reside.
G. R. Munkers came up from Portland Sunday to deliver a new Acason truck that he had sold to H. J. Marking. Mr. Marking found his Ford delivery car too light to handle mail and express and was obliged to purchase something more substantial.
Mr. and Mrs. James Asho, recently married in Oregon City, arrived home Saturday after spending several days in Portland. They will make their home in the H. J. Mutschler house, on Water street.
Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Lebanon spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. McIntyre, east of town. Gilles, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brown, left last week for Alaska, where he will work for the Columbia River Packing Co. He expects to be gone until September. His mother went as far as Astoria, to see him on his way.
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bateman and Jim Bateman of Washington, Ind., are visiting at the home of I. O. Alsmen south of town. They expect to locate in this vicinity.
J. W. Mayo, cashier of the Farmers & Merchants bank, is still confined to his home with stomach trouble. He is considering going to Portland to consult a specialist.
Several Stayton people have been subpoenaed to appear in Portland Thursday as witnesses in a case brought by the backers of the proposed railroad into Stayton against M. Lynott, the promoter who had charge of the survey and securing the right of way. It is claimed by the company that the charges of Mr. Lynott for work done by persons here were higher than the amounts he paid for the work.

Buena Vista Man, 76 Years Of Age, Weds Woman, 36

Dallas, Or., Apr. 28.—A man who looked about 60 years old, dignified in appearance, hair slightly grey, quick of step, about six feet tall walked into the county clerk's office and demanded a marriage license. The usual questions were propounded by County Clerk Moore to ascertain whether or not he was duly qualified. Investigations proved that he was, then came the questions of age—the reply was immediate and with a proud accent, "76. Number of marriages, three."
The gentleman was then asked for information upon the bride to be. He at once disappeared through the door returning in a few seconds escorting a slender lady who seemed timid and bashful.
To the question of age she answered in a meek tone, "36."
"How many marriages, madam?" She answered, "Three."

East Stayton, April 28.—Mrs. A. F. Kirsch returned Saturday evening from Colorado, where she had been called by the serious illness of her little grandson, whom she left much improved in health; she says "Oregon forever" for her, as the part of Colorado she was in was visited by three terrible blizzards while she was there and the roads were nearly impassable on account of the deep snow when she left.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Portland motored up and spent the week end at the home of her mother, Mrs.
