

Shriners Told of Day to Be Spent in Salem Gardens

Informing other Shriners that they will be driven through one of the garden spots of the world, 150 letters were being mailed Friday from the Commercial club by the Arabian Knights Shrine club of Salem to Shrine potentates throughout the United States calling attention to the day when Salem will pay its respects to the mystic organization—June 22.

Through this method of sending the letters to the potentates members of every organization will be apprised of the Salem Shrine club's enterprise, and will be told that they will be taken through some of the best logberry sections, hop yards and prune sections in the country.

The visitors will be entertained in the city from the time of their arrival, about noon, to late in the afternoon when they will be returned to Portland in automobiles furnished by Salem citizens. They will be feted to dining in the state house lawn during their stay here. Welcome is extended in the letters by King Bing Clancy of the Cherrians, and Dr. C. A. Olson, president of the Arabian Knights Shrine club of this city.

Copper Attends Columbia Basin Development Meet

Percy A. Copper, state engineer, is in Portland today in conference with delegates from Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma and representatives of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, relative to the development of the Columbia basin irrigation district comprising 1,750,000 acres in the Blue Bend country in eastern Washington. Copper's interest in the project lies in the possibility of including a large body of land in northeastern Oregon in the district which is to be irrigated with water appropriated from streams in Montana and Idaho.

Automobile Sold to Bootleggers Not Insurable

Dealers selling automobiles to persons engaged in the bootlegging business must do so at their own risk. They can not insure the car against loss through confiscation by federal agents. This is the gist of an opinion prepared by J. H. Van Winkle, assistant attorney general in reply to a query from A. C. Barber, state insurance commissioner, as to whether a "confiscation clause" could be attached to insurance policies covering loss on automobiles in this state. Such a clause is against public policy, according to Van Winkle who holds that it would only tend to lessen the diligence of persons selling automobiles on conditional sales and assist persons intending to engage in a violation of the United States prohibition law in making the purchase of an automobile for use in their traffic.

Grip, Influenza

Hamilton's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventative

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and sniff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against the germ.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into a dangerous influenza.

Get it from druggists for 30c. If not satisfied, return the bottle and get your money back.

Ever congested or have sick head aches? Just try Wizard Liver Whips, pleasant little pink pills. 0c at drug-gists. Guaranteed. (Adv)

Wife Charges Lack Of Aid From Spouse

Rilla Josephine Brown instituted divorce proceedings Thursday against W. Brown, charging non-support and cruel treatment. The couple were married at Harding, Montana, May 17, 1917. Of this marriage there are two children, Perry Wesley, age 6 years, and June Henrietta, aged 4 years.

Mrs. Brown, who states that she has six children by a former marriage, now with her, states that her spouse has never provided a home for his family and but poorly contributed to the support of his two children despite her claim that he earns from one to two hundred dollars per month.

Additional charges are that the husband forced his stepchildren to "go out into the world to care for themselves"; that he took money given to him by the wife and her children with which to purchase a horse and cow and retained the money for his own use.

In order to provide shelter and food for the children, Mrs. Brown states in her complaint that she was forced to work outside, securing employment as a cook at better quality restaurants in Salem. When she returned from her
