

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS
 May 27—Baby clinic, Commercial club, 7 p. m.
 May 26-27—Appollo Club concert, Grand theater.
 May 25—Senior class play of Salem High School, S. H. S. auditorium, 8:15 p. m.
 May 25—Address by Wm. H. Taft, at the armory.
 May 20—Memorial day.
 May 26—Rotary club meeting, Hotel Marion, Noon.
 May 30—Business Men's luncheon, Commercial club, Noon.
 June 1—City council meeting, City hall, 7:30 p. m.
 June 1—American Legion meeting, armory, 8 p. m.

Court House News

Circuit Court
 A. B. Wiesner et al vs M. D. Mayfield et al. Objections to injunctions, Leo Childs vs Charles Fannelle, A. F. Havitt.
 Peter H. Schmidt vs Frank Novak. Complaint.
 Leo Childs vs Charles M. Fannelle. Order.
 Leo Childs vs Charles M. Fannelle. Complaint.

Daily Statistics

Died.
 WILLIAMS—John M. Williams, 77, died at hospital Monday. Funeral Wednesday at 2 p. m. at chapel of Rigdon & Son company. Burial Lee Mission cemetery.
 TAYLOR—Samuel B. Taylor, 86, Monday, May 24, at a local hospital. The body is in charge of the Terwilliger home and funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial in the Macleay cemetery.

Wanted to lease for 1 year or more 6 or 7 room furnished house, J. J. Brock, phone 1028R.
 John E. Denoon of Spokane transacted business in Salem Monday and Tuesday, being a guest of the Bligh hotel.

J. F. Bellinger of Eugene was a Salem visitor Monday.

Reserved seat sale, high school play Wednesday at high school, 8:30 a. m. 125*

Ye Olde Time Concert by Chas. W. Hawley, Jr., at the Oregon theater Wed. and Thurs. evenings. 125*

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sherman of San Jose, Cal., stopped in Salem Monday night, motoring south on their return from a tour to Puget Sound points.

Go! Friday night, high school auditorium. 125*

Annual S. H. S. senior play, "The Scarecrow," by Percy MacKaye, high school auditorium, Friday May 28, 8:15 p. m. 25*

An Albany visitor to Salem was William Howard, who was a guest at the Bligh hotel, Monday and Tuesday.

Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.*

10 days left to buy baby chicks. Place your order now. Buff and White Leghorns for sale today. C. N. Needham, 578 State St. Phone 400, 126

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 50 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in M. A. degree. 125

Declaring that a neighbor boy had struck her daughter on the head with a shovel, cutting a deep and painful gash, Mrs. Al Gerald, 2340 Myrtle avenue, summoned police for help Monday evening. Traffic Officer Moffitt was detailed to investigate but found no condition warranting arrests.

Search by Officer Rowe in the vicinity of 640 North Commercial street Monday evening for a man named John Bogynska, from Oregon City, who is said to have attempted to force his way into the residence at that address, resulted in failure. When the officer arrived Bogynska had fled. The attempt to enter the home was thought by police to have been an effort to satisfy his enmity caused in an argument with the other family.

A valuable milk goat, taken from the barn at the home of W. A. Graham, 796 Union street, returned Tuesday morning, and search that was being made by authorities thru out the city, and in surrounding towns was discontinued. The lock on the door of the barn had been broken. Mr. Graham said that he believed it was a prank that had been played on him by neighboring boys.

A. B. Stewart spent Sunday and Monday in Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Word was received at the local post office Tuesday, that hereafter a charge of three cents will be made for the return to the sender of letters sent to the dead letter office. Here to fore their has been no charge.

Six thousand Three hundred and eighteen dollars and 44 cents was spent for postage for the election pamphlets sent through the local post office last week. Of the pamphlets cancelled in the machines in the office 1747.02 were in the one cent class and 2285.71 were two cent mailing matter.

G. A. Darr of Gridley, Cal., is spending a few days in this city, visiting friends.

Julius Jasmer of Turner was a visitor to this city, Tuesday.

For Brides

We've made very elaborate provisions in the way of appropriate gifts for June brides to meet the demand always made upon us by those who know our reputation for tasty selection and dependable values. Choice jewelry effects, goldwear, silverwear and novelties of newest designs.

Hartman Bros. Co.
 Jewelers & Opticians
 Salem, Ore.

A guest of the Hotel Marion, Tuesday, was Guy R. Bond of Albany, who spent a few hours in this city.

Charles H. Rudd of Pendleton is registered at the Marion. The eastern Oregon man is visiting friends in this city.

Stanley H. Myers of Corvallis stopped in Salem, Tuesday.

Walter McCamant well known Portland attorney, was a Salem visitor, Monday. Mr. McCamant stopped at the Marion Monday night and returned to Portland Tuesday morning.

G. D. Welch of Roseburg registered at the Marion, Monday.

Attorney Oscar Hayter of Dallas transacted business in Salem, Tuesday.

F. Fenton of Eugene was a business visitor to this city Tuesday.

T. Hinkle of Hermiston was a Salem visitor Monday.

Persons residing in the vicinity of 144 North Front street, and around the Valley Motor company's shops were finally permitted to sleep at about 12:30 a. m. Tuesday when Night Patrolman Victor succeeded in finding the disturber—a tractor that had been left standing in front of the Valley Motor company's shops running—and stopped the engine. Report of the disturbance had been made to police.

"Boy Scouts in Camp," a special reel made by the boy scouts will be shown at Ye Liberty Wednesday evening. 125*

Col. James S. Dusenberry, inspector-instructor for the Oregon Coast Artillery Corps, was in Ashland Tuesday inspecting the First Company, recently organized there. Col. Dusenberry is expected to return to the adjutant general's office here Wednesday.

Sentence on Joseph F. Kammler.

Arrested Monday on a bench warrant charging him with giving intoxicating liquor to another person, was deferred until Wednesday at 10 a. m. to give Municipal Judge Race time to consider testimony. Kammler, defending himself was given a trial before Judge Race Tuesday morning. He is said to have taken hard cider to the Salem Tile and Mercantile company and given it to workers.

Attention was called Tuesday by Gerald Volk, chairman of the health and police committee, to the city ordinance that prohibits the transportation of meats, such as hogs and cattle, through city streets without it being covered. Mr. Volk said Tuesday that several complaints have been received from residents that local butchers have permitted drivers to bring meats into the city from slaughter houses—uncovered.

The funeral of Alois Krepela, 58, former soldier who died here Sunday will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son company, 252 North High street at 2 p. m. Thursday, according to an announcement from there Tuesday. Burial will be in City View cemetery. Members of the American Legion, of which Krepela was a member, are urged to attend the funeral.

Some persons are easily frightened. So think Salem's cops. At 11:50 p. m. Monday, women residing on Capital street, between Chemeketa and Center, called police headquarters and reported that "bandits are in the neighborhood and are getting ready to raid our homes." Traffic Officer Moffitt rushed to the scene of disquiet and found four small boys, sitting Indian fashion around a small fire in an alley, swapping yarns. They were flaunting fagots in the air, and having lots of sport, but when the officer arrived they sped homeward.

Discharge certificates registered Tuesday with County Clerk U. G.

Boyer show that Corporal Ivis Miller enlisted with the U. S. forces May 21, 1917, serving with the Fourth Engineer Troop. He was overseas May 1, 1918 to August 29, 1919, during which time he saw active service on the Aisnes-Marne; Vesle; Toulon; St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne sectors. He was discharged from the service, September 7, 1919. Private Francis Miller entered the service September 1919. He was discharged at Camp Lewis, January 24, 1920.

The office of County Superintendent W. M. Smith was busily engaged Tuesday in compiling eighth grade examination returns and getting these ready for mailing during the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Mildred Robertson Brooks is at Baker, Oregon, where she will spend a few days visiting with her son, J. Robertson Brooks, of that city.

Mrs. J. Kooreman, 1650 South High street, will entertain the Women's missionary society of Leslie Methodist church, Wednesday 2:30 p. m. This is the annual mile box opening meeting, and a large attendance is expected.

Collision of his auto with one driven by J. S. Unruh, on 14th street, between Court and Chemeketa, Monday night, was reported to police by A. D. Wilcox. Mr. Wilcox said that Unruh struck him when he attempted to avoid collision with a cyclist that had loomed up in the dark ahead of them. The running board and steering gear of the Wilcox car was badly damaged. No one was hurt.

Another $1,500,000 of Bean-Burratt state highway bonds are being offered for sale by the state board of control, bids to be opened June 15. The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4 1/2 percent per year. This is the balance of the $2,500,000 requested by the state highway commission several months ago to meet federal money now available for post and forest roads in Oregon.

New Today
 RUPERT JULIAN
 IN
 THE FIRE FLINGERS
 It's a Special COMEDY
Bligh Theatre

Ellison-White Lyceum Bureau presents
William Howard TAFT
 Lecturing on "The League of Nations Up-to-Date"
ARMORY
 General Admission $1.00
 Plus War Tax 10c
Saturday Eve'ng MAY 29
 Reserved Seats $1.50
 15c war tax extra
 Will's Music Store

MEET ME AT MILLER'S
We are too busy REMODELING
 And Modernizing Our Store To Write Ads
MILLER'S Good Goods.

Second Concert Third Season
The Apollo Club of Salem, Ore.
 In Concert With
MADAM WINIFRED FAHEY, Soprano
 Grand Theatre, Wed., and Thurs. Nights, May 26-27
 Seat Sale Opens Wednesday, 9 o'clock a. m.
 Opera House Pharmacy
 —Prices—
 Lower Floor and Balcony, $1.50 Gallery, 75 Cents

WEDNESDAY
 Proving this to be an interesting shopping day. We have selected these few specials, which will draw thrifty shoppers to the great store.—Note these savings

—GROCERIES—

White Laundry Soap the bar	5c	Hardwheat flour, special the sack	$2.95
Cottolene, No. 2 size, Special	50c	Japan rice, 7 pounds	$1.00
Cream of Barley, special the package	14c	Lipton's tea, special pound	85c

Dress Goods		Shoes
White organdie imported, 44-in, yd	$1.19	New white shoes, without high prices. All styles and sizes
Voile, imported 44-inch, yd	$1.45	Ladies' white canvas Oxfords, regular $4.50, at	$3.45
French gingham imported, yd	98c	Ladies' brown Oxfords, regular $7.50, at	$5.85
Men's Wear		Basement Specials That Prove Big Savings
New suits for summer, special	$34.75	Table Oil Cloth All colors and white	59c
Men's overalls, Wednesday, special	$1.65	Flags for Decoration Day Special	14c
Men's new hats light weight	98c

Mr. Working Man
 We are reducing our stock of work clothes and shoes. Here are a few of the many bargains you will find here—

Men's summer weight union suits, short sleeves and ankle length, special	95c	Neckties, nifty patterns	50c
Knox Knit Hosiery, 50c pair; 3 pairs	$1	Children's play suits	95c
Men's Band Shirts, French cuff special	$1.95	SPECIAL ON SHOES
Uncle Sam Work Shirts, while they last	$1.25	Men's outing shoes, split leather	$2.45
Levi Strauss blue denim overalls Waist, $2.00 Bib	$2.75	Men's heavy work shoe, waterproof, tan and black, to close out	$6.50
Khaki pants, extra weight	$2.95	Famous "Star Brand"—soft and good, regular $9.00, extra special	$6.75
Corduroys, extra special	$5.50	Gun metal, Plaza, English last	$7.50
Men's semi-dress pants (To close out)	$2.50	FOR BOYS
Men's crash hats	75c	Army shoes	$4.95
Dress caps, broken sizes	95c	Chocolate outing shoes	$2.25
Suspenders, dress	50c	Black English	$5.95

These shoes are all warranted pure leather, satisfaction or your money back.
 CANVAS GLOVES 10c PAIR

Kaloury Bros.
 THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE
 Ladies' Store 466-471 State Street
 Men's Store 416 State Street

OREGON
 WM. S. HART IN "THE TOLL GATE" SENNETT COMEDY LAST TIMES TONIGHT NOW

LIBERTY
 TODAY "SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE" THURSDAY—

Col. Leemle of Strohheim's Wonder Drug

BLIND HUSBANDS
 The Photoplay Art Has Not Created Anything More Entrancing