

Tennis Tourney Game Schedule Is Announced

The drawing and time schedule for the men's singles in the All City Tennis tournament was completed last evening. Tomorrow the opening day of the tournament will be devoted entirely to the first round of the men's singles.

The sixteen matches to be played off in this event tomorrow will furnish lots of thrills for the spectators, for with the exception of one or two matches it happens that every one is very evenly matched. Tomorrow will mark the unveiling of the "dark horse" of which there are a considerable number, and will also be the first opportunity to see players with a "rep" such as Milton Steiner, Dr. Bates, Staley, Knickerbocker, Hugh Doney and McDougal in tournament action.

The courts will be constantly busy from 1:30 p. m. on and a few matches have been scheduled in the morning to suit the convenience of the players. Players are warned that they must be on time for all matches or suffer a default. Fifteen minutes grace will be allowed, but all are urged to be on time, thus showing consideration for the matches which follow.

The drawings and schedule for the men's doubles, ladies singles, and mixed doubles will be announced tomorrow. Some great fun is promised in the events, as a number of evenly matched teams and single entries are pitted against one another.

The tournament committee has been very fortunate in securing as tournament manager, K. B. Palmer, advertising manager for Hauser Bros. Mr. Palmer had charge of the tennis athletics and tournament for the Seattle Athletic club for three years, and is a player of ability himself.

Below is the time schedule of play for tomorrow. Players must be on time or lose by default. Balls will be furnished, also umpires where necessary.

Table with tennis match times and names: 7:30 a. m. Burdette vs Steiner, 10:30 a. m. Houston vs Thielsen, 1:30 p. m. Warren vs Bowen, 1:30 p. m. Foster vs Curtis, 2:30 Needham vs Bates, 2:30 p. m. Bearcats Show Up Well Despite Loss of Games

Although they lost seven out of the nine games played during the season, the Willamette Bearcats have passed through what may be considered a very successful season. Considering the class of teams played, the local college team put up an excellent brand of ball. O. A. C., Stanford and Multnomah club support three of the best amateur teams on the coast, and it is a credit to Coach Mathews' team to have given them such close battles as were staged here this spring.

The Bearcats fielded thruout the season as well as any team they faced. They were handicapped at first by lack of an experienced pitcher, but Irvine and Dimick got in shape and filled the gap satisfactorily. The team batted well on the average, better than Willamette teams have in years past, but there was a need felt for a few more sluggers. Barney Page and "Rabbit" Dimick were the best hitters.

Table with batting averages for Bearcats: Claton .1, R. Dimick .11, Page .29, Radepinner .7, H. Dimick .26, Irvine .29, Power .15, Davies .32, Basler .6, Jackson .6, Brown .27, McKittrick .26. Team average .185.

Favorites Nosed Out In English Derby By Spion Kop

London, June 2.—England's greatest racing event, the Derby, was won today at Epsom Downs by Major G. Leder Spion Kop from a field of 19 starters, including Allenby and Tetra, which were hot favorites. Lord Derby's Archibald captured second place but the third position was taken by a rank outsider, Sir H. Conliffe-Owen's Orpheus. In the betting, 16 to 1 was laid against the winner, Archibald was quoted at 10 to 1, while 50 to 1 was freely offered against Orpheus.

Grange Opens State Meet In Bend, Tuesday

Bend, Or., June 2.—With more than 20 delegates from Pomona and subordinate granges from all over the state in attendance and other members not accredited swelling the number to fully 300, the 47th annual convention of the Oregon state grange opened here Tuesday. Hotels were crowded to the limit last night, and today it was found necessary to find rooms in many private homes to accommodate the visitors. The convention will last through Friday.

Examination of credentials took up the entire morning session. The annual reports of C. E. Spence, state master, and Mrs. Minnie E. Bond, state lecturer, featured the afternoon session. No less than 22 resolutions, varying in their aims from prohibition of dancing in grange halls to regulation of the affairs of the national government, were introduced and referred without debate to committees having jurisdiction.

One resolution which is likely to receive considerable attention from the convention asks for standardization of the schools of the different states on a national basis and the appointment of a United States commissioner of education.

State Master Optimistic. An optimistic outlook for the future of the organization was taken by the state master, when in his report covering the activities of the past year, he declared that the grange is stronger than ever before in spirit, if not in numbers, and that its financial condition will permit an aggressive extension campaign. He forecast a rapid growth for the state grange co-operative exchange.

Mr. Spence spoke vigorously against any attempt to regulate "big business" by law, asserting that the only satisfactory method of attaining this end is through co-operation between producer and consumer. It is hoped that through an exchange between "farm and labor co-operative associations" much of the present cost of distribution can be eliminated, he said.

Touching the present condition of unrest, he urged the removal of the cause, rather than the treatment of symptomatic conditions.

Grievances Held Real. "The only way to keep men from agitating against grievances is to remove the grievances," he said. "The seed of revolution is repression. The real antidote for the unrest which manifests itself is not suppression, but a deep consideration of the wrongs which beset our national life and the application of a remedy."

The speaker emphatically asserted that the grange is in no sense a political or party organization, but he cited legislative measures which he declared should have the support of the organization.

Amendment of the state rural credits law to permit financing with state funds, upward revision of the auto license schedule as regards high-priced cars, graduated land tax upon excessive holdings, a state income tax, organization of water power districts and amendment of the land registration law to insure effective operation were chief among these. He argued against any changes in the land bank law.

Mrs. Bond, state lecturer, reported the organization of six granges during the past 12 months and urged that the policies of the order be made such as to eliminate the possibility of public criticism.
