Widely Scattered Family To Gather For Big Reunion

ML Angel, Or., June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. John G. Lais are looking forward to a family reunion which will be held the latter part of this month at their home in this city.

Antone Miller and Miss Magdalina Schmalz left town early Sunday morning and did not give notice to their friends of their intended departure.

J. J. Keber, of the Bank of Mt. Angel has been in Eugene for a few days attending the bankers' convention.

Joseph Wilke sold his beautiful residence in the city yesterday to John Mamer of Hampton, Minn.

Buzz Huddleston sold his ranch near here Tuesday to Antone Russer. It consists of ten acres of land close in and a fine home.

William Esch has purchased a beautiful farm in Washington and will move his family there this week.

Romeo Lais, Alfred Stupfel, Arden Webb and E. Englehart left yesterday for Hood River to pick strawberries.

Miss Fern Bienenius and Miss Dorothy Wagner of Iowa are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Smith.

Mt. Angel is making arrangements to furnish about a dozen cars for the Shriner's parade next Wednesday.

Fire In Discarded Stove Results In Injury To Boys

Silverton, Or., June 17.—The explosion of dynamite or some explosive substance in an old stove back of the Buffe property on South Water street, Tuesday evening, came near being the finish of three little boys.

pieces of the iron penetrating the boys' bodies and inflicting quite serious wounds. One of the Hartley boys is said to have been quite seriously injured, and a large gash was cut in the Lais boy's leg.

Just how the explosive substance came to be in the stove is purely a matter of speculation, but it is supposed to have been placed there years ago by James Buffe.

While the boys' injuries are painful, they are not serious.

Young Couple Of Needy Married

Hubbard, Or., June 17.—L. I. Simpkins, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Simpkins of Needy, and Miss Gladys Thompson of the same place, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, were married at Oregon City a few days ago.

Hubbard people, some of them at least, seem rather reluctant about furnishing cars of the Shriners to ride in, and at the present time not more than ten cars are available.

The hotel building which was moved to a new location recently has been devisedly improved and Mr. Thompson, the proprietor, expects to be in a position to give first class service when the building is completed.

Mt. Angel Buys Chemical Engine

Mt. Angel, Or., June 17.—The city council has just purchased a chemical engine which will arrive here in a few days. Before the deal was consummated, the fore part of the week, A. G. Long & Co. of Portland, brought a combined hose cart and engine here and gave a public demonstration which was witnessed by nearly everyone in the city.

Gervais

Gervais, Or., June 17.—Miss Fletcher, president of the Rebekah lodge, was here a few nights ago and delivered a very interesting address. The meeting was largely attended and is said to have been one of the great features of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Byrd visited friends in Woodburn the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Remo Dondeau, who have been visiting relatives in the city for several days, have returned to their home in eastern Oregon.

Word was received here this week of the death of Mrs. Frank McClard, which occurred at Portland, June 12. The funeral was held Monday.

Leutenant L. T. Balm of Portland, who was killed in an airplane wreck a few days ago at San Diego, Cal., was known here, having spent several weeks in Gervais last winter visiting his former partner, W. C. Crawford.

Mrs. Wilson and Miss Alice Beidre- linden of Springfield, Mo., are visiting friends in the city.

Popular Aurora Girl And Hubbard Man Married

Aurora, Or., June 17.—A pretty home wedding took place Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Stoner in this city, when their daughter, Miss Florence Stoner, was united in marriage with Walter Lettenmaier of Hubbard, Rev. O. C. Weller of Woodburn performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a dainty white silk voile and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

The groom was dressed in the usual conventional black. Miss Minnie Lettenmaier, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and Edward Stoner, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle.

BLIGN THEATRE. FRIDAY-SATURDAY—GLORIA SWANSON, star of "Male and Female" and "Why Change Your Wife" in "SHIFTING SANDS"—and HIPPODROME VAUDEVILLE. Last Day Today—Mitchell Lewis.

Those present to witness the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. John Lettenmaier, Clara, Minnie and Alvin Lettenmaier, William Lettenmaier of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Weller, E. W. Stoner, Ben Stoner, Orville Stoner, Ben Estey and Miss Echo Giesy.

Shortly after the ceremony was performed and the wedding breakfast served, the happy couple departed for the north on a short honeymoon trip.

After July 1, 1926, they will be at home to their friends on their farm near Hubbard, in the White district.
