

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS
 June 19-21—North Pacific district assembly of the Church of the Nazarene.
 June 21.—Cherrian drill night.
 June 21.—School elections.
 June 23.—Shrine day in Salem and Willamette valley.
 June 24.—Monthly baby clinic. Commercial club, 2 p. m.
 June 23.—William Wallace Graham recital, First Christian church, 8:30 p. m.
 June 28.—First band concert of summer, Willson Park, 8 p. m.
 June 28.—Business Men's luncheon at auto camp grounds.

Court House News

Circuit Court.
 Joseph Brown vs. J. H. Johnson et al. Affidavit of defendant Johnson in opposition to plaintiff's motion for restraining order.
 Joseph Brown vs. J. H. Johnson et al. Objections of defendant J. H. Johnson to report of receiver.
 Probate Court.
 Peter P. Hamre estate. Order setting aside homestead.
 In the matter of the guardianship of August Van Hoomissen, an insane person. Order for citation.
 Guardianship of August Van Hoomissen. Petition for appointment of guardian.
 Marriage Licenses.
 Ivan Lowell Hadley, 23, of Turner, a farmer, to Mary Martha Mickey, 22, of Salem Heights.
 E. B. Page, 41, of Gervais, route 2, a clerk, to Opal Mayfield, 17, of Gervais, route 2.

Daily Statistics

Born.
 DENLAP—To Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Dunlap of Junction City, Oregon, a daughter, Margaret Erma, June 19, 1920. Mr. Dunlap was a clerk in the Salem postoffice for several years.
 HERSCHBACK—To Mr. and Mrs. George W. Herschback, Hazel Ave. at Judson street, a son, June 16, 1920.
 BARNES—To Mr. and Mrs. Scott H. Barnes, at the residence six miles southwest of Salem, a son, June 16, 1920. To be named Albert Harrison Barnes.

Died.
 MIKKLESON—At a local hospital, Sunday morning, M. T. Mikkleson, at the age of 49 years. The funeral will be held from the Webb and Clough chapel Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. Mr. Powell will have charge of the services.
 MULKEY—At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mulkey, in the Morningside Addition, Sunday Margaret Mulkey, at the age of 17 years. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Webb and Clough chapel. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. Anderson will have charge of the services.
 Love, Jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.
 The home of better service, moderate prices and largest stock. Webb & Clough, funeral directors.

Mrs. W. H. Steward, formerly Mrs. Daisy Tucker, who has been wintering in California, is in Salem for a two months visit with her mother, Mrs. Julia Hurtel.
 The home of better service, moderate prices and largest stock. Webb & Clough, funeral directors.
 Final Cherrian drill Monday eve, June 21st, city hall, 7 p. m. Assignment of positions. Final instructions. Every marching Cherrian must be present.
 Miss Mabel West, daughter of County Assessor and Mrs. Ben F. West, left Saturday for Sheridan, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Graves, during a visit of indefinite length. The party will motor to the coast for a short stay later in the season.

SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243.
 Miss Lucile Barton, teacher of "Red-Cards" singing. Especial attention paid to correct breathing, diction and placing of the voice. 147 N. Commercial St. Phone 592. 148*
 "Chuck" Robinson, a student at the University of Oregon, returned to Salem Saturday. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.
 Dr. W. W. Contriss and wife of Mexico City are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Harry Olinger. Dr. Contriss, who was formerly a popular dentist at Salem, left here 23 years ago. He is representative of the Shrine at Mexico City.

SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243.
 W. J. Weaver, manager of the Umpqua hotel, Roseburg, was a Salem visitor Sunday, stopping at the Marion hotel on his way to Portland, where he will participate in the Shriner festivities.
 Paul H. Hauser of Hauser Brothers, was a Portland business visitor Monday. Mr. Hauser plans to prolong his return until Tuesday in order to get a glimpse of the Shriner activities.
 Army discharge papers filed at the county clerk's office, Monday, show that Second Lieutenant Frank Justus Whitehead worked thru a long period of service in attaining his commission. He enlisted November 4, 1912, and up to the time of his promotion served as follows: July 14, 1915, company M, 15th infantry; Feb. 1915, company M, 15th infantry; 1915, 34d infantry; to November 4, 1918, with 50th infantry as sergeant. He served with the Chinese expedition and during the war was stationed in the United States; his last assignment being assistant platoon officer, Camp Mills, N. Y.

Vehicles—especially trucks and wood wagons—that have been violating a city ordinance by traveling in the center of the streets instead of to appear in court, Chief of Police Jack Welsh said Monday.

 "When drivers take the middle of the street, vehicles passing them must either break the law by running to the left side of the street, or by passing on the right," he said.
 In the winter time, when pavements are slick, it is sometimes justifiable for horse-drawn vehicles to travel in the center of the street where it is flat, it is pointed out, but Chief Welsh declares there is no excuse for it at this time of the year.
 Prof. Glenn Crowder Stables of Houston, Texas, was the week end guest of Prof. Della Crowder Miller and son on Ferry street. Prof. Stables came to the coast as a soloist with the Kiwanis Glee club from Houston, who came to sing at the international convention of the Kiwanis clubs held during the past week at Portland. Prof. Stables is a baritone singer of Chicago Opera company fame. Sunday morning he sang a sacred solo at the 1st M. E. church. His voice is both powerful and sweet and his solo added greatly to the service. Prof. Orville Crowder Miller and his mother entertained the Misses Conner and G. E. Conner Sunday, Saturday they motored to Eugene and Monday returned to Portland.

OREGON
 HOUSE PETERS
 IN
 "SILK HUSBANDS AND CALICO WIVES"
 LAST TIMES TODAY!
 NOW

Edwin E. Dennison of Salem and G. W. Sturgis, Brooks.
 Mary Talaudage, Ruth Bedford and T. S. Roberts will repeat the beautiful trio of "Meditation," arranged for piano, organ and violin, tonight at First Cong. church. 148*

Mothers attention. Bring or send your little girls, seven years and over to the girls swimming class Y. M. C. A. Wednesdays 9:30 a. m. Competent instructor. For terms inquire Y. W. C. A. phone 1615, or Y. M. C. A. phone 225. 148*

Attorney T. W. Miles of Medford is visiting relatives here, called by the illness of his brother.
 SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243. 148*

"Revelation" harmony set, six art. items. Trombone, marimbaphone, banjo, violin, piano and drums. Singing by "Heavy" Headrick. Moose hall Wednesday and Saturday nights. 148*

Sacrifice sale. This is the opportunity to buy a good hat at a great reduction. Silk and straw hats, large and small, all selling from $2 to $5. This week only. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, millinery, 125 N. High St. 148

Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Davis of Medford are visiting relatives in Salem. They were former residents of the capital city and Mr. Davis is now U. S. commissioner as well as court stenographer at Medford.

Mrs. Halle Parrish Durall, Miss Gertrude Aldrich, will sing tonight at Miss Shelton's pupils' recital. First Cong. church, 8:15 p. m. 148*

The public is invited to hear Miss Shelton's piano pupils tonight, First Cong. church, 8:15. 148*

Announcements are being received of a musicale to be given by the violin pupils of William Wallace Graham, at the First Christian church Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Ruth Bedford will act as accompanist. Those who will appear on the program are Elory Maxwell, Kenneth Allen, Virginia White, Mary Schoettle, Ruth Perlich, Marion Emmons, Mildred Roberts, Scire Buell and Mary Talmage.

L. A. Byrd, of the Fletcher & Boyd company, went to Portland Monday on a brief business trip.
 Rev. Guy R. Stover, formerly pastor of the Rickreall church and now filling a pastorate in Washington county, was a Salem visitor the latter part of the week.

Colliding with a streetcar going south on Liberty street, an automobile driven by A. W. Sturtis was slightly damaged Saturday. The machine was traveling west on Court street.

Two men were reported skulking about the home of Mrs. J. W. Todd, 345 Bellview street, Saturday evening. Officer V. M. Moffit investigated but was unable to locate any suspicious looking characters.

Salemites are rejoicing over the arrival of the first carload of watermelons. The car arrived in Salem from the south last Friday, the Pacific Fruit & Produce company being the recipients.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mills and family motored to Portland Sunday and were the guests of friends for the day.

Miss Theresa Diversaux, who has been in Salem as the guest of Miss Leah Seiser, left Sunday evening for Mouthouth, where she will take the summer course at the state normal school.

Word was received in Salem Monday of the marriage Saturday of Howard W. Mort and Miss Mary O. Putnam, both of this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's brother, Roy Putnam, in Portland. Rev. H. T. Green, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lewiston, Idaho, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Mort are spending a brief honeymoon at Seaside.

The North Pacific District Assembly of the Nazarene church closed Sunday night with a crowded house. This has been pronounced as one of the best in the history of the church. Great crowds at every session and great enthusiasm for the future of the church. The missionary offerings were beyond expectation.

The offering for home missions amounted to something over $7500 and the foreign $15,500, in all $24,000, and besides other offerings amounted to nearly $1000. There was great preaching and many souls were saved during the time. The meetings will continue for two weeks with the Smith family of California every evening. Great singing and preaching will be the order of every service.

W. J. Weaver, manager of the Umpqua hotel, Roseburg, was a Salem visitor Sunday, stopping at the Marion hotel on his way to Portland, where he will participate in the Shriner festivities.

Paul H. Hauser of Hauser Brothers, was a Portland business visitor Monday. Mr. Hauser plans to prolong his return until Tuesday in order to get a glimpse of the Shriner activities.

Army discharge papers filed at the county clerk's office, Monday, show that Second Lieutenant Frank Justus Whitehead worked thru a long period of service in attaining his commission. He enlisted November 4, 1912, and up to the time of his promotion served as follows: July 14, 1915, company M, 15th infantry; Feb. 1915, company M, 15th infantry; 1915, 34d infantry; to November 4, 1918, with 50th infantry as sergeant. He served with the Chinese expedition and during the war was stationed in the United States; his last assignment being assistant platoon officer, Camp Mills, N. Y.

Vehicles—especially trucks and wood wagons—that have been violating a city ordinance by traveling in the center of the streets instead of to appear in court, Chief of Police Jack Welsh said Monday.

 "When drivers take the middle of the street, vehicles passing them must either break the law by running to the left side of the street, or by passing on the right," he said.
 In the winter time, when pavements are slick, it is sometimes justifiable for horse-drawn vehicles to travel in the center of the street where it is flat, it is pointed out, but Chief Welsh declares there is no excuse for it at this time of the year.

Prof. Glenn Crowder Stables of Houston, Texas, was the week end guest of Prof. Della Crowder Miller and son on Ferry street. Prof. Stables came to the coast as a soloist with the Kiwanis Glee club from Houston, who came to sing at the international convention of the Kiwanis clubs held during the past week at Portland. Prof. Stables is a baritone singer of Chicago Opera company fame. Sunday morning he sang a sacred solo at the 1st M. E. church. His voice is both powerful and sweet and his solo added greatly to the service. Prof. Orville Crowder Miller and his mother entertained the Misses Conner and G. E. Conner Sunday, Saturday they motored to Eugene and Monday returned to Portland.

Attorney T. W. Miles of Medford is visiting relatives here, called by the illness of his brother.
 SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243. 148*

"Revelation" harmony set, six art. items. Trombone, marimbaphone, banjo, violin, piano and drums. Singing by "Heavy" Headrick. Moose hall Wednesday and Saturday nights. 148*

Sacrifice sale. This is the opportunity to buy a good hat at a great reduction. Silk and straw hats, large and small, all selling from $2 to $5. This week only. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, millinery, 125 N. High St. 148

Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Davis of Medford are visiting relatives in Salem. They were former residents of the capital city and Mr. Davis is now U. S. commissioner as well as court stenographer at Medford.

Mrs. Halle Parrish Durall, Miss Gertrude Aldrich, will sing tonight at Miss Shelton's pupils' recital. First Cong. church, 8:15 p. m. 148*

The public is invited to hear Miss Shelton's piano pupils tonight, First Cong. church, 8:15. 148*

Announcements are being received of a musicale to be given by the violin pupils of William Wallace Graham, at the First Christian church Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Ruth Bedford will act as accompanist. Those who will appear on the program are Elory Maxwell, Kenneth Allen, Virginia White, Mary Schoettle, Ruth Perlich, Marion Emmons, Mildred Roberts, Scire Buell and Mary Talmage.

L. A. Byrd, of the Fletcher & Boyd company, went to Portland Monday on a brief business trip.
 Rev. Guy R. Stover, formerly pastor of the Rickreall church and now filling a pastorate in Washington county, was a Salem visitor the latter part of the week.

Colliding with a streetcar going south on Liberty street, an automobile driven by A. W. Sturtis was slightly damaged Saturday. The machine was traveling west on Court street.

Two men were reported skulking about the home of Mrs. J. W. Todd, 345 Bellview street, Saturday evening. Officer V. M. Moffit investigated but was unable to locate any suspicious looking characters.

Salemites are rejoicing over the arrival of the first carload of watermelons. The car arrived in Salem from the south last Friday, the Pacific Fruit & Produce company being the recipients.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mills and family motored to Portland Sunday and were the guests of friends for the day.

Miss Theresa Diversaux, who has been in Salem as the guest of Miss Leah Seiser, left Sunday evening for Mouthouth, where she will take the summer course at the state normal school.

Word was received in Salem Monday of the marriage Saturday of Howard W. Mort and Miss Mary O. Putnam, both of this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's brother, Roy Putnam, in Portland. Rev. H. T. Green, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lewiston, Idaho, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Mort are spending a brief honeymoon at Seaside.

The North Pacific District Assembly of the Nazarene church closed Sunday night with a crowded house. This has been pronounced as one of the best in the history of the church. Great crowds at every session and great enthusiasm for the future of the church. The missionary offerings were beyond expectation.

The offering for home missions amounted to something over $7500 and the foreign $15,500, in all $24,000, and besides other offerings amounted to nearly $1000. There was great preaching and many souls were saved during the time. The meetings will continue for two weeks with the Smith family of California every evening. Great singing and preaching will be the order of every service.

W. J. Weaver, manager of the Umpqua hotel, Roseburg, was a Salem visitor Sunday, stopping at the Marion hotel on his way to Portland, where he will participate in the Shriner festivities.

Paul H. Hauser of Hauser Brothers, was a Portland business visitor Monday. Mr. Hauser plans to prolong his return until Tuesday in order to get a glimpse of the Shriner activities.

Army discharge papers filed at the county clerk's office, Monday, show that Second Lieutenant Frank Justus Whitehead worked thru a long period of service in attaining his commission. He enlisted November 4, 1912, and up to the time of his promotion served as follows: July 14, 1915, company M, 15th infantry; Feb. 1915, company M, 15th infantry; 1915, 34d infantry; to November 4, 1918, with 50th infantry as sergeant. He served with the Chinese expedition and during the war was stationed in the United States; his last assignment being assistant platoon officer, Camp Mills, N. Y.

Vehicles—especially trucks and wood wagons—that have been violating a city ordinance by traveling in the center of the streets instead of to appear in court, Chief of Police Jack Welsh said Monday.

 "When drivers take the middle of the street, vehicles passing them must either break the law by running to the left side of the street, or by passing on the right," he said.
 In the winter time, when pavements are slick, it is sometimes justifiable for horse-drawn vehicles to travel in the center of the street where it is flat, it is pointed out, but Chief Welsh declares there is no excuse for it at this time of the year.

Prof. Glenn Crowder Stables of Houston, Texas, was the week end guest of Prof. Della Crowder Miller and son on Ferry street. Prof. Stables came to the coast as a soloist with the Kiwanis Glee club from Houston, who came to sing at the international convention of the Kiwanis clubs held during the past week at Portland. Prof. Stables is a baritone singer of Chicago Opera company fame. Sunday morning he sang a sacred solo at the 1st M. E. church. His voice is both powerful and sweet and his solo added greatly to the service. Prof. Orville Crowder Miller and his mother entertained the Misses Conner and G. E. Conner Sunday, Saturday they motored to Eugene and Monday returned to Portland.

Attorney T. W. Miles of Medford is visiting relatives here, called by the illness of his brother.
 SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243. 148*

"Revelation" harmony set, six art. items. Trombone, marimbaphone, banjo, violin, piano and drums. Singing by "Heavy" Headrick. Moose hall Wednesday and Saturday nights. 148*

Sacrifice sale. This is the opportunity to buy a good hat at a great reduction. Silk and straw hats, large and small, all selling from $2 to $5. This week only. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, millinery, 125 N. High St. 148

Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Davis of Medford are visiting relatives in Salem. They were former residents of the capital city and Mr. Davis is now U. S. commissioner as well as court stenographer at Medford.

Mrs. Halle Parrish Durall, Miss Gertrude Aldrich, will sing tonight at Miss Shelton's pupils' recital. First Cong. church, 8:15 p. m. 148*

The public is invited to hear Miss Shelton's piano pupils tonight, First Cong. church, 8:15. 148*

Announcements are being received of a musicale to be given by the violin pupils of William Wallace Graham, at the First Christian church Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Ruth Bedford will act as accompanist. Those who will appear on the program are Elory Maxwell, Kenneth Allen, Virginia White, Mary Schoettle, Ruth Perlich, Marion Emmons, Mildred Roberts, Scire Buell and Mary Talmage.

L. A. Byrd, of the Fletcher & Boyd company, went to Portland Monday on a brief business trip.
 Rev. Guy R. Stover, formerly pastor of the Rickreall church and now filling a pastorate in Washington county, was a Salem visitor the latter part of the week.

Colliding with a streetcar going south on Liberty street, an automobile driven by A. W. Sturtis was slightly damaged Saturday. The machine was traveling west on Court street.

Two men were reported skulking about the home of Mrs. J. W. Todd, 345 Bellview street, Saturday evening. Officer V. M. Moffit investigated but was unable to locate any suspicious looking characters.

Salemites are rejoicing over the arrival of the first carload of watermelons. The car arrived in Salem from the south last Friday, the Pacific Fruit & Produce company being the recipients.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mills and family motored to Portland Sunday and were the guests of friends for the day.

Miss Theresa Diversaux, who has been in Salem as the guest of Miss Leah Seiser, left Sunday evening for Mouthouth, where she will take the summer course at the state normal school.

Word was received in Salem Monday of the marriage Saturday of Howard W. Mort and Miss Mary O. Putnam, both of this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's brother, Roy Putnam, in Portland. Rev. H. T. Green, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lewiston, Idaho, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Mort are spending a brief honeymoon at Seaside.

The North Pacific District Assembly of the Nazarene church closed Sunday night with a crowded house. This has been pronounced as one of the best in the history of the church. Great crowds at every session and great enthusiasm for the future of the church. The missionary offerings were beyond expectation.

The offering for home missions amounted to something over $7500 and the foreign $15,500, in all $24,000, and besides other offerings amounted to nearly $1000. There was great preaching and many souls were saved during the time. The meetings will continue for two weeks with the Smith family of California every evening. Great singing and preaching will be the order of every service.

W. J. Weaver, manager of the Umpqua hotel, Roseburg, was a Salem visitor Sunday, stopping at the Marion hotel on his way to Portland, where he will participate in the Shriner festivities.

Paul H. Hauser of Hauser Brothers, was a Portland business visitor Monday. Mr. Hauser plans to prolong his return until Tuesday in order to get a glimpse of the Shriner activities.

Army discharge papers filed at the county clerk's office, Monday, show that Second Lieutenant Frank Justus Whitehead worked thru a long period of service in attaining his commission. He enlisted November 4, 1912, and up to the time of his promotion served as follows: July 14, 1915, company M, 15th infantry; Feb. 1915, company M, 15th infantry; 1915, 34d infantry; to November 4, 1918, with 50th infantry as sergeant. He served with the Chinese expedition and during the war was stationed in the United States; his last assignment being assistant platoon officer, Camp Mills, N. Y.

Vehicles—especially trucks and wood wagons—that have been violating a city ordinance by traveling in the center of the streets instead of to appear in court, Chief of Police Jack Welsh said Monday.

 "When drivers take the middle of the street, vehicles passing them must either break the law by running to the left side of the street, or by passing on the right," he said.
 In the winter time, when pavements are slick, it is sometimes justifiable for horse-drawn vehicles to travel in the center of the street where it is flat, it is pointed out, but Chief Welsh declares there is no excuse for it at this time of the year.

Prof. Glenn Crowder Stables of Houston, Texas, was the week end guest of Prof. Della Crowder Miller and son on Ferry street. Prof. Stables came to the coast as a soloist with the Kiwanis Glee club from Houston, who came to sing at the international convention of the Kiwanis clubs held during the past week at Portland. Prof. Stables is a baritone singer of Chicago Opera company fame. Sunday morning he sang a sacred solo at the 1st M. E. church. His voice is both powerful and sweet and his solo added greatly to the service. Prof. Orville Crowder Miller and his mother entertained the Misses Conner and G. E. Conner Sunday, Saturday they motored to Eugene and Monday returned to Portland.

Attorney T. W. Miles of Medford is visiting relatives here, called by the illness of his brother.
 SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243. 148*

"Revelation" harmony set, six art. items. Trombone, marimbaphone, banjo, violin, piano and drums. Singing by "Heavy" Headrick. Moose hall Wednesday and Saturday nights. 148*

Sacrifice sale. This is the opportunity to buy a good hat at a great reduction. Silk and straw hats, large and small, all selling from $2 to $5. This week only. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, millinery, 125 N. High St. 148

Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Davis of Medford are visiting relatives in Salem. They were former residents of the capital city and Mr. Davis is now U. S. commissioner as well as court stenographer at Medford.

Mrs. Halle Parrish Durall, Miss Gertrude Aldrich, will sing tonight at Miss Shelton's pupils' recital. First Cong. church, 8:15 p. m. 148*

The public is invited to hear Miss Shelton's piano pupils tonight, First Cong. church, 8:15. 148*

Announcements are being received of a musicale to be given by the violin pupils of William Wallace Graham, at the First Christian church Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Ruth Bedford will act as accompanist. Those who will appear on the program are Elory Maxwell, Kenneth Allen, Virginia White, Mary Schoettle, Ruth Perlich, Marion Emmons, Mildred Roberts, Scire Buell and Mary Talmage.

L. A. Byrd, of the Fletcher & Boyd company, went to Portland Monday on a brief business trip.
 Rev. Guy R. Stover, formerly pastor of the Rickreall church and now filling a pastorate in Washington county, was a Salem visitor the latter part of the week.

Colliding with a streetcar going south on Liberty street, an automobile driven by A. W. Sturtis was slightly damaged Saturday. The machine was traveling west on Court street.

Two men were reported skulking about the home of Mrs. J. W. Todd, 345 Bellview street, Saturday evening. Officer V. M. Moffit investigated but was unable to locate any suspicious looking characters.

Salemites are rejoicing over the arrival of the first carload of watermelons. The car arrived in Salem from the south last Friday, the Pacific Fruit & Produce company being the recipients.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mills and family motored to Portland Sunday and were the guests of friends for the day.

Miss Theresa Diversaux, who has been in Salem as the guest of Miss Leah Seiser, left Sunday evening for Mouthouth, where she will take the summer course at the state normal school.

Word was received in Salem Monday of the marriage Saturday of Howard W. Mort and Miss Mary O. Putnam, both of this city. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's brother, Roy Putnam, in Portland. Rev. H. T. Green, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lewiston, Idaho, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Mort are spending a brief honeymoon at Seaside.

The North Pacific District Assembly of the Nazarene church closed Sunday night with a crowded house. This has been pronounced as one of the best in the history of the church. Great crowds at every session and great enthusiasm for the future of the church. The missionary offerings were beyond expectation.

The offering for home missions amounted to something over $7500 and the foreign $15,500, in all $24,000, and besides other offerings amounted to nearly $1000. There was great preaching and many souls were saved during the time. The meetings will continue for two weeks with the Smith family of California every evening. Great singing and preaching will be the order of every service.

W. J. Weaver, manager of the Umpqua hotel, Roseburg, was a Salem visitor Sunday, stopping at the Marion hotel on his way to Portland, where he will participate in the Shriner festivities.

Paul H. Hauser of Hauser Brothers, was a Portland business visitor Monday. Mr. Hauser plans to prolong his return until Tuesday in order to get a glimpse of the Shriner activities.

Army discharge papers filed at the county clerk's office, Monday, show that Second Lieutenant Frank Justus Whitehead worked thru a long period of service in attaining his commission. He enlisted November 4, 1912, and up to the time of his promotion served as follows: July 14, 1915, company M, 15th infantry; Feb. 1915, company M, 15th infantry; 1915, 34d infantry; to November 4, 1918, with 50th infantry as sergeant. He served with the Chinese expedition and during the war was stationed in the United States; his last assignment being assistant platoon officer, Camp Mills, N. Y.

Vehicles—especially trucks and wood wagons—that have been violating a city ordinance by traveling in the center of the streets instead of to appear in court, Chief of Police Jack Welsh said Monday.

 "When drivers take the middle of the street, vehicles passing them must either break the law by running to the left side of the street, or by passing on the right," he said.
 In the winter time, when pavements are slick, it is sometimes justifiable for horse-drawn vehicles to travel in the center of the street where it is flat, it is pointed out, but Chief Welsh declares there is no excuse for it at this time of the year.

Prof. Glenn Crowder Stables of Houston, Texas, was the week end guest of Prof. Della Crowder Miller and son on Ferry street. Prof. Stables came to the coast as a soloist with the Kiwanis Glee club from Houston, who came to sing at the international convention of the Kiwanis clubs held during the past week at Portland. Prof. Stables is a baritone singer of Chicago Opera company fame. Sunday morning he sang a sacred solo at the 1st M. E. church. His voice is both powerful and sweet and his solo added greatly to the service. Prof. Orville Crowder Miller and his mother entertained the Misses Conner and G. E. Conner Sunday, Saturday they motored to Eugene and Monday returned to Portland.

Attorney T. W. Miles of Medford is visiting relatives here, called by the illness of his brother.
 SHRINERS emblem cords. See Elliott, Bank of Commerce bldg. Phone 1243. 148*

"Revelation" harmony set, six art. items. Trombone, marimbaphone, banjo, violin, piano and drums. Singing by "Heavy" Headrick. Moose hall Wednesday and Saturday nights. 148*

Sacrifice sale. This is the opportunity to buy a good hat at a great reduction. Silk and straw hats, large and small, all selling from $2 to $5. This week only. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, millinery, 125 N. High St. 148

Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Davis of Medford are visiting relatives in Salem. They were former residents of the capital city and Mr. Davis is now U. S. commissioner as well as court stenographer at Medford.

Mrs. Halle Parrish Durall, Miss Gertrude Aldrich, will sing tonight at Miss Shelton's pupils' recital. First Cong. church, 8:15 p. m. 148*

The public is invited to hear Miss Shelton's piano pupils tonight, First Cong. church, 8:15. 148*

Announcements are being received of a musicale to be given by the violin pupils of William Wallace Graham, at the First Christian church Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Miss Ruth Bedford will act as accompanist. Those who will appear on the program are Elory Maxwell, Kenneth Allen, Virginia White, Mary Schoettle, Ruth Perlich, Marion Emmons, Mildred Roberts, Scire Buell and Mary Talmage.

L. A. Byrd, of the Fletcher & Boyd company, went to Portland Monday on a brief business trip.
 Rev. Guy R. Stover, formerly pastor of the Rickreall church and now filling a pastorate in Washington county, was a Salem visitor the latter part of the week.

Colliding with a streetcar going south on Liberty street, an automobile driven by A. W. Sturtis was slightly damaged Saturday. The machine was traveling west on Court street.

Two men were reported skulking about the home of Mrs. J. W. Todd, 345 Bellview street, Saturday evening. Officer V. M. Moffit investigated but was unable to locate any suspicious looking characters.

Salemites are rejoicing over the arrival of the first carload of watermelons. The car arrived in Salem from the south last Friday, the Pacific Fruit & Produce company being the recipients.