

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

May 3-6—Annual Oregon Commercial club, 8 p. m.
May 7-8—May Day and Junior week end, Willamette.
May 8—Banquet Jersey breeders, armory.
May 9—Declaratory contest, county schools, Armory.
May 10—Dance for Senators armory, 8 p. m.
May 11—Portland Knights of Columbus team vs Salem Senators, Oxford park, 2:30 p. m.

Court House News

Circuit Court.

J. F. Day vs. Lenore Day. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.
Sarah A. Lehman vs. Paul J. Lehman. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.
Mary F. Gregoire vs. H. L. Akerhill et al. Objection to cost bill.
William Brown vs. J. H. Johnson et al. Answer of J. H. Johnson.
B. F. Boushey vs. G. D. Treat. Cost bill.
J. R. Kennedy vs. Frank O. Sibley and L. K. Spawen. Amended Complaint.

Probate Court.

Silva Moore, estate. Twenty eight vouchers to accompany final account.
Robert Gardner, estate. Order fixing time for hearing final account.
Otto Maer, estate. Order confirming sale of personal property.
Otto Maer, estate. Report of sale of personal property.

Marriage Licenses.

John W. DeFrance, 25, of Salem, a barber, to Myrtle Gossett, 30, of Salem.
Henry Guinness, 40, of Salem, a salaried man, to Mabel Cartwright, 36, of Salem, nurse.

J. W. Hoyt, of Ashland, was a Salem visitor Sunday and Monday.

Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

Dance, Hurst hall, Knights and Ladies of Security. Best music, Thursday May 6th. Good social time assured.

Owen Williams, Chehalis, Wash., registered at the Bligh hotel Monday night.

$12.50 per 100 for White Leghorn baby chicks. Now ready for delivery. C. N. Needham, 558 State street. Phone 400.

Some lady receives a prize at the armory Saturday night.

Watson C. Lea, of Drain, attended business affairs in Salem, Monday and Tuesday.

O. Jones, Hoskins, was a visitor to this city, Tuesday morning.

P. L. Taylor, well known horseman of Medford, was in this city, Tuesday looking after a portion of his racing string stabled at the fair grounds.

Mr. Taylor is registered at the Bligh.

A. Johansen and George E. Quinn, both hailing from Astoria, visited friends and transacted business in Salem, Monday and Tuesday.

Potatoes for sale, 5 and 6¢ per lb. While they last. A. J. Egan, Gervais. Or. Phone 3711.

Elevator operator wanted at U. S. National bank. See Mr. Urub.

Reverend P. W. Laune, pastor of the Chemoletta Street Evangelical church, under whose ministry the church has gained noticeably in the last year, left for Portland Wednesday to attend the annual conference of the church, being held there.

Mrs. H. G. Saxon, who has been the guest of her brother, W. H. Prunk of the Red Cross Pharmacy, for several days, has returned to her home in Newport.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans are making plans for a progressive 500 party to be given in the G. A. R. rooms at the Salem Armory, Friday, May 7. The affair will be informal and all are invited.

In an order entered by County Judge W. M. Bushey, Wednesday, June 14, 1920, is set as the date for final hearing of administrative reports in the estate of Robert Gardner.

Horace Sykes and Gilbert Allen, both of Salem, were in Eugene Tuesday attending to business.

D. L. Mitchell, of Albany, spent Tuesday in Salem looking up acquaintances and attending to business matters.

William A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer, who has been on a trip to Eugene, returned to Salem Tuesday.

T. Leland Brown returned to his home in Salem Tuesday evening, after several days visit in the timbered districts of southern Oregon, near Roseburg.

Donald Young, of Eugene, who participated in the golf tournament at the Illibee country club Sunday, and who remained in Salem as the guest of friends, has returned to his home in the Lane county city.

C. C. Cathey, of Albany, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Cathey is a resident of Albany.

Members of company H report the stage all set for a first class dance at the armory, Wednesday night May 5. The proceeds from the dance will be used in completing the mess fund for the midsummer encampment.

One of the special features of the evening will be the seven piece orchestra which has been secured for the occasion. "Come one, come all," is the invitation of the guardsmen.

State Forester F. A. Elliott is in Portland today on business connected with the forestry department.

Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, is in Haggerty where he is in consultation with directors of the John Day irrigation district relative to development work on the project.

The Highland Mothers club will meet Thursday afternoon, May 6, at 2:30 in the school house. Miss Adams of Boston, who is conducting the courses in home nursing in Salem, will speak to the mothers on the essentials of home remedies and methods of caring for patients at home. A large attendance of club members is expected.

A permit to erect a two-story reinforced concrete building at 362 North Commercial street, was issued today to O. F. Franklin. Cost of the structure will be $8000. It will be erected by H. G. Carl.

Louis Rosumny, manager of the Beaver Nut Company, of Portland, was in Salem Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning transacting business. This afternoon Mr. Rosumny went to Albany and Corvallis.

Miss Cora Hendry will present her Junior pupils in recital at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening, May 14, at 8 o'clock.

Caputin and Mrs. W. S. Mann, of Seattle, arrived in Salem Sunday for a week's visit at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Spaulding.

Members of the Women's Relief Corps Aid society will meet at the McCormack hall, upstairs at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, Thursday morning and spend the day in an all-day sewing class. Announcement of this was made this morning, with the request that all members come and bring their lunches.

Baseball tomorrow—Stanford vs Willamette, Sweetland field 3 p. m.