 A sawdust pile fire at the foot of Bellevue street, Thursday evening, necessitated the assistance of city firemen in subduing the flames and preventing spread to nearby residences. The fire is thought to have been started by some one throwing a lighted cigarette stub from the window of a passing Oregon Electric train, the fire being near the railroad track.

The ladies of the Illihee country club entertained with a bridge party at the Commercial club rooms Fri- day afternoon. The affair had been previously announced to take place at the Country club, but owing to the gasoline shortage, and the realization by the women that the present local supply was needed for commercial cars, the meeting was held in the Commercial club instead. The pur- pose of the party was to assist in furnishing one of the rooms at the Illihee club.
