Print Paper Shortage Is Probe Topic

Washington, Apr. 29.—Lack of satisfactory understanding between the publishers and print paper manufacturers was held to be responsible in part for the present paper shortage by Paul Patterson, one of the publishers of the Baltimore Sun, in testimony today before the senate manufacturers subcommittee investigating the paper situation. He explained that while there would be no increased production this year, production in 1921 would be 300,000 tons over that for 1920.

Housing Problem Shows New Angle; No Spooning Place

London, Apr. 29.—London's acute housing shortage presents a new complication—hundreds of young couples are declared to have no suitable courting places. This phase of the situation manifested itself in a court proceeding at Willesden where a man living in a tenement house complained of courting couples sitting on the stairs. He was granted a summons against a suitor who, the complainant said had assaulted him when he fell over him.

Yokohama Maid One Attraction Of May Day Fete

Yokohama Maid, a Japanese comic opera written and composed by Arthur A. Penn, will be given by members of the music department of Wellesley university as one of the features of the May Day festivities. The opera will be staged on the campus near the gymnasium where a Japanese garden will be represented with hundreds of Japanese lanterns and other oriental features.

Record Made Of Voice Transmitted 40 Miles By Wire

London, April 29.—Experiments which have been carried out here have resulted in the making of a talking machine record on wax of a voice transmitted by wireless telephone forty miles away. While the voice was speaking in the county of Essex, where there is a high power instrument, the equipment at the receiving plant in the Strand, London, was attached to a recorder, which engraved the messages in soft wax in the same way an ordinary disc is produced. The record was perfectly audible though a trifle "patchy."

Federal Agents at Loss For Means of Curbing Portland Booze Sales

Portland, Or., Apr. 29.—Federal revenue agents and prosecuting authorities admitted today they were at a loss in knowing how to cope with the moonshining and other liquor operations now being conducted in Portland and vicinity and unless their routine series of arrests and prosecutions serve to halt the moonshiners, the federal courts will become clogged with cases of this character. In its recent report the federal grand jury returned more than a score of indictments for alleged violations of the liquor laws. Since Monday, when this report was submitted, more than 35 and 49 new moonshining and liquor cases have been brought

Hoover To Be Speaker At National Educational Association Meetings

Spokane, Wash., Apr. 29.—Several men and women prominent in the affairs of the nation including Herbert Hoover, former national food administrator; Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier; Governor Frank B. Rowland of Illinois; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, suffrage leader and former Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane will receive invitations within a few days to address the annual convention of the National Educational Association at Salt Lake City, July 4 and 10.

Palmer Defends Fair Price Acts As Wholly Legal

Washington, Apr. 29.—Acceptance of "fair prices by the department of justice was defended today by Attorney General Palmer before the house judiciary committee which is investigating his agreement with Louisiana sugar growers that 17 and 18 cents would not be considered an unfair maximum price for their product. Mr. Palmer declared that the acceptance of the "fair" prices was "not fixing a price but the exercising of the lawful discretion in announcing what the government would regard as a violation of the law."

Yankee Artists Win Places As Best In World

Pittsburgh, Pa., Apr. 29.—American painters ranked high in the International Art Exhibition, which was formally opened in the galleries of the Carnegie Institute here today, the first since the outbreak of the world war. Announcement of honors was made at the Founders Day exercises as follows: First—Abbott H. Thayer, Monandock, N. C., "Young Woman in Olive Plush," Gold medal and $1500.

French Troops Ambushed When Falling Back

Paris, Apr. 28.—Official accounts of the French retreat from Urfu, Asia Minor, confirm the reports that the retreating column was ambushed although the French had an agreement with the Turks which they believed would insure a safe retirement. The French left Urfu, only when food and water were lacking, after a sustained siege of two months. The French losses in the attack are said to have been small, while the admitted Turkish casualties totalled 500.

Boy Scouts Open Drive Here Today

The immense crowd that more than comfortably filled the armory Wednesday night was given a first hand introduction to the boy scouts of Salem, and also a conception of what the boy scout movement means in terms of Christian helpfulness and true citizenship. The carefully prepared program was thoroughly enjoyed, and after the rendition of "The Star Spangled Banner" everyone departed with the knowledge that Salem lodge 334, B. P. O. E., can successfully carry out the role of host to all of Salem should the occasion arise. Every number was presented by local talent and received repeated encores.

Radicals Found In High Places Myers Declares

Washington, April 29.—Declaring that sympathizers with radicals bent on the overthrow of the government are to be found even "in high places," Senator Myers, democrat, Montana, speaking in the senate, criticized the government in general and the department of labor in particular for failure to take adequate steps to prevent the spread of radicalism. "The activities of those who would undermine and overthrow our government are undoubtedly increasing," he said. "In my opinion, this country is reeking and seething with the machinations of disloyal secession and bolshevism."
