By Will Carver
More than two protracted hours of "everybody's" play at Woodburn, Sunday afternoon, proved that the Scotch bard was no tongue tied doper when he gave us that bit about the plans of mice and men going "att'agley". In the windup Salem's tally was 11 to Woodburn's 7.

When the Senators arrived in the north Marion city, Sunday morning, they caught the impression from which springs among the natives that something was going to happen. The local boys and their followers gathered up their courage and ventured out to the first class park of which the little city boasts. Rumor had it that a strange twirler had been imported by Woodburn and that the Senators might just as well hold down the side benches and count nine during their luns.

Dark Horse Fizzes
Pendleton, the imported mystery man, broke the news to the Salem boys when Bishop tore off a nice drive in the first of the first, and Proctor then put himself on first and set the stage for Hays' drive over the center field fence, the figure three being checked to the Senators' credit when they gave way for the Tigers.

The Woodburn hitters made every effort to retrieve their pitcher's fall down and as a result Cole found his control threatened by the onslaughts of the enemy batsmen. Although the big Salem pitcher gave an exhibition of expressionless work; yet he held his opponents down to one pass and struck out a round dozen of the doughty Tigers. Impartial spectators voiced the opinion that Woodburn was fortunate to catch Cole on one of his off days as "King's" previous work has shown that he is capable of freezing out the average small team.

DeGeer Holds Game
In the fifth inning, Pendleton's success at throwing away the pill, promoted him to the sidelines, the score being 7-3 in Salem's favor. DeGeer went into the box and proved that Woodburn had junked the game when they imported the outsider. DeGeer roused better action from the Senators, playing an errorless game and striking out six men during his short session.

The Tigers also fell down in supporting their batteries, six errors being checked against inner and outer garden men. Salem's three error total is indicative of lack on interest resulting from the freedom with which the local boys secured hits and runs from their opponents.

Manager Bishop announced that Sunday June 27, is the scheduled date for the clash with the Vancouver (Washington) nine. A good game with this team is in prospect, according to baseball wisacres. The Vancouver-Salem game will be played at Oxford park.

"Bad" Bill Steers Will Be On Oregon Team, Says Mentor
Rumors to the effect that the speedy veteran of the University of Oregon backfield, "Bad" Bill Steers, will not return to captain next season's eleven are entirely unfounded, in the opinion of "Shy Huntington, lemon-yellow mentor."

"Steers talked enthusiastically of next year's prospects and predicted a wonderful season when he talked to me shortly before he left for home," Huntington said Sunday.

Steers, chosen unanimously by Pacific coast critics for warterback on their mythical all-coast machines, was mentioned before the Oregon-Harvard game last year as "the greatest football player ever developed west of the Mississippi."

Salem Man, Grid Star At Oregon, Back For Summer

George King, Salem man who held down the fullback position on the freshman team at the university of Oregon during the past season and a strong candidate for the lemon-yellow first string next year, returned to Salem Saturday night.
King, who moved to Salem about a year ago from Iowa, is a fast, smashing back, and is believed to bid fair for the berth made vacant by the departure from the university of Hollis Huntington, veteran of the Eugene school. King was an overseas lieutenant. He expects to secure work in Salem this summer.

New Aggie Coach Arrives; Record On Gridiron Good

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 21.—Arrival of R. B. Rutherford has started football gossip among the few persons left on the college campus. Rutherford personally will not commit himself in respect to the future. He is "head over heels" in work figuring out the details in connection with improvements—a swimming pool addition to the men's gymnasium and changes in the football field and track. In another month or so he will be ready to give out some football dope, he says.

Rutherford's record is an enviable one. He will not only coach the varsity football and basketball teams but will be director of physical education and intercollegiate athletics. He came here from Washington university where he had charge of physical education for both men and women and where he directed all major sports. While a student at the university of Nebraska he was for three years placed on the mythical all-Missouri valley football team and on the all-western football team by several writers. In his senior year some dopsters put him on the all-American team.

Harding's Stand On Booze Probed

Chicago, June 21.—Senator Warren G. Harding, republican presidential nominee, formerly owned stock in a brewery, according to a statement issued by Virgil Hinshaw at prohibition national headquarters here today.
According to Hinshaw, Harding admitted at dinner given by Thomas B. Feltner, at the New Willard hotel in Washington two years and a half ago "that he had owned brewery stock in Ohio." The dinner, Hinshaw said, was given in honor of Nat Harris, the dry governor of Georgia.
The statement adds that Harding later voted for the federal prohibition amendment and voted for the Volstead act over the president's veto.
"It was difficult to tell from Mr. Harding's speeches just where he stood or in which direction his sympathies lay," Hinshaw added.

Seattle To Have Big Deep Water Ship Terminal

Seattle, Wash., June 19.—As a sequel to the sale by the Skinner and Eddy company of the shipbuilding equipment and machinery on the site of its shipyard No. 1, announced yesterday, the company today made public its decision to convert the site into a huge deep water terminal, with a half mile of berthage and equipped for manufacturing and storage purposes as well. Skinner and Eddy officials said the new terminal will be used as the home port quarters of the Robin Steamship company's fleet of four 10,500 ton steamships, one of the Skinner and Eddy subsidiaries.

Surgeon General To Investigate Plague Condition

Washington, June 19.—Surgeon General Cumming of the public health service will leave here Monday for Pensacola, New Orleans and Galveston to look over the bubonic plague situation.

"There have been no further developments at those ports," the department announced, "and conditions are not alarming."

The quarantine against Tampico, Mexico, because of the plague was lifted at Monterey June 17, the state department was advised today by the American consul at Monterey.

Motorcycle Meet Affords Feature Events and Fun

A crowd of nearly 500 persons witnessed the breath-taking stunts at Sixty on the Turner road, Saturday, when daring riders competed for honors on the steep grade.
At least 200 machines made the trip to the hill where the gala event of the two-day gypsy meet at Salem took place. The course was a run of 350 feet up the steepest portion of the hill and contestants soon discovered that the 60 per cent run was no children's play.

On Firestone tires, C. H. Hunt of Portland made the day's record run when he took the course in 13 4-5 seconds. R. J. Smith of Salem was a close second with a run of 14 seconds flat. This event was a free-for-all and all machines were equipped with rear chains.
The first event was for sport model machines and first honors went to Charles Thomas, Salem, whose time was 41 seconds. R. J. Smith, also of Salem, came in for second prize by making a 42 second essay of the hill.

The ensuing event was for motorcycles with a 61-inch motor. C. V. Hinshaw, Salem, made the run in 16 seconds. R. J. Smith, Salem, followed, time 22 seconds.

Otto Walker "Motorcycle King," and holder of several track and endurance records, was present at the hill climb. Walker did not participate in any events because of slight injuries received in a recent race at Portland.
Saturday's events concluded with a dance and a bonfire at the city camp grounds.

Motorcyclists Picnic.
Sunday, 300 machines made the trip to the picnic grounds five miles north of Salem where a "stunt" program was staged, followed by a big out-door dinner.

In the tug of war, Salem dragged their opponents across the line in fast style. A Portland motorcyclist won the sand race; Fred Alkire, Salem, taking second. In the sidecar event a Portland entrant secured first honors, Harry Scott, Salem, being next over the line.
Prizes for all events consisted of tires and accessories given by the Firestone Rubber company, the Goodyear Rubber company the Salem Motorcycle club. Before the visiting motorcyclists left Salem they unanimously voted the Salem Motorcycle club as leaders in the art of entertainment.

In the vicinity of Dallas are more than 4191 acres of prunes in bearing, and approximately 4000 acres coming into bearing within the next few years.

HE TRAVELED ALL OVER THE WORLD

"I have been treated for indigestion in France, Italy, Switzerland, North and South America and in fact all over the world, but Tanlac is the only thing I have ever found to do me much good," said H. L. Fintinger, watch maker for Nathan Dohrmann & Co., San Francisco, Cal., living at 36 Plato St.
"Always after eating," continued Mr. Fintinger, "I would have such cramps in my stomach that I could hardly stand it. I had fallen off until I weighed only ninety eight pounds and was so nervous the least little thing would upset me. I could sleep but little and got up in the mornings feeling all fagged out. My strength and energy left me and I felt like I would have to give up entirely. Besides taking everything in the way of treatments and medicines I tried dieting and the rest cure, but never got more than a little passing relief."
"The way Tanlac brought me out is marvelous, I can eat anything now without any trouble afterwards. I have gained twenty pounds and my nerves are steady as a clock. I sleep fine every night and get up in the mornings ready for a good breakfast and a full day's work, and an enjoying better health than I have in years."
Tanlac is sold in Salem by Tyler's drug store and leading druggists in all towns. (adv)

State Teachers To Convene In Eugene, June 25

University of Oregon, Eugene, June 21.—Teachers from all parts of the state, and from others as well, will meet in Eugene, June 25th, at the University of Oregon educational convention to discuss present day problems, plans and departures in the field of education. This convention, an annual feature of the university's service to the state through the public schools, will be under the direction of Dean H. D. Sheldon, director of the summer school.

Colby Confers With Wilson On Convention Plans

Washington, June 21.—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, had a final conference with President Wilson today before leaving for San Francisco by way of New York to attend the democratic national convention as a delegate from the District of Columbia.

Mr. Colby will be one of the president's spokesmen at the convention. Five other cabinet officers will be present at San Francisco. They are Postmaster General Burleson, who goes as a delegate from Texas; Secretary Daniels, Attorney General Palmer, Secretary Meredith and Secretary Alexander.

Italian Force Withdrawn.
London, June 21.—Italian troops have been withdrawn from the whole Montenegrin coast, according to an official agency announcement at Belgrade. Serbian troops immediately opened the evacuated districts. There now are no foreign troops in Montenegro.

Dearth Of Show Dogs Blamed To Fast Cars

Del Monte, Cal.—The Del Monte Dog show which was scheduled for June 25-26 has been cancelled for this year. The reason advanced is the scarcity of bench show dogs.
Some time ago Phil. M. Wand of San Francisco, well known judge of blue-blooded dogs, made the statement that the automobile is responsible for the decrease in the showing of dogs. He set forth statistics to show the large number of dogs that have been killed in recent months by automobiles.
In order to condition dogs for exhib-

Court's Power Stops Here.
Minneapolis, Minn.—The rooster's early morning crow cannot be restrained by court order. Such was the decision of Judge W. W. Hardwell, in district court here, after hearing a petition from Dr. C. F. Dight, a former alderman of this city, seeking an injunction to restrain sleep-disturbing noises which, he said, came from his neighbor's house and yard.

YOUNG GIRLS MADE STRONG

Mrs. Boyd Tells How Her Daughter Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Danville, Ill.—"My daughter was very delicate and we thought we could not raise her. She was troubled with irregularity and she was not able to go to school. For a year we gave her all kinds of tonics but to no good. One day one of your little books was thrown on our porch and I saw what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and what it might do for her. Now she is getting fat and goes to school every day. You can tell every mother what the Vegetable Compound has done for my daughter."
—Mrs. J. H. Boyd, 1002 N. Jackson St., Danville, Ill.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Boyd did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, headache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years' experience is at your service.
