

Highway Board Open Bids on New Signboards

1920 signs with which to mark the state highways in Oregon opened at Monday's meeting of the highway commission in Portland.

According to Roy A. Klein, secretary to the commission, the board will also open bids at this time on 12,000 barrels of cement for the Yamhill-McMinnville project, it is stated.

It also will be received on proposals of four wooden truss bridges on the Crooked river near Prineville in Crook county and one combined crossing over the Siskiyou and the Shanks branch of the Columbia river near the D-W. R. & N. company's tracks near Sherman county.

Under other highway improvement consideration at this time are bids for the following:

Yamhill county—Yonkers bay-Miles section Astoria-Seaside project 1000 lineal feet of concrete pavement 18 feet wide.

Wasco county—Mayville—Thirty creek section of the John Day river, seven miles grading.

Wasco county—Overcrossing approaches near Ashland.

Wasco county—Paving between Snake and Snake river, 5 miles.

Wasco county—Pilot Rock-Peninsula, 10.5 miles grading and surface.

Army Officials Favor Patrol Olcott Reports

Bringing with him assurances of hearty support from the officials in charge of the western department of the army for the airplane patrol of Oregon forests, Governor Olcott returned Thursday morning from his flight to San Francisco in company with Lieutenant R. M. Kelley of the United States air service.

Both Lieutenant General Liggett and Colonel H. H. Arnold are strong declared the governor, explaining that the army officials credit this state with much of the recognition which the air service has gained through its forest patrol service of the past year.

Governor Olcott is highly enthusiastic over his flight from Boise, Wash., on the international boundary line to San Francisco, in spite of the fact that adverse weather conditions prevented the establishment of the full flight record which had been planned.

The flight of 1900 miles which had been planned as a seven hour trip required approximately ten hours due to high head winds, Governor Olcott takes occasion to score Seattle for its lack of provision for visiting airplanes, it being necessary to land at Kent, Wash., 20 miles away and motor in to the Washington metropolis.

All the pilots in the air service in California are anxious to be assigned to duty in Oregon, the governor states, the treatment accorded the aviators here last year, together with the attitude of Oregon holding out a strong appeal to the aviators who are stationed in the southern state.

Defeat Costly to David M. Dunne

The mere pleasure of running for the office of delegate from the third congressional district to the republican convention, cost David M. Dunne of Portland, the sum total of $219.33 according to his statement of campaign expenditures filed with the secretary of state's office here Thursday.

Other filings Thursday were by James H. Hazlett, Hood River, democrat for state senator, 16th district $10; Thos. B. Kay, Salem, republican representative 24th district, $25.50; George H. Hyatt, Enterprise, republican for representative 24th district, $20; G. G. Joyce, treasurer W. C. North campaign committee, contribution in behalf of North's candidacy for republican nomination for representative 18th district, $150.48; Robert S. Farrell, Portland republican, for senator 12th district, $59.60; C. W. Hosford, Portland, republican for representative 15th district, nothing; A. M. Wright, Moro, republican for representative 26th district, nothing; Walter L. Robb, Portland, republican for presidential elector, $23.45; Dore V. Walker, Portland, republican for delegate to national convention, $38.17; Charles C. Hladman, Portland, republican for representative 18th district, $46; Fred E. Smith, Eugene, republican for district attorney for Lane county, $15; John H. Stevenson, Portland, democrat for delegate to national convention, nothing; W. C. North, Portland, republican for representative 18th district, $15.65; E. V. Carter, Ashland, republican for representative eighth district, nothing; Loyd M. Graham, Forest Grove, republican for representative 16th district, $10; Arthur K. Hill, Portland, republican for representative 15th district, $9.30.

Wood Mentioned Again

Harry M. Daugherty, campaign manager for Senator Harding, republican, of Ohio, was recalled. The witness said two Ohio newspapers, the State Journal and the Columbia Dispatch had supported Senator Harding at first, but later had supported General Wood. Senator Reed sought an explanation.

"I would be willing to go this far," Mr. Daugherty said, "There was a very active campaign made around Columbus for General Wood."

It is true that very large expenditures were made on advertising in that Ohio campaign? Senator Reed continued.

"There were expenditures of that kind—too expensive for us, and I didn't go into it," Mr. Daugherty replied.

Louis J. Lang, a reporter of the New York American, identified himself as the writer of an article purporting to tell of a $5,000,000 underwriting for a fund to back a campaign to bring about McAdoo's nomination at San Francisco.

$10,000,000 Fund Planned

He refused to disclose the source of his information.

"A member of the democratic national committee was with my informant when I was told the story," Mr. Lang said.

Chairman Kenyon announced that several democratic national committee men had been subpoenaed to appear during the investigation.

Mr. Lang discussed a meeting of the democratic national executive meeting at Atlantic City last September. He said that plans were made to raise $10,000,000 for a democratic national campaign. Thomas F. Chadbourne and B. M. Baruch were at Atlantic City at the time, he said.

Mr. Lang testified that he had been informed that a member of the national committee had stated that Frederick A. Wallace, a deputy police commissioner of New York was representing Mr. Baruch in collecting finances for the McAdoo campaign and that the $10,000,000 financing as planned at Atlantic City contemplated Mr. McAdoo's nomination by the democratic convention.

"Members of the national committee," Lang said, had corroborated the story later.

Theater Business Better

Cleveland.—The theatrical business has increased 50 per cent since the country went dry, according to John Cort of New York, one of the country's leading producers, on a recent visit to Cleveland. He declared the dry era staved off a disastrous period for the theatrical world.

Royalty Adopts Overall.—Toledo, O.—Count Constantine Ratchinsky, erstwhile nobleman of the royal court of Russia, has taken up overall. The count, who lost his fortune in the bolshevik revolution, is working as a day laborer in a Toledo automobile factory "sorting and trucking." Some day Count Ratchinsky plans to return to Russia to sell automobile.

Mayor Caldwell of Seattle declares that the city was bunched out of five or six million dollars in the purchase of street railway lines.
