

Boy Scouts will Gather old Papers and Rags Saturday

Beginning next Saturday morning, every square inch of Salem will be scoured for old newspapers, magazines, catalogues, books or rags, in an attempt to gather one-hundred thousand pounds of waste materials with which to pave the way for Boy Scouts and all of Salem's youth, to a Sweeter, broader and higher citizenship.

Convert your waste into Manhood, is the slogan of the campaign, and all Salem is requested to help. Boy Scouts will call on every home and office in the city, take away any waste materials of the paper mills and prepare it for use in the nature and direction of the Salem Council, the direction of the yearly program of the organization.

with whom we are associated in the war, I do expect things to begin when we begin. If they do not, American history will have changed its course; the American army and navy will have changed their character. There will have to come a new tradition into a service which does not do new and audacious and successful things."

Second Interior Decorating Talk Set For Tonight

The second lecture on interior decorating to be given under the auspices of the Salem Arts league will be in the Salem public library tonight at half past seven o'clock. Mrs. Grace R. Wilmot, of New York, is on that subject. Mrs. Wilmot is on a lecture tour for the government and is described as a brilliant, interesting speaker. She will illustrate her talk profusely with colored slides. The public is cordially invited to attend. A business meeting of the league will precede the lecture.

H. L. Cash, for four years engaged in educational work in the Philippine islands, has returned to Eugene and is visiting his brother, A. Burleigh Cash, member of the faculty of the Eugene high school.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

Beginning tomorrow the display will be open to the public, without cost for three days, the hours of exhibition to be from 2 to 5 o'clock each afternoon and from 7 to 9:30 o'clock each evening. It is an exhibit by artists who, for the most part, are more than locally known and should be seen by every art lover in the city.
