Boys In Auto Here Tuesday Arouse Police Suspicion

Police here Tuesday were making an effort to learn whether a large automobile bearing Washington license No. 81828, that passed through Salem early Tuesday morning under odd circumstances had been stolen. The machine was driven by two small boys, who claimed that they were from Spokane, Wash., and were bound for California.

First report of the machine being near Salem came from Carl Patton, 1845 State street, to police. He said that while driving north on Walla Walla road he saw the machine, with a man leaning over it in attitude of repairing the engine. Returning at 11:45 p. m. he saw the machine still there, the form of the man also still leaning over the side of the car.

Thinking that the man was dead or in distress, he called police. Deputy Sheriff James Inmah of West Salem, investigated and found that two boys occupied the machine and had been asleep.

At 1:45 a. m. the boys drove the car to the Marion Garage on South Commercial street, bought three gallons of gasoline, enquired where they might find the sheriff, and how far the next town south of Salem was, and quietly drove away, going south on Commercial street.

Liberty Bonds Are Stolen From Liberty Farmer

Report was made to Sheriff Nehemiah Tuesday, by Mrs. F. D. Robbins, that while the family was absent from their home, a farm near Liberty the house was entered and a number of valuable articles taken. A trunk was opened and two Liberty bonds, of the first and second loan were stolen, together with a locked deed box containing deeds, personal notes totaling several hundreds of dollars in value, insurance papers and $35.00 in cash silverware that was in the trunk was untouched.

Diligent search is being instituted by county officers in an effort to apprehend the thieves. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins are especially eager to recover the personal notes and papers.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Is Reunion Cause

Silverton, Or., June 10.—A family reunion, with nearly all of the large family of children present, was the outstanding feature of a golden wedding anniversary held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moser on Third street. They were married fifty years ago in Silverton, not far from where the anniversary was celebrated. With the exception of a few years when they lived on a farm near Dallas they have resided in this vicinity and both of the subjects of this anniversary occasion have spent most of their lives in this part of Marion county. Mr. Moser is a son of the late John Moser, one of the very first settlers of Silverton. He had hoped to live to help celebrate the fiftieth wedding anniversary of his son, and lacked only a little more than a year of meeting his expectation. Four sons, two daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren were present at the function and it was greatly enjoyed.

Scouts To Hear Final Camp Plans

Final instructions regarding their proposed camp in the Cascade mountains will be given to all Boy Scouts of the city Thursday evening, at a meeting to be held in the library, by Scout Executive Harold Cook. Details of arrangements for shipping the immense amount of baggage to be taken and all plans for the summer encampment will be discussed.

The Scouts leave Salem for their camp aboard a special train that had been provided by the Southern Pacific company Monday morning, June 14, at 8 o'clock. That there may be no tie-up in plans or confusion of the boys when the time comes to depart, the scout executive in an announcement made Thursday, asked that every Scout in the city be present at the meeting in the evening.

An appeal was made in behalf of the Scouts Thursday for tents to take with them on their trip. Some of the Scouts have been able to produce tents of their own, but the majority of them are without shelter. Tents owned by the Scout council are inadequate now, due to the growth of the troops in the city. And person willing to loan their tents are asked to telephone 772.
