Carranza Force Caught In Net of Rebel Lines Fights Fiercely to Save Leader

Vera Cruz, May 11.—(By The Associated Press).—President Venustiano Carranza's army of 4,000 men virtually surrounded by rebel forces commanded by Generals Hill and Trevino, is fight-ing a desperate battle between San Marcos, Puebla, and the vil-lage of Huamantla, ten miles northwest, in the state of Tlaxcala, according to advices received here. The struggle went on all day but no details have been reported.

Robel reinforcements under command of General Porras have been or-dered up from Cordoba, and have tak-en up positions at San Andres and Chalchicomula, southeast of the scene oftoday's battle, probably for the purpose of preventing the escape of Car-tanza, should he succeed in breaking through the lines thrown around him Reports state the Carranza forces are entrenched along the Mexican nationa

She went into detail of line, o and form, illustrating with charn color slides. A home, she said, she be a suitable, harmonious backgro for the folk dwelling in it, and this background had as its keynote—aim-plicity. To her mind, much of the furniture now being manufactured was unquestionably usly, and should be legislated against.

"There is a great movement in Am-erica," said Mrs. Wilmot, "to Ameri-canize foreigners, and to do this we must have ideals and standards in home making as in overy thing else, for every home is a potential center of interest, and a part of the unit of the nation.
