

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

June 16.—Willamette University alumni banquet, Hotel Marion.

June 16-17.—Two piano recitals by Miss Waller's pupils in the evenings.

June 17.—Lodge picnic at Fairgrounds.

June 19.—Pioneer picnic, Mrs. John A. Hunt's grove.

June 19.—Waldo Hills Pioneer association picnic, Mrs. J. T. Hunt's grove 12 miles east of Salem, all day; open to public.

June 19-21.—North Pacific district assembly of the Church of the Nazarene.

June 21.—Shrine day in Salem and Willamette valley.

June 24.—Monthly baby clinic, Commercial club, 2 p.

Court House News

Circuit Court

Salem Water Light and Power company vs. D. Minto, Jeannette Minto and Jessie G. Minto, Complaint.

Probate Court

A. Jessup Strang, estate, Report.

Marriage Licenses

Ernest William Simmons, 27, of Gervais, a farmer to Gladys Tate, 17, of Gervais. Carl F. Schulerberg, 32, of Lebanon, a pastor, to Augusta W. Goss, 24, of Salem. Ernest S. Barker, 35, of Salem, a builder, to Esther S. Anderson, 21, of Salem. Elmer Burt, 35, of Salem, a guard, to Lillian Hougset, 26, of Salem.

Daily Statistics

Died

At a local hospital Tuesday, June 15, Alexander C. Kidd, 73, a resident of Roseburg.

The remains, which were in charge of Webb and Clough, were sent Tuesday night to Roseburg where interment will be made.

Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

The home of better service, moderate prices and largest stock. Webb & Clough, funeral directors.

Girl wanted at the Spa.

Miss Florence Blake, for four years a student at Sacred Heart academy, Tuesday was awarded the gold medal given yearly by George E. Terwilliger for excellent work in the English department of the school. Miss Blake, who will receive her diploma Wednesday evening, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Blake of Willow Lake, and a student of exceptional ability.

For Sale, 100 leghorns 2-weeks old, 100 day old Rocks; last chicks of the season. Reduced prices. C. N. Needham, 538 State street. 144

Tonight, Moose hall, dancing, "Revelation" harmony six 144

"Why Change Your Wife," now showing at the Oregon theater. 144

For Sale, 100 leghorns 2-weeks old, 100 day old Rocks; last chicks of the season. Reduced prices. C. N. Needham, 538 State street. 144

Dancing tonight, Moose hall, that lovely sextet, the Revelation Harmony Six. 144

An entire new five piece orchestra at Auburn hall Saturday night for the national convention for motorcycle riders consisting of five hundred motorcycle riders from all parts of the state. Remember an entire new orchestra of five pieces. 147

Officer Harry Rowe with his wife and their daughter Katherine, returned Monday from a vacation trip to the Suslaw river. They were visitors at the F. M. Neff home at Florston, Mrs. Neff being a sister of the officer. Officer Rowe reports that fishing was very good in the Suslaw, stating that he "went trolling and returned to Salem with an 18 pound Chinook salmon." Just where the Chinook salmon entered the deal, Harry failed to indicate. On the return journey to Salem, the Rowes stopped over night at the home of Gay Fitch Phelps, who is well known here. The Salem patrolman's vacation does not expire until Thursday.

All Shriners attention. Special meeting at Commercial club Thursday, June 17th 8 p. m. Your presence is requested. 144

"Why Change Your Wife," Oregon theater today and Thursday. 144

The "Revelation" tonight, Moose hall. 144

Called to the bedside of her grand-son who is ill, Mrs. William Spencer, 277 Front street, left Salem Tuesday afternoon for Minot, N. D.

The public is invited to Miss Shelton's recital in the First Congregational church, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. 145

See "Why Change Your Wife," Cecil B. DeMille's big special production now showing at the Oregon theater. 144

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy at the death of our wife and mother, also for the beautiful floral offerings.—James Mitchell and family. 144 brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schultz, on the River road. The visitors are new arrivals in Oregon and are erecting homes in St. Helena, with the intention of making that their permanent place of residence. They are former residents of Michigan.

5 acres for sale, 1 mile from fair grounds on Silverton road. G. E. Unruh, phone 315. 145

The armory floor has been repaired and is in excellent condition for dancing Friday night. 144

Five numbers, comprising the art-ists course of the Ellison-White Lyceum circuit, have been signed up for appearance in Salem next winter, it became known Wednesday. The course consists of presentations by Lleurances Symph, Albert Lindquist, Frederick Ward, The DeMille Quartet and Herbert Leon Cope.

The home of better service, moderate prices and largest stock. Webb & Clough, funeral directors. 144

Mary Talmadge, violin, and Professor T. S. Roberts will assist at Miss Shelton's recital in the First Congregational church Thursday evening. 145

Attorney D. J. Adams and his son, Alfred Adams, both of Silverton, motored to Salem Wednesday on business. L. J. Adams is well known in this city and his son was formerly a student at the University of Oregon.

$1500 to loan on good security. See G. E. Unruh, or phone 315. 146

Miss Ada Miller and Mrs. W. C. Smith will sing at the Miss Shelton recital in the First Congregational church Thursday evening. 145

Miss Beatrice Shelton will present her pupils in recital in the First Congregational church Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. Miss Ada Miller and Mrs. W. C. Smith will be soloists at the recital and Miss Mary Talmadge, violinist, and Professor T. S. Roberts, organist, will assist during the evening. The public is invited to attend.

The United Artisans regular business meeting, initiation of a class of 25, nomination and election of officers will be held Thursday evening June 17. Refreshments served. 144

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wicket of St. Helens have returned home after a

Permits to do $2000 worth of repair-work on two houses, one at 700 North High and the other at 734 North High, were taken out yesterday by Mrs. B. M. Woods, of this city.

Eight o'clock has been set as the time for the meeting of the alumni association of the Salem high school Wednesday evening. The meeting will be held in the Commercial club auditorium.

C. Belt, an employe of Showalter, and X. Davis, wholesale grocers, left Salem yesterday for Woodburn where he will spend a few days on business.

A grand jury in department No. 2, returned a verdict Tuesday afternoon in favor of Mark Aspinwall, in his suit against Mangis Brothers. The preceding concerned the delivery of a quantity of the Bermuda potatoes and the verdict of the jury gives $500 to Mr. Aspinwall as remuneration for loss alleged due to the Salem firm's failure to receive the onions before they were ruined by the December frosts. The firm introduced witnesses to testify that the onions were in poor condition prior to the frost.

The funeral of August Saucier, 27, of Salem, who was killed under the wheels of a passing automobile when his motorcycle skidded and threw him to the pavement Sunday evening, was held Tuesday morning from the Rigdon chapel at 11 o'clock. Interment was made at the City View cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Powell Brown will be held Wednesday at 3 p. m. from the Bungalow Christian church. Interment will be made in the City View cemetery.

The remains of Lee Fong, Chinese laborer, were laid to rest in the Odd Fellows' cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The funeral was held from the Rigdon chapel.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Probe was held from the Catholic church, Rigdon & Soa had charge of arrangements.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McLean was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel of Rigdon & Soa. Rev. W. C. Kanister of the Congregational church officiated. Interment was made in the City View cemetery.

An order was signed Wednesday by Judge W. M. Bushby, wherein the adoption of Golda Bethel Henderson is approved. The baby girl, who is 20 months of age is taken under the care of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry T. Monroe. Golda Bethel's mother died in this city June 11, 1920. Her father has approved the adoption.

Wednesday evening marks an enjoyable occasion at the Highland school when patrons of the school and residents of North Salem will celebrate the opening of the North Salem branch library. Refreshments and a musical program are included in the schedule of the evening's entertainment.

John W. Brown, a Wisconsin delegate to the national convention at San Francisco, June 22-26, was a Salem visitor Wednesday, passing here for a few hours in order to visit his nephew, A. C. Brown, 1910 Fairmount avenue.

The Wisconsin delegate, who is grand commander of Wisconsin department, Knights of the Maccaless, is much interested in this section of the Willamette valley and may locate here. He plans to return to this city later, for the purpose of inquiring into suitable farming and orchard property.

John W. Brown, a Wisconsin delegate to the national convention at San Francisco, June 22-26, was a Salem visitor Wednesday, passing here for a few hours in order to visit his nephew, A. C. Brown, 1910 Fairmount avenue. The Wisconsin delegate, who is grand commander of Wisconsin department, Knights of the Maccaless, is much interested in this section of the Willamette valley and may locate here. He plans to return to this city later, for the purpose of inquiring into suitable farming and orchard property.

SMART SUITS FOR SUMMER WEAR

Ladies' Suits in many new styles for summer wear, plaited suits, box styles, semi-tailored and tailored effects in a number of smart models each one strictly authentic in style and remarkably well tailored of the finest tricotone, poret twill, serge and fancy checks. You will find them a remarkable value at

$25.00 $39.50 TO $49.50

Extraordinary Offerings in

New Silk Dresses

Beautiful new models in Taffeta, Georgette Crepe, Tricotette, Satin and Combinations of Taffeta and Georgette, with Embroidered, Beaded, Plaited and Tucked effects. Every Dress is new in style with the woman who would be well dressed. Priced to sell at

$14.50, $19.50, $24.50 TO $39.50

Ladies' Store
466-474
State Street

Kasowry Bros.
THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

Men's Store
416
State Street

Wanted

Ten girls for tables at the Grand Opening of the New Canton Cafe at 162 1-2 North Commercial. See Dr. Li Yick, 153 South High street.

Buy Remnants AT THE Remnant Store

Special Sale

BABY CHIX

300 Leghorns—11 days old
Few Reds and Buttercups.
Season closes this week.

C. N. Needham
558 State Street

Hawkins & Roberts

Where Banks Invest

New England Savings Banks noted for their conservatism annually invest hundreds of thousands of dollars in our farm loans. Every year they visit the Northwest to inspect their loans and after every such trip they increase their investment.

As State Agents for the Vermont Loan & Trust Company, we have placed nearly one million dollars of Willamette Valley loans with Savings Banks of the new England States.

Hawkins & Roberts
205 Oregon Bldg. Salem, Ore.

SEE

Thursday JOURNAL

For Big Announcement and Prices to Prevail for the last two days of our

National Price Cutting Sale

Don't buy until you read this add, it Will mean money to you

THE PEOPLE'S CASH STORE

Meet Me at Miller's

MILLER'S

Good Goods.

The Event of the Season

Remnants ONE-HALF Price

Friday, Saturday and Monday will be 3 days that the Ladies of Salem and vicinity have looked forward to for weeks. These 3 days, we intend to make Banner Days since taking over the Meyers Store. Remnants and oddments of all kinds go on sale at ONE-HALF price—Wool, Silk, and Cotton.—Besides these, we have picked out at Random a lot of Extra Specials for these 3 Days.

Don't Forget the Days Commencing Friday Morning At 9 o'Clock

Watch for Add in Thursday's Paper

OREGON

CECIL B. DEMILLE'S
"WHY CHANGE YOUR WIFE"
7:15, 9:15 and 9:15 P.M.