Sale of Property Is Considered By Growers' Session

With a record attendance of Salem Fruit Union shareholders present, the meeting at the Union plant at Mill and High streets, was without [illegible] during the first hours of the morning session.

Over two hundred members were in attendance while proxy vouchers brought the voting strength up to nearly 300. After recall and routine reports by officers of the organization, an election of officers retained all members of the 1919-1920 personnel.

Officers and several members of the Union advanced the matter of disposing of the Union's Mill-High street property. The question was voted upon by the shareholders, but by three o'clock this afternoon, the returns had not been completed. However, it is believed that union members will concur in the sale of the property, which is held to have out lived its usefulness.

While no statement could be elicited from officers of the co-operative association, it is generally believed that matters of special importance will be brought up during the afternoon and evening session.

Straw Hats Found To Be Scarce Here "Straw Hat Day"

Today's "straw hat day," but diligent search on the streets downtown all day long failed to reveal many of the light skypieces. According to custom that's as old as the first base ball league in America the rougher sex is supposed on May 1 to appear with his dome crowned in a bonnet of some sort of hay.

But only several—four at the most—were seen in Salem today. And they sat astride the billowly shocks of hair of farmers and were of the vintage of perhaps 1908.

Either the auspicious occasion was overlooked, or the wise deemed it best to wait until the weather man says "fair and warmer" before they abandon their coronas of felt.

'Tis No Use! Old H. C. Of L. Boosts Overalls Prices

Old H. C. of L. would make a good first in a general Marathon. For no matter what Brother Citizen does to beat his pace Old H. C. of L. "opens up" with the result: still higher prices.

All over the nation overalls clubs were formed as a means of beating the high cost of living. For a time it looked like Brother Citizen had gained a start toward the goal of normal rates. But look—

Local drygoods dealers are receiving warnings that the wholesale price of overalls that now sell for $37 a dozen, will be advanced soon two or three dollars a dozen "and the next advance, probably within a month, will be as much more." The manufacturers are using their argument that the cost of thread has advanced 300 percent in the past three years—therefore more coin for overalls.

Four Arrested For Being Disorderly

Found engaged in boisterous and noisy conduct in a room at the Hughes building, North Commercial street, yesterday afternoon, S. Fielding, S. S. Brownell, H. M. Baker and H. C. Brewer, were arrested by Traffic Officer Moffitt and Patrolman Rowe and booked for disorderly conduct. The men were released on their own recognizance to appear before Police Judge Race at 10 a. m. Monday.

Arrests were made upon complaint of other tenants of the building who said that groups of young men had been engaged on several occasions in disorderly activities in the room. A fifth member of the party arrived on the scene later with five bottles of tonics to be used to drink, and when informed of the officers' visit he hastily departed.

County's Efforts To Secure Gravel Free Are In Vain

The [illegible] court to secure exemption from the payment of state royalties on sand and gravel taken from navigable streams for use on county highways, were in board yesterday it was decided that no exemptions could be granted under the act of the 1920 legislature providing for this royalty.

The fund derived from the royalty payment is credited to the state's irreducible school fund.

It is estimated that approximately $50,000 per year should be realized for the school children of the state from this source.

Dry Campaign Costs Big Sum

Washington, April 29.—The campaign for ratification of the federal suffrage amendment has cost the National Woman's party $93,599.75, headquarters announced today. Most of the contributions came in small amounts from individual women, the record sum for any one month being $18,362 in March, 1920.

CANCER

To whom this may concern, I will say that I was afflicted with a cancerous growth in my temple to the annoyance of my self and family.

I advised with Dr. S. C. Stone, Salem, Oregon, who applied a medicine for five days and then a simple ointment and after a few days the CANCER came out entirely to my great satisfaction. I can truly recommend Dr. Stone's.
