Liners To Have New Stabilizers

San Francisco.—Two new liners the Pacific Steamship company is planning will be equipped with gyroscope stabilizers, it has been announced. The device, not yet used on the Pacific coast, consists of a great flywheel operated by electricity and revolving on a horizontal plane. It tends to prevent the rolling of a ship.

Labor Slights Prince.

Melbourne, Australia. — The Melbourne Trades Hall council has decided that it will not be officially represented at any function connected with the Prince of Wales' visit here, because the money that would be spent on such functions could be used in the interests of the wage earners whereas, the council asserted, the proposed expenditure would bolster up the capitalistic system. The resolution also requested trades unionists to refuse to allow their children to participate in the welcome to the Prince or any similar function.

MEMORIAL SOUGHT FOR "POET OF THE SIERRAS"

Oakland, Cal. — Claude Hamilton Welton, known as "King of the Hobos" graduate of two universities, lawyer and psychologist, has returned to his home here to start a campaign for the establishment of a memorial to Joaquin Miller, "the poet of the Sierras."

Welton plans to begin work in Alameda county within the next month for the permanent preservation of "The Heights" in East Oakland, where the poet made his home.

Irish Banker Guarded.

Dublin.—The holdups in the south of Ireland of bank officials has led to an interetsing counter move. A party of 30 civilians escorted two officials of the Munster and Leinster bank from Tipperary to a suboffice at Galbally, county Limerick, nine miles distant, where a cattle fair was held. Two of the members of the escort went in front on horseback, and the remainder followed in cars.
