

Lafest News Covering Central Willamette Valley by Capital Journal Special Correspondence

Result of Marion Primary Is Shown By Official Count

The official count of the republican-democratic and state measure ballots have been completed by the special force at work in the offices of County Clerk U. G. Boyer. The largest vote on any single ballot item was cast on the capital punishment measure, 9289 voters marking this item, there being 5386 votes in favor of the restoration of the death penalty, as compared to 4193 who voted "no."

The vote for president on the republican nomination ballot was: Hoover, 940; Johnson, 3114; Lowden, 782; Wood, 3134. William McCadon, as the only democratic entrant, received 1146 votes on the democratic ballot.

On the nominations for office of vice-president Henry Cabot Lodge received 3547, Elwood Washington 1445, and W. G. Webster 1242. The democratic aspirant for nominee, W. T. Vaughan received 924 votes.

For electors of president and vice-president, the republican ballot was as follows:

M. C. George 3586, Harriet C. Hendee 2844, Clarence R. Hotchkiss 2937, Joseph Hume 4622, F. S. Ivanhoe 3736, Charles E. Lockwood, 3637, John Y. Richardson 4652, Walter L. Robb 3592. Democratic electors received this vote on the final check-over:

Chas. L. Gavin 813, Oscar Hayter 1026, E. T. Hedlund 968, Robert A. Miller 1671, A. E. Reames 1602, Elton Watkins 1597.

Republicans Results.
For commission of the public service commission of Oregon, district composed of the counties lying west of the Cascade mountains: Fred G. Buchtel 4475, Edward M. Cousin 1895.

For representative, first representative district, Marion county: B. T. Busselle 1858, Frank Davey 2837, T. L. Davidson 1563, S. A. Hughes 2277, T. R. Kay 4731, Jos. J. Keber 1846, David H. Looney 3256, Ivan G. Martin 2597, J. C. Perry 3811, Zedoc J. Riggs 2468, J. M. Watson Sr. 1438, Geo. W. Weeks 2314, A. E. Wrightman 1949, Henry Zorn 1849.

For United States senator in congress: Albert Abraham 2424, R. N. Stanfield 4550.

For secretary of state: E. L. Coburn 277, B. P. Jones 636, Sam A. Koser 3768, Fred Lockley 908, M. Vernon Farnson 584, Henry J. Schulderman 636, W. D. Wood 636.

States Measures Given.
The vote on the state measures is hereby given:
Constitutional amendment extending eminent domain over roads and ways: yes 5545, no 3237.
Limitation of four per cent state indebtedness for permanent roads: yes 5094, no 4153.
Crook and Curry counties bonding amendment: yes 3787, no 3281.
Successor to governor: yes 4242, no 4758.
Higher educational tax act: yes 4376 no 5619.

Soldiers', sailors' and marines' educational aid revenue bill: yes 4215, no 4882.
State elementary school fund tax: yes 5576, no 3832.
Blind school tax measure: yes 5100, no 3944.

Democratic Returns.
For delegates to the democratic national convention for the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president of the United States—state at large: Geo. T. Baldwin 544, T. M. Crawford 816, Otto D. Drain 430, Bert E. Haney 323, G. Y. Harry 242, Mrs. Maria L. T. Hadden 565, Frederick V. Holman 434, Richard W. Montague 199, Will E. Purdy 893, J. F. Reddy 223, John L. Schuylerman 527, C. J. Smith 331.

For delegates to the democratic national convention for the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president of the United States—first congressional district: W. H. Downing 923, P. L. Frazier 547, Lee M. Travis 532, Al Waugh 171, Thos. Whitehorn 223, Frank Wortman 286.

For United States senator in congress: Geo. E. Chamberlain 991, Harvey D. Starkweather 584.

Polk Farmers To Learn To Grade Wheat At School
Dallas, June 1.—The Polk county farm bureau has arranged for a two day grain grading school to be held in Dallas June 11th and 12th. This is being done with the hope that a better understanding of the grades of wheat go the producer will make a better profit. Professor G. E. Snyder of O. A. C. and a number of assistants including a representative of the state grain inspection department will instruct in, dogage, determination and limits permissible under the grades.

What constitutes damaged grain and how it is determined. The identification and grade importance of mixed grain. The production of wheat in order to meet the grades as they are at present.

The need for changes in the grades and their administration. The use of the state grain inspection department in the market of grain.

Full testing of equipment as used by the mills is to be used in the testing of samples submitted. C. I. Ballard of Rickwood is responsible for the school and feels it will be well attended by the Polk farmers.

Pioneers Of Waldo Hills To Picnic
The Waldo Hills Pioneer association, composed of old time residents and families residing in that vicinity, will hold its 14th annual picnic and reunion in Mrs. John A. Hunts' grove 12 miles east of Salem on June 19, according to an announcement made Thursday by W. H. Downing, president, and J. T. Hunt, secretary of the association.

The picnic is for any one wishing to attend, according to the announcement. Musical program and speakers have been arranged for the occasion. Persons attending are asked to bring their lunches.

Woman Popular In Stayton Passes Away Suddenly
Stayton, June 3.—This community was shocked Monday by the announcement of the sudden passing of Mrs. Jacob Stegmund, at her home on Fern Ridge Sunday night. Though about 84 years of age, she was in fairly good health, and Sunday attended the memorial exercises in Stayton. The funeral will be held today at the home, and interment will be in Lone Oak cemetery, Stayton.

Several Stayton young men left this morning for Alaska, to try their fortunes in the salmon canneries. They were Leo Willing, Ralph Tate, Geo. Mielke, and Albert Aogarter. They will be accompanied by a former Stayton boy who now lives at Milwaukee, Henry Geymer.

Prof. Burgess Ford and family have moved to Lebanon, where he will be principal of the schools next year.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Korinek and Miss Maryan Alexander came up from Portland Saturday and spent Sunday and Monday at the Alexander home.

Frank Lesley made a trip by auto to Lebanon Monday.

Mrs. Halley Bradshaw, who has been visiting her father, A. V. Shelley, has returned to her home in Portland.

Tuesday morning, in the Catholic church in this place, Rev. Father Leneck united in marriage Miss Stella Wagner of Stayton and Frank Rooser, of Gervais. The bride was attended by Miss Tecla Rooser, sister of the groom, and the best man was George Franke, of Portland. After the ceremony an excellent wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner, with whom she has made her home since early childhood. The groom is an enterprising young farmer and the happy couple will at once take up their residence on a farm near Gervais. Their many friends wish them all kinds of good luck.

Miss Ann Nebert, daughter of the late George Nebert, died at a Salem hospital Monday aged about 50 years. She was a sister of J. J. and C. P. Nebert and Mrs. E. T. Mathieu, of this place. The funeral will be held today with burial in the Stayton cemetery.

M. A. Mack, of Amity, is visiting his father, A. L. Mack, in this place. Mr. Mack, son, recently came near having the sight of one of his eyes destroyed by a nail he was driving flying and striking him in the eye. He is improving somewhat, and it is hoped that the loss of the sight may not be complete.

The gasoline shortage has been affecting Stayton people quite severely the past few days. Several contemplated trips have been postponed. Peter Deidrich, who intended to leave this week for the middle west, has decided to wait until the prospects of securing plenty of gas en route are more favorable.

The annual banquet of the Stayton High school alumni was held Saturday evening and it was a very enjoyable affair. Old students from different parts of the state were present, and an excellent program was given.

Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood were Albany visitors Saturday.

Clarence Dibby made a trip to Stayton last Friday.

E. E. Aupperle came over from Newport last week for a short visit with his father, J. A. Aupperle.

Mrs. Roy Knighton and small daughter visited relatives in Salem the latter part of last week.

Miss Martha Tandy, who has a position with the Standard Oil Co. at Albany, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Tandy.

Salem high defeated Jefferson high in the ball game Friday. The score being 5 to 6.

Mrs. Flora George and her daughter, Miss Grace from Salem, spent Sunday with Mrs. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cornelius.

Miss Eva Pease came down from Eugene and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pease.

A. F. Shultz from Portland came Saturday for a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Curl.

Milton Mason came over from Curvills and spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mason.

Mrs. Frank Looney and daughter, Miss Lyle, from Salem were visiting relatives in town Saturday.

J. T. Cooper, Geo. Van Koten, Cecil and Melvin Doty left Sunday evening for Alsea where they intend to spend a few days fishing.

Miss Ruth Reed from Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Reed, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Jones from Salem spent Sunday and Monday visiting with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherman.

Mrs. L. A. Case returned to her home at Wells Wednesday morning after a visit of several days with relatives in Jefferson.

Polk County Court Probate Court.
In re estate of William Hartless, deceased. Inventory and appraisal filed. Oscar Hayter of Dallas attorney for petitioner.

In re estate of Francis E. Key, deceased. Final account filed; order setting time for hearing of final account for July 2 at 10 a. m. Oscar Hayter, Dallas, attorney.

In re estate of Barney Phillips, deceased. Order authorizing administrator to pay widow $50 per month during administration.

In re estate of Amanda Isabel Boydson, deceased. Petition for order to set apart property exempt from execution and closing estate; order setting apart property exempt from execution and closing estate. Fletcher and Barwick, Independence, attorneys.

County Court.
Petition and application of W. M. Elliott et al to lay pipe line on side of highway from Dallas to Cooper Hollow; order granting permission to lay pipe line.

Petition signed by 58 residents of road district No. 19 to change county road.

Remonstrance signed by 37 free holders of road district No. 19 opposed to change of road.

Order terminating proceedings and denying petition.

Circuit Court.
L. H. Labitt vs. L. A. Tripp. Answer filed; $221.44 tendered as security until decision on case given.

Fairfield
Fairfield, Or., June 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and family made a pleasant trip to Mill City Sunday for the day.

The pupils who took examinations in physiology and geography passed successfully.

Miss Agnes DuRette, of O. A. C., spent memorial vacation with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Parker visited at George Parrel's at Brooks Sunday.

Those who spent memorial vacation at John Imlah's were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wrightman and son, Herman Wrightman, Miss Fay Barna, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. James Huggill of Woodburn.

Antone Bean left Saturday to spend the summer with Mr. Uphoff of Mt. Angel.

Fairfield Sunday school will have children's day exercises Sunday, June 8, at 11:30. A basket dinner, service church in this place, Rev. Father Leneck united in marriage Miss Stella Wagner of Stayton and Frank Rooser, of Gervais. The bride was attended by Miss Tecla Rooser, sister of the groom, and the best man was George Franke, of Portland. After the ceremony an excellent wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner, with whom she has made her home since early childhood. The groom is an enterprising young farmer and the happy couple will at once take up their residence on a farm near Gervais. Their many friends wish them all kinds of good luck.

Miss Ann Nebert, daughter of the late George Nebert, died at a Salem hospital Monday aged about 50 years. She was a sister of J. J. and C. P. Nebert and Mrs. E. T. Mathieu, of this place. The funeral will be held today with burial in the Stayton cemetery.

M. A. Mack, of Amity, is visiting his father, A. L. Mack, in this place. Mr. Mack, son, recently came near having the sight of one of his eyes destroyed by a nail he was driving flying and striking him in the eye. He is improving somewhat, and it is hoped that the loss of the sight may not be complete.

The gasoline shortage has been affecting Stayton people quite severely the past few days. Several contemplated trips have been postponed. Peter Deidrich, who intended to leave this week for the middle west, has decided to wait until the prospects of securing plenty of gas en route are more favorable.

The annual banquet of the Stayton High school alumni was held Saturday evening and it was a very enjoyable affair. Old students from different parts of the state were present, and an excellent program was given.

Normal School Honors Nation's Heroes Monday
Monmouth, June 3.—The program given in the chapel on Memorial day in honor of the G. A. R. was an enjoyable one. Judge L. T. Harris gave the address, the chief feature of the program. He thoughtfully summarized the meaning and history of Memorial day. Musical selections by the normal school glee club and by a mixed quartet were given.

Superintendent-elect Howard of Marshfield visited at the normal Monday looking for teachers for his school next year.

Mrs. Collins, critic at the Oak Point

rural center, gave an instructive talk on rural education at the chapel hour on last Friday morning.

President Ackerman has authorized the fitting up of a tennis court on the play ground of the training school.

Miss Schuette announces that the combined children's orchestra of Independence and Monmouth will play in the chapel Friday morning on the occasion of the eighth-grade commencement.

Commencement preparations are absorbing the attention of most of the seniors and of some juniors nowadays. Announcement of the interclass tennis tournament to be held on the afternoon of alumni day, June 15, has greatly stimulated the interest in tennis. The lower courts have been put into shape and all are almost continually occupied.

An extension of the summer school to be held at Pendleton this fall will begin at the regular time and will continue for six weeks. The month summer school has been extended from a six weeks to a seven weeks term. The last half of this year will be held particularly for those who are required to take regular vacations in order to receive a certificate by examination.

Narcotic clinics, operated in some cities under police supervision are to be discontinued under orders of the federal government, it became known yesterday, with the promise of an order closing the municipal clinic at Memphis, Tenn.

Car Crashes Into Telephone Pole At Silverton
Silverton, June 3.—McClaime street is not wide enough for a speed track and as a big car driven by a young man from the country went around the corner, it struck a telephone pole last night and caused considerable damage. A front wheel was broken and the car was abused in various other ways. When the car hit the pole it is said, the crash was heard two blocks away.

Miss Speer, a teacher in the second grade room of the Silverton public school, has been obliged to give up her work on account of her physical condition and Mrs. Ge. Davis, who was here on a visit to her parents, has kindly consented to fill out the remainder of the term. Miss Speer leaves today for Portland where she will undergo an operation.

The local camp of Oregon national guards will go to Camp Lewis July 5th to remain for fifteen days.

J. L. Robinson, manager of the H. L. Stiff Furniture Co., was taken to the Silverton hospital this morning and will undergo an operation.

Jefferson Meat Market Robbed Saturday Night
Jefferson, June 2.—The Jefferson meat market was entered by burglars Saturday night. They made their entrance by prying open a back window and a thorough search for money was made. Nothing was found excepting a lot of pennies which they took. It is thought possibly to be the work of boys.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Van Buren moved to Albany last Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Shumaker was a Salem visitor last Thursday.

G. W. Humphrey returned Saturday from Baker where he has been attending the L. O. O. F. grand lodge.

The Odd Fellows memorial service held at the Methodist church Sunday morning were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood were Albany visitors Saturday.

Clarence Dibby made a trip to Stayton last Friday.

E. E. Aupperle came over from Newport last week for a short visit with his father, J. A. Aupperle.

Mrs. Roy Knighton and small daughter visited relatives in Salem the latter part of last week.

Miss Martha Tandy, who has a position with the Standard Oil Co. at Albany, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Tandy.

Salem high defeated Jefferson high in the ball game Friday. The score being 5 to 6.

Mrs. Flora George and her daughter, Miss Grace from Salem, spent Sunday with Mrs. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cornelius.

Miss Eva Pease came down from Eugene and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pease.

A. F. Shultz from Portland came Saturday for a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Curl.

Milton Mason came over from Curvills and spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mason.

Mrs. Frank Looney and daughter, Miss Lyle, from Salem were visiting relatives in town Saturday.

J. T. Cooper, Geo. Van Koten, Cecil and Melvin Doty left Sunday evening for Alsea where they intend to spend a few days fishing.

Miss Ruth Reed from Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Reed, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Jones from Salem spent Sunday and Monday visiting with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherman.

Mrs. L. A. Case returned to her home at Wells Wednesday morning after a visit of several days with relatives in Jefferson.

Polk County Court Probate Court.
In re estate of William Hartless, deceased. Inventory and appraisal filed. Oscar Hayter of Dallas attorney for petitioner.

In re estate of Francis E. Key, deceased. Final account filed; order setting time for hearing of final account for July 2 at 10 a. m. Oscar Hayter, Dallas, attorney.

In re estate of Barney Phillips, deceased. Order authorizing administrator to pay widow $50 per month during administration.

In re estate of Amanda Isabel Boydson, deceased. Petition for order to set apart property exempt from execution and closing estate; order setting apart property exempt from execution and closing estate. Fletcher and Barwick, Independence, attorneys.

County Court.
Petition and application of W. M. Elliott et al to lay pipe line on side of highway from Dallas to Cooper Hollow; order granting permission to lay pipe line.

Petition signed by 58 residents of road district No. 19 to change county road.

Remonstrance signed by 37 free holders of road district No. 19 opposed to change of road.

Order terminating proceedings and denying petition.

Circuit Court.
L. H. Labitt vs. L. A. Tripp. Answer filed; $221.44 tendered as security until decision on case given.

Fairfield
Fairfield, Or., June 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and family made a pleasant trip to Mill City Sunday for the day.

The pupils who took examinations in physiology and geography passed successfully.

Miss Agnes DuRette, of O. A. C., spent memorial vacation with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Parker visited at George Parrel's at Brooks Sunday.

Those who spent memorial vacation at John Imlah's were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wrightman and son, Herman Wrightman, Miss Fay Barna, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. James Huggill of Woodburn.

Antone Bean left Saturday to spend the summer with Mr. Uphoff of Mt. Angel.

Fairfield Sunday school will have children's day exercises Sunday, June 8, at 11:30. A basket dinner, service church in this place, Rev. Father Leneck united in marriage Miss Stella Wagner of Stayton and Frank Rooser, of Gervais. The bride was attended by Miss Tecla Rooser, sister of the groom, and the best man was George Franke, of Portland. After the ceremony an excellent wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner, with whom she has made her home since early childhood. The groom is an enterprising young farmer and the happy couple will at once take up their residence on a farm near Gervais. Their many friends wish them all kinds of good luck.

Miss Ann Nebert, daughter of the late George Nebert, died at a Salem hospital Monday aged about 50 years. She was a sister of J. J. and C. P. Nebert and Mrs. E. T. Mathieu, of this place. The funeral will be held today with burial in the Stayton cemetery.

M. A. Mack, of Amity, is visiting his father, A. L. Mack, in this place. Mr. Mack, son, recently came near having the sight of one of his eyes destroyed by a nail he was driving flying and striking him in the eye. He is improving somewhat, and it is hoped that the loss of the sight may not be complete.

The gasoline shortage has been affecting Stayton people quite severely the past few days. Several contemplated trips have been postponed. Peter Deidrich, who intended to leave this week for the middle west, has decided to wait until the prospects of securing plenty of gas en route are more favorable.

The annual banquet of the Stayton High school alumni was held Saturday evening and it was a very enjoyable affair. Old students from different parts of the state were present, and an excellent program was given.

Normal School Honors Nation's Heroes Monday
Monmouth, June 3.—The program given in the chapel on Memorial day in honor of the G. A. R. was an enjoyable one. Judge L. T. Harris gave the address, the chief feature of the program. He thoughtfully summarized the meaning and history of Memorial day. Musical selections by the normal school glee club and by a mixed quartet were given.

Superintendent-elect Howard of Marshfield visited at the normal Monday looking for teachers for his school next year.

Mrs. Collins, critic at the Oak Point

rural center, gave an instructive talk on rural education at the chapel hour on last Friday morning.

President Ackerman has authorized the fitting up of a tennis court on the play ground of the training school.

Miss Schuette announces that the combined children's orchestra of Independence and Monmouth will play in the chapel Friday morning on the occasion of the eighth-grade commencement.

Commencement preparations are absorbing the attention of most of the seniors and of some juniors nowadays. Announcement of the interclass tennis tournament to be held on the afternoon of alumni day, June 15, has greatly stimulated the interest in tennis. The lower courts have been put into shape and all are almost continually occupied.

An extension of the summer school to be held at Pendleton this fall will begin at the regular time and will continue for six weeks. The month summer school has been extended from a six weeks to a seven weeks term. The last half of this year will be held particularly for those who are required to take regular vacations in order to receive a certificate by examination.

Narcotic clinics, operated in some cities under police supervision are to be discontinued under orders of the federal government, it became known yesterday, with the promise of an order closing the municipal clinic at Memphis, Tenn.

Car Crashes Into Telephone Pole At Silverton
Silverton, June 3.—McClaime street is not wide enough for a speed track and as a big car driven by a young man from the country went around the corner, it struck a telephone pole last night and caused considerable damage. A front wheel was broken and the car was abused in various other ways. When the car hit the pole it is said, the crash was heard two blocks away.

Miss Speer, a teacher in the second grade room of the Silverton public school, has been obliged to give up her work on account of her physical condition and Mrs. Ge. Davis, who was here on a visit to her parents, has kindly consented to fill out the remainder of the term. Miss Speer leaves today for Portland where she will undergo an operation.

The local camp of Oregon national guards will go to Camp Lewis July 5th to remain for fifteen days.

J. L. Robinson, manager of the H. L. Stiff Furniture Co., was taken to the Silverton hospital this morning and will undergo an operation.

Jefferson Meat Market Robbed Saturday Night
Jefferson, June 2.—The Jefferson meat market was entered by burglars Saturday night. They made their entrance by prying open a back window and a thorough search for money was made. Nothing was found excepting a lot of pennies which they took. It is thought possibly to be the work of boys.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Van Buren moved to Albany last Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Shumaker was a Salem visitor last Thursday.

G. W. Humphrey returned Saturday from Baker where he has been attending the L. O. O. F. grand lodge.

The Odd Fellows memorial service held at the Methodist church Sunday morning were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood were Albany visitors Saturday.

Clarence Dibby made a trip to Stayton last Friday.

E. E. Aupperle came over from Newport last week for a short visit with his father, J. A. Aupperle.

Mrs. Roy Knighton and small daughter visited relatives in Salem the latter part of last week.

Miss Martha Tandy, who has a position with the Standard Oil Co. at Albany, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Tandy.

Salem high defeated Jefferson high in the ball game Friday. The score being 5 to 6.

Mrs. Flora George and her daughter, Miss Grace from Salem, spent Sunday with Mrs. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cornelius.

Miss Eva Pease came down from Eugene and spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pease.

A. F. Shultz from Portland came Saturday for a short visit with his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Curl.

Milton Mason came over from Curvills and spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mason.

Mrs. Frank Looney and daughter, Miss Lyle, from Salem were visiting relatives in town Saturday.

J. T. Cooper, Geo. Van Koten, Cecil and Melvin Doty left Sunday evening for Alsea where they intend to spend a few days fishing.

Miss Ruth Reed from Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Reed, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Jones from Salem spent Sunday and Monday visiting with Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherman.

Mrs. L. A. Case returned to her home at Wells Wednesday morning after a visit of several days with relatives in Jefferson.

Polk County Court Probate Court.
In re estate of William Hartless, deceased. Inventory and appraisal filed. Oscar Hayter of Dallas attorney for petitioner.

In re estate of Francis E. Key, deceased. Final account filed; order setting time for hearing of final account for July 2 at 10 a. m. Oscar Hayter, Dallas, attorney.

In re estate of Barney Phillips, deceased. Order authorizing administrator to pay widow $50 per month during administration.

In re estate of Amanda Isabel Boydson, deceased. Petition for order to set apart property exempt from execution and closing estate; order setting apart property exempt from execution and closing estate. Fletcher and Barwick, Independence, attorneys.

County Court.
Petition and application of W. M. Elliott et al to lay pipe line on side of highway from Dallas to Cooper Hollow; order granting permission to lay pipe line.

Petition signed by 58 residents of road district No. 19 to change county road.

Remonstrance signed by 37 free holders of road district No. 19 opposed to change of road.

Order terminating proceedings and denying petition.

Circuit Court.
L. H. Labitt vs. L. A. Tripp. Answer filed; $221.44 tendered as security until decision on case given.

Fairfield
Fairfield, Or., June 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and family made a pleasant trip to Mill City Sunday for the day.

The pupils who took examinations in physiology and geography passed successfully.

Miss Agnes DuRette, of O. A. C., spent memorial vacation with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Parker visited at George Parrel's at Brooks Sunday.

Those who spent memorial vacation at John Imlah's were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wrightman and son, Herman Wrightman, Miss Fay Barna, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. James Huggill of Woodburn.

Antone Bean left Saturday to spend the summer with Mr. Uphoff of Mt. Angel.

Fairfield Sunday school will have children's day exercises Sunday, June 8, at 11:30. A basket dinner, service church in this place, Rev. Father Leneck united in marriage Miss Stella Wagner of Stayton and Frank Rooser, of Gervais. The bride was attended by Miss Tecla Rooser, sister of the groom, and the best man was George Franke, of Portland. After the ceremony an excellent wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, only a few intimate friends and relatives being present. The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagner, with whom she has made her home since early childhood. The groom is an enterprising young farmer and the happy couple will at once take up their residence on a farm near Gervais. Their many friends wish them all kinds of good luck.

Miss Ann Nebert, daughter of the late George Nebert, died at a Salem hospital Monday aged about 50 years. She was a sister of J. J. and C. P. Nebert and Mrs. E. T. Mathieu, of this place. The funeral will be held today with burial in the Stayton cemetery.

M. A. Mack, of Amity, is visiting his father, A. L. Mack, in this place. Mr. Mack, son, recently came near having the sight of one of his eyes destroyed by a nail he was driving flying and striking him in the eye. He is improving somewhat, and it is hoped that the loss of the sight may not be complete.

The gasoline shortage has been affecting Stayton people quite severely the past few days. Several contemplated trips have been postponed. Peter Deidrich, who intended to leave this week for the middle west, has decided to wait until the prospects of securing plenty of gas en route are more favorable.

The annual banquet of the Stayton High school alumni was held Saturday evening and it was a very enjoyable affair. Old students from different parts of the state were present, and an excellent program was given.

Normal School Honors Nation's Heroes Monday
Monmouth, June 3.—The program given in the chapel on Memorial day in honor of the G. A. R. was an enjoyable one. Judge L. T. Harris gave the address, the chief feature of the program. He thoughtfully summarized the meaning and history of Memorial day. Musical selections by the normal school glee club and by a mixed quartet were given.

Superintendent-elect Howard of Marshfield visited at the normal Monday looking for teachers for his school next year.

Mrs. Collins, critic at the Oak Point

rural center, gave an instructive talk on rural education at the chapel hour on last Friday morning.

President Ackerman has authorized the fitting up of a tennis court on the play ground of the training school.

Miss Schuette announces that the combined children's orchestra of Independence and Monmouth will play in the chapel Friday morning on the occasion of the eighth-grade commencement.

Commencement preparations are absorbing the attention of most of the seniors and of some juniors nowadays. Announcement of the interclass tennis tournament to be held on the afternoon of alumni day, June 15, has greatly stimulated the interest in tennis. The lower courts have been put into shape and all are almost continually occupied.

An extension of the summer school to be held at Pendleton this fall will begin at the regular time and will continue for six weeks. The month summer school has been extended from a six weeks to a seven weeks term. The last half of this year will be held particularly for those who are required to take regular vacations in order to receive a certificate by examination.

Narcotic clinics, operated in some cities under police supervision are to be discontinued under orders of the federal government, it became known yesterday, with the promise of an order closing the municipal clinic at Memphis, Tenn.

Car Crashes Into Telephone Pole At Silverton
Silverton, June 3.—McClaime street is not wide enough for a speed track and as a big car driven by a young man from the country went around the corner, it struck a telephone pole last night and caused considerable damage. A front wheel was broken and the car was abused in various other ways. When the car hit the pole it is said, the crash was heard two blocks away.

Miss Speer, a teacher in the second grade room of the Silverton public school, has been obliged to give up her work on account of her physical condition and Mrs. Ge. Davis, who was here on a visit to her parents, has kindly consented to fill out the remainder of the term. Miss Speer leaves today for Portland where she will undergo an operation.

The local camp of Oregon national guards will go to Camp Lewis July 5th to remain for fifteen days.

J. L. Robinson, manager of the H. L. Stiff Furniture Co., was taken to the Silverton hospital this morning and will undergo an operation.

Jefferson Meat Market Robbed Saturday Night
Jefferson, June 2.—The Jefferson meat market was entered by burglars Saturday night. They made their entrance by prying open a back window and a thorough search for money was made. Nothing was found excepting a lot of pennies which they took. It is thought possibly to be the work of boys.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Van Buren moved to Albany last Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Shumaker was a Salem visitor last Thursday.

G. W. Humphrey returned Saturday from Baker where he has been attending the L. O. O. F. grand lodge.

The Odd Fellows memorial service held at the Methodist church Sunday morning were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood were Albany visitors Saturday.

Clarence Dibby made a trip to Stayton last Friday.

E. E. Aupperle came over from Newport last week for a short visit with his father, J. A. Aupperle.

Mrs. Roy Knighton and small daughter visited relatives in Salem the latter part of last week.

Miss Martha Tandy, who has a position with the Standard Oil Co. at Albany, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Tandy.

Salem high defeated Jefferson high in the ball game Friday. The score being 5 to 6.

Mrs. Flora George and her daughter, Miss Grace from Salem, spent Sunday with Mrs. George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cornelius.