

Mt. Angel Banker Enters Race To Be In State Legislature

Mr. Angel, May 2.—In announcing his candidacy for the legislature on the republican ticket at the primary election May 21, J. J. Keber, banker at Mt. Angel, appeals to the voters of Oregon as individuals, who, as such, are well qualified to judge the issues of the day and who can and will vote as their judgment shall direct. Mr. Keber is a republican and believes in the principles of the party with whom he is associated; and above everything he is an American and believes in the principles of his country. He is not a member of nor affiliated with any particular faction or part of the republican party; nor is he pledged to support any of the candidates for office at the coming primary election. His slogan is: "No hobby to ride, efficient administration and conservative legislation."

In speaking of his candidacy Mr. Keber said: "I pledge to the people of Marion county that, in conducting my campaign, I will not support any particular candidate for office in preference to the other candidates for the same office; that I will not compromise political patronage to anyone; that if nominated and elected I shall enter the office with neither promises nor pledge to redeem, except those which I give to the people themselves, reserving the right to serve in that capacity with whatever unprejudiced independence the best interests of the people of Oregon and the development and welfare of the state shall demand. If the voters decide that they do not desire that I be their candidate, I will give my undivided support to the republican candidates of their choice."

"I shall, as far as possible, make a personal campaign, with the object to establish and maintain a close relationship with the people of Marion county, so that I may the better know their needs and requirements, and be entirely comprehensive of such."

"I am firmly convinced that the progress, prosperity and development of Oregon demands that all lines of business, with due consideration for the absolute necessity of practicing most rigid economy, be maintained to the full standard."

"If nominated and elected I shall consistently endeavor to give Oregon an impartial, clean, economical and business-like administration which will have as its ideal, the greatest possible advancement of the moral, social and economic progress and prosperity of the people, and through an ever increasing development of its resources keep Oregon at the top in the vast fabric of our national life."

Chapin Outlines Beautiful Drive Into Polk County

One of the most enjoyable drives afforded automobilists in this section of Oregon just now is that out the Oak Grove road in Polk county to the Popcorn school house, according to Luther J. Chapin, whose business takes him over practically every foot of this section of the valley and the surrounding hill country.

Automobilists who desire to take this drive should cross the river bridge at Salem, turning to the north at the Polk county end of the bridge, then turning to the left at the second road, passing the Mountain View school house and going on to the Popcorn school. This, according to Mr. Chapin is one of the highest points in the Polk county section and affords a magnificent view of the Three Sisters, Mt. Jefferson, Mt. Hood, Mary's Peak and Mt. Adams. At night the lights from all townships in the valley and many towns in Polk county are visible from that point. At this particular season of the year the cherry orchards are in full bloom adding their beauty to the scene. Altogether, Mr. Chapin says, it is a drive of six miles well

Jefferson, Or., May 2.—Franklin B. Launer, pianist and music teacher of Salem, gave a concert in Jefferson, Friday, April 30, at the Masonic hall. An interesting feature of the program was the explanation of each piece he played. The piano numbers were interspersed with vocal numbers by Harry and Gladys Jones and Lester Springer of Salem.
