National Frat To Be Installed At Willamette Soon

First national fraternity at Willamette university will be the Theta Phi, the honorary dramatic fraternity formed last fall. The society received its charter from the national headquarters of the society, and permission to accept has been granted by the university authorities. Theta Phi is not a house fraternity, but an honorary and dramatic organization, and this is the reason for making the exception to the only ruling in permitting the ...

Now having chapters are the universities of Kentucky, Michigan, Arizona, Iowa, Montana and John B. Stetson university.

Alcohol Fiend Is Sought Here

This is quite a close, but when it is taken into consideration that dozens of bottles of bitters, etc., are sold here each week for purposes other than medicinal, it presents a rather difficult aspect. Thursday police received word from Sheriff H. Lee Nove of Vale, Or., asking them to watch for one C. H. Hodges, wanted for obtaining money under false pretenses. The card of description said that Hodges is "a very fluent talker and will drink anything with alcohol in it—patent medicines, etc." and it added: "Notify your drug stores for he is sure to try for alcoholic drugs."
