

Convention of Elks Not to Lack For Live Stunts

One of the grandest marches and parades that has been staged anywhere. Boxing bouts that will equal any that have been staged heretofore in the state.

Entertainment such as no other convention has had in this city. These are some of the things that are being arranged by Salem lodge No. 134, Elks, for the annual state convention here July 22-23-24.

In order to make the parade on the evening of July 21 the best affair ever held in Salem, Elks here are offering attractive prizes as follows:

Largest uniformed body in line—grand prize Elks head; second prize altar flag.

Best decorated automobile in line—First, $100; second $50. Prize to be awarded to individual owning car.

Most original comic stunt—First, $50; second $25.

Lodge registering largest number of women—Loving cup presented by Hartman Bros. jewelers.

The parade will begin at eight o'clock in the evening, and will be headed by W. C. Dyer, who will act as grand marshal. Entrants to the parade are to communicate with Oscar B. Gingrich, chairman of the grand march committee.

On the night of July 23, at the stadium at the fair grounds, the boxing bouts will be held. The sports committee of the Elks is cooperating with the municipal boxing commission in arranging the bouts.

Stunts, and lots of 'em, will be staged by the Salem lodge and visiting lodges at the state fair grounds. Not a day will lack for entertainment of the highest character, according to the program of the Antlered Herd.

Coming 500 strong, with 300 members in uniform, the lodge of McMinville will make no small showing. This lodge has challenged all other lodges in the state to equal the stunts they plan to stage. Lodges in the state planning to give special news are to communicate with Harry Wiedner, secretary of the Salem lodge; and persons planning to attend the meet should write to E. A. Kurf, chairman of the accommodations committee.

Willamette Law School Plans to Expand Next Year

Heads of the law department of Willamette university met at the Marion hotel Friday noon to formulate plans for the enlargement of the law school next year. The first essential is a permanent home for the law classes and plans were formed and committees appointed to confer with the board of trustees, to obtain accommodations which would be suitable and spacious for the exclusive use of the law students. It is thought that rooms in the reconstructed Walker hall will be used next year.

It is also planned that the department shall be standardized next year so as to meet the requirements of the state bar. A lengthening of the class period and the offering of several additional courses is all that is needed to do this and it will undoubtedly come to pass next year.

Indefinite plans for the gradual enlargement of the school are announced with a separate building for the law department in the near future.

Key Heads Band To Welcome Taft

T. B. Kay has been appointed head of the committee to welcome William Howard Taft at the depot Saturday morning, when he arrives at 2:45. Governor Ben W. Olcott and the justices of the Oregon supreme court will be on the committee, and they will escort the ex-president to Hotel Marion, where he will devote his time to interviews until the noon lunch at 12:30.

Following the luncheon, at which most of the prominent business and professional men of the city will be present, Mr. Taft will go to Silverton for a few hours, returning late in the afternoon for a few hours rest before lecturing at the armory.

These are the definite plans of the local Ellison-White representatives, under whose auspices the distinguished guest comes to the capital city and as far as is now known they will be carried out. The lecture in the evening is at 8:30, on "The League of Nations Up to Date."

Browning Home Is Prey Of Thieves

The home of Fred Browning, 340 South 21st street, was entered by thieves some time Thursday, and several articles of value were stolen, according to police, who were investigating the burglary Friday. The barn on the Browning property also was entered, but nothing of value was found removed from there.

Three boys, Tillman Dutton, age 13, son of Mr. F. A. Dutton, 549 Turner street, Verle and Earl Miller, both age 15, whose father is C. A. Miller, 749 South 21st street, were seen in the vicinity of the Browning home Thursday evening, and when interviewed by Officer W. J. White, furnished information that may lead to the arrest of the persons who entered the home.

According to the boys other lads residing in the neighborhood had robbed the house, substantiating the belief of officers that the place had been entered by boys.

Police To Better Parking Conditions

Careless parking of autos in the city will merit close attention of officers, if orders issued to patrolman by Chief of Police Welsh Friday are minded. The health and police committee of the city council, finding that numerous cars have been faultily parked on downtown streets, Friday ordered the chief of police to see to the strict enforcement of the parking ordinance.

The ordinance calls for the parking of autos at an angle of 45 degrees with the way traffic is moving. Many cars have been parked square against the curb, Chief Welsh said. Minimum fine for violating the parking ordinance is $5.

After a shutdown of two months, the C. A. Smith shingle mill has resumed sawing.

Boys Will March Thru Streets On Way To "Fun Fest"

Friday afternoon and evening is the time of the Y. M. C. A. laddies big time. At 5:30 p. m. the parade leaves the Salem "Y" headquarters on South Commercial street. Especially decorated automobiles driven by T. E. McCroskey and J. F. Hutchason will lead the procession.

The main section of the parade will be given over to the 300 boys, many of whom have prepared elaborate costumes in competing for the prize to be given to the best parade costumes.

Following the boys will be Chief of Police John T. Welsh and Salem's police reserves. However the police will not be on hand for riot duty, but simply upon invitation of members of "Y" council who are appreciative of the manner in which Chief Welsh works with the boy population of Salem.

Perhaps the reason for his understanding of the average boy is because Chief Welsh has a family of his own.

The band, Salem high school band, will follow the police squad and will bring up the rear of the "march past." Line of march is: South Commercial to State; State to Liberty; north on Liberty to the Cherry City bakery.

At the bakery Manager Roy Wise will extend the courtesies of the plant to the boys.

Did any body say eats? Well, at six o'clock sharp on the dot, the boys will seat themselves to a repast of "what the piece de resistance" will be fourteen hundred feet of wienies, nearly a quarter of a mile's length of the tasty Vienna sausages. Bread, buns, cookies and ice cream are among the other items provided by Manager Wise.

Bogynska Nabbed For Beating Sister

John Bogynska, 35, from Oregon City, for whom police have held a warrant several days charging disorderly conduct, walked into police headquarters Friday morning and submitted to arrest. When arraigned before Police Judge Race he pleaded not guilty to the charge and was released under $20 bond. A jury trial will be held in several days.

Bogynska was arrested on complaint of Mr. C. E. Timms, 440 North Commercial street, his sister. She claims that he entered her house several days ago, and during a family argument, struck her. Several days later he returned, according to her report to police, broke into her house and took away some clothing belonging to him.

Many To Visit In Salem In Carnival Time, Clancy Says

"Salem had better get ready, for practically everyone I met in California is coming here during the Rose Festival at Portland, and will be guests of this city on Salem Day."

This is the message brought back from the sunny south by C. B. Clancy, King Bing of the Salem Cerearians, who returned Friday morning after a ten days visit in California.

While in California King Bing Clancy visited San Francisco, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Santa Barbara.

"They can say what they please," the King said Friday. "There isn't a spot in California, unless it is hidden away in the Santa Clara valley, that will compare at all with Oregon. I had to travel all the way to Los Angeles to find an Oregon mist, and there certainly was some mist there."

Participation of San Francisco and Los Angeles as cities in the Rose Festival is doubtful, Mr. Clancy said. A few details of the festival were attended to in these cities by Mr. Clancy, acting on the request of Max Houser, president of the Portland Rose Festival association.

Mysterious Note Mailed To Chief

What is the meaning of Y. O. P. B. M. N? This question was being asked Friday by Chief of Police Welsh.

Friday morning the chief received a postcard, postmarked at Fresno, Cal., that has proven quite a mystery.

It read: "If you don't know who this is from it won't do you any harm." And beneath that inscription appeared the baffling letters as above. On the opposite side of the card was a caricature clipping with this

End Of Study Term Is Celebrated At Lexington School

The Livingstone school at Fourth and Gales streets, held its sixth annual school exercises at the school rooms, Thursday evening; the 57 pupils in attendance at the school, presented an attractive program to a crowded room.

Salem Ex-Service Man Weds Utah Girl

Hiram Cooper, former high school student and well known in this city, surprised his Salem friends Monday,

May 24, by returning from Portland with a bride. The bride, formerly Miss Ethel LaVeen of Eureka, Utah, made the trip to Portland alone and was met in that city by Mr. Cooper, the couple being immediately united in marriage at the Calvary Baptist parsonage by Rev. H. T. Cash.

The marriage is the culmination of an acquaintanceship that began at an army hospital at Salt Lake City, where Mr. Cooper received treatment for after-effects of an attack of pneumonia incurred while in France. Mr. Cooper served with company M, 25th Infantry of the First division and saw active service in four sectors, the Toul defensive and the offensives of St. Mehiel, Argonne and Sedan Heights.

The couple will make their home at 1814 Broadway.

Salem Heights Team Plays Gear, Sunday

The eleven inning, 6-7 game which the Salem Heights ball nine lost to the Gear team, at that place Sunday, has resulted in arrangements for a game to be played at Kilpatrick field high school athletic team, which will be charged.

The team has made a good record for itself in the southern part of the city. In the Sunday game, Hagedorn pitched a two pass, two hit and The Salem Heights battery in Eureka and "Dutch" and Lucas as catchers.
