

The Capital Journal
AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Published every evening except Sunday by The Capital Journal Printing Co., 136 South Commercial street. Telephone—Circulation and Business office, 81; Editorial rooms, 82. G. PUTNAM, Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second class mail matter at Salem, Oregon.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By carrier 50 cents a month. By mail $1.00 a month, $1.25 for three months, $2.25 for six months, $4 per year in advance. Single copies, 10 cents. Outside of Oregon, $1.50 a year. By order of U. S. government, all mail subscriptions are payable in advance.

Advertising representatives—W. D. Ward, Tribune Bldg., New York; W. E. Stockwell, Peoples Gas. Bldg., Chicago.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it, not otherwise credited in this paper and also local news published herein.

INFINITE PROTECTION—
When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle thee on thee.—Isaiah 43:2.

PARTISAN CHAGRIN

The partisan paper has a hard time these days in presenting the news to harmonize with its politics—for it uses its news columns as well as editorials as party propaganda.

The Portland Oregonian this morning informs the public in one column that the "wet vote is main strength of Cox," and in another that "300 dry votes put Cox across." A third column informs us that "old bourbonism is reinstated and Cox choice hits Wilson," while another declares the convention absolutely controlled by the White House.

For days we have been informed by the voracious Oregonian that the president was boss of the convention, dictated the platform and would elect the nominee. Columns of bunk about "perpetuating the dynasty" or naming the "crown-prince" have appeared—and none of the predictions came true.

Now of course another line of attack has to be created, so the state bosses opposed to the president, who controlled the big delegations comprising less than a third of the delegates, have to be represented as dominating the convention and dictating the ticket—albeit in the same article we are also informed that the convention was over-generated from Washington and most the delegates office holders or their relations. Again we are told that altho the "old guard" dictated the candidate, the sudden break to Cox was a great surprise to them and entirely unexpected. And so it goes.

The crux of the matter is that the partisan journalists are greatly chagrined over the fact that none of their predictions were realized and that the democrats after adopting a forward-looking, and progressive platform, named the strongest ticket possible in a vote winning way, and turned what was expected to be an easy republican victory into a promising defeat.

SLEEPY-TIME TALES
THE TALE OF JASPER JAY
BY ARTHUR SCOTT BAILEY

FRIENDS AT LAST.

With their feet caught fast in the ice, Jasper Jay and Reddy Woodpecker could not see each other—since they stood on opposite sides of the tree. But they squawked so loudly that they couldn't help hearing each other.

"Jay! Jay!" screamed Jasper in a rasping voice, which sounded a good deal like the saw at the saw-mill, when it bites into a log.

"Ker-ruck! ker-ruck!" sounded Reddy Woodpecker's rolling call. And he was so angry that he struck the tree viciously with his strong bill.

"Where is that red-headed rascal that making so much noise?" Jasper Jay, shouted.

"And 'Where's that loud-mouthed, blue-coated dandy?" asked Reddy.

"He's where you can't see him—and where he can't see any beechnuts. Wasn't that what you wanted?" Jimmy Rabbit replied.

Both Jasper and Reddy cried "Yes" and then they began to call Jimmy Rabbit such awful names that he put his hands over his ears and ran away. You see, he was so gentle that he never called names himself. And, naturally, he did not care to stay there and listen to those two rowdies.

When the two prisoners—for that is what they were—when they saw that Jimmy Rabbit was leaving them they shrieked to him to come back.

"What if Tommy Fox should come along this way?" Jasper groaned.

"I hope Peter Mink is down by the duck-pond!" Reddy Woodpecker whined daintily.

Of course, it was not long before they both discovered that they were in the same fix.

"That young Jimmy Rabbit played a trick on us!" said Jasper as he "He certainly did!" Reddy Woodpecker agreed. "How did it happen that he caught you like this?"

Naturally, Jasper Jay did not like to explain just then how he had said that he wished Reddy might be put where he needn't look at his red cap, and where Reddy couldn't eat any more beechnuts, Jasper didn't know what to say, for a moment. So, instead deal like the saw at the saw-mill, when it bites into a log.

Then he helped Jasper Jay.

"Ker-ruck! ker-ruck!" sounded Reddy Woodpecker's rolling call. And he was so angry that he struck the tree viciously with his strong bill.

"Where is that red-headed rascal that making so much noise?" Jasper Jay, shouted.

"And 'Where's that loud-mouthed, blue-coated dandy?" asked Reddy.

"He's where you can't see him—and where he can't see any beechnuts. Wasn't that what you wanted?" Jimmy Rabbit replied.

Both Jasper and Reddy cried "Yes" and then they began to call Jimmy Rabbit such awful names that he put his hands over his ears and ran away. You see, he was so gentle that he never called names himself. And, naturally, he did not care to stay there and listen to those two rowdies.

When the two prisoners—for that is what they were—when they saw that Jimmy Rabbit was leaving them they shrieked to him to come back.

"What if Tommy Fox should come along this way?" Jasper groaned.

"I hope Peter Mink is down by the duck-pond!" Reddy Woodpecker whined daintily.

Of course, it was not long before they both discovered that they were in the same fix.

"That young Jimmy Rabbit played a trick on us!" said Jasper as he "He certainly did!" Reddy Woodpecker agreed. "How did it happen that he caught you like this?"

Naturally, Jasper Jay did not like to explain just then how he had said that he wished Reddy might be put where he needn't look at his red cap, and where Reddy couldn't eat any more beechnuts, Jasper didn't know what to say, for a moment. So, instead

There usually was, if a person had anything to do with Jasper Jay. (THE END)

HEAL SKIN DISEASES
Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, zemo, and similar skin troubles. Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 50c, $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress.

The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

—tempting lemon tang

Ward's LEMON-CRUSH

A happy halt for a cooling treat—sparkling Lemon-Crush! Delicate flavor—relief from thirst—with snap and tartness like the morning breeze. Made by the exclusive Ward process from freshly-picked lemons, pure sugar and citric acid (the natural acid of the lemon).

Lemon-Crush, and its companion drink, Orange-Crush, are always dependable for highest quality, purity and deliciousness.

in bottles or at fountains

Prepared by Orange-Crush Co., Chicago
Laboratory: Los Angeles

Bottled in Salem by
Gleason Stolz & Co., Phone 25
Send for free book, "The Story of Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush"

Sure Relief

6 BELLANS Hot Water Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

BELLANS FOR INDIGESTION

Edith Anderson and J. O. Anderson et al vs. Frances M. Stanley-Wadsworth et al. Order for publication of summons entered.

Polk county, a body politic and corporation of state of Oregon, vs. Decker & Osburn, S. D. Coats "estate" et al. Judgment decree and order of sale.

Marriage Licenses.

Otis Foster, farmer of Dallas, age 25, to Meta Thiesles, teacher of Dallas, age 23.

Mr. Foster is a prosperous young farmer of Polk county, and Miss Thiesles is a well known rural teacher, having taught a number of years in various parts of the county. Miss Thiesles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Thiesles, who live in the Salt Creek district.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

Chamberlain's Tablets

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.

OUR BREAD MAN

is one of the most skillful in the business. What he doesn't know about bread making isn't worth knowing. Just to prove to yourself how foolish it is to sweeter over a hot oven, try a loaf of our BAKE-RITE Bread. Once tried it is always a favorite.

BAKE-RITE BAKERY
457 State St. Phone 253

LADD & BUSH Bankers

Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"1908 Prices" Promised for

(Continued from page one)

ever offered on previous Bargain Days will be shown.

Farmers are preparing to come to Salem in large numbers and a big jam is expected in Salem Saturday. Following are the stores fixed up:

Demison's Electric Sign and Supply Co.

The Needlecraft Shop, embroidered and stamped articles.

Mrs. M. E. Brewer, drugs, toilet articles, stationery.

The French Shop, millinery.

P. R. L. & P. Co., electric goods.

Price Shoe Co., ladies and mens shoes.

The Bootery, ladies and mens shoes.

Peoples Cash store, dry goods, clothing, groceries.

Salem Woolen Mills store, clothing and furnishing.

Gale & Co., dry goods, millinery, mens clothing and furnishings.

H. L. Stiff Furniture Co., house furnishings.

Busick & Son, staple and fancy groceries.

J. C. Penney & Co., mens and ladies furnishings, dry goods, etc.

Miller Mercantile Co., dry goods, clothing and ladies wear.

ready to wear.

Katoury Bros., ladies and mens out fitters.

Scotch Woolen Mills store, mens made to measure clothes.

Kosteln & Greenbaum, dry goods, millinery, shoes, mens furnishings.

Hartman Bros. jewelry.

Bunker Brown Shoe Co., shoes.

Valley Motor Co., trucks and motors.

Roth Grocery Co., staple and fancy groceries.

George C. Will, music and musical instruments.

C. J. Breder, shoes, hats, etc.

The Remnant store, dry goods, hosiery, notions.

Chambers & Chambers, furniture.

The Spa, confectionery.

Steinloff Bros., meat market.

Midnet Meat Market, meats.

Wm. Gahldorf, crockery, glass and kitchenware.

Mrs. H. P. Stith, balcony of Kafoury Bros., millinery.

W. W. Moore, furniture.

Tom Cronise, studio, photography.

McDowell Market, meats.

The B. & C. Motor Co., Auburn, Lexington and used cars.

The Salem Electric Co., electric goods.

Dr. C. A. Eldridge, dentist.

Salem Baking Co., bread, cakes, etc.

C. S. Hamilton, furniture.

Vick Bros., tractors, trucks, automobiles.

Anderson & Brown, sporting goods.

Welch Electric Co., electric fixtures and supplies.

Paris Shoe Store, shoes.

Ferry Drug Store, (The Rexall Store).

Cherry City hotel.

Salem Variety store, millinery, notions, etc.

Shafors Harness store, leather goods, robes, brief cases, etc.

Buttercup Ice Cream Co.

Cross Meat Market, meats and delicatessen.

U. G. Shipley Co., ladies ready to wear.

Ray L. Farmer, hardware, paints.

Salem Hardware, hardware, paints.

Portland Cloak & Suit Co., ladies.

Dan J. Fry, wholesale and retail drugs.

Max O. Buren, furniture.

R. D. Gilbert & Co., groceries.

West Fur Co., furs in furs.

We have endeavored to call on all of the merchants in the city, that may be listed as a "bargain day store" however, if you have been overlooked telephone 81 and we will gladly give you full details.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

The democratic nominee for vice-president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, is one of the youngest men in high official life, being but 38 years of age. He is a distant cousin of the late Theodore Roosevelt, and has served as assistant secretary of the navy throughout the Wilson administration.

Mr. Roosevelt is a native of New York, a graduate of Harvard and Columbia, a lawyer by profession and active in politics. He served in the state senate of New York from 1910 to 1913. He has been active in welfare work, is trustee of a children's hospital and seamen's institute, and one of the most popular men in official life.

As assistant secretary of the navy, Mr. Roosevelt won high commendation for work during the war, but was with difficulty restrained from resigning and enlisting in the ranks, and only Secretary Daniels intervention prevented it.

At the convention he was a strong supporter of McAdoo's candidacy and belongs to the anti-Tamm faction of New York democracy.

Rippling Rhymes

THE PELICAN

Some pelicans around me sail, as I wind up my lyre, that I may earn a slice of kale, to buy a rubber tire. The pelican is most absurd, it has no warbling skill; it is a bonehead sort of bird that largely runs to bill. It catches fish before my door, by every artful means, instead of going to the store and buying canned sardines. It hangs around in my front yard, close by its feeding place, and doubtless thinks an old fat barn should sing its charms and grace. I've witnessed many tinhorn fowls in my long, sad career; I've gazed on buzzards, crows and owls, in countries far and near; I've looked on roosters large and small, on mudhens and such things, the pelican outclasses all, for smallness, by jings. And yet it thinks it's pretty fine, as graceful as a bride, it stands before this tub of mine, and seems to point with pride. Along the beach, and to and fro, I watch its vain parades; as silly as an ancient beau who ogles blooming maids. It thinks it is a shinning star, pure radiance to spill; but, like the chaps who fix my car, it mostly runs to bill.

LOVE and MARRIED LIFE
By the Noted Author
IDA H. McGLONE GIBSON

Bess Moreland's Maneuvers.

I did not speak.

"Oh! of course I know you do not approve of it," he said roughly, "but you know Elizabeth is all alone and I think she will make a nice companion for mother."

"Did you mother suggest the partnership?" I asked.

"Well, I have really forgotten who suggested it, but Elizabeth told me that since living had become so expensive it wasn't easy to get along. And I thought that you would be much better pleased than to have mother come with us."

"I certainly should," I said firmly, although my first impulse had been one of annoyance, when I thought of Elizabeth Moreland living with John's other, I quickly decided that I would not go there when she was at home. But I was quite sure that she would not remain very long, because she and Madam Gordon could not get along together.

"What does Alice think about it all?"

"Alice didn't say much," he said evasively.

"John, you are not telling me the whole truth," I said with a smile. "You know Alice always has an opinion on every subject and she certainly would have one on this."

"Well, she said," spoke John stothily, "that probably Elizabeth and mother would have a cat and parrot time."

"I don't know why you women are all so down on Elizabeth Moreland. I would be half so attentive to her as I am, if I weren't so ashamed of the way you women treat her."

"Oh, that is it, is it?" I asked. "You mean to tell me that it is only because I snub Elizabeth Moreland that you make yourself conspicuous with your attentions to her?"

"How do you know that I make myself conspicuous?"

"Oh, someone has told you, have they?"

"A good many people have," blurted out John, and then I was immediately sorry.

"I don't know what people should be so conspicuous," he said. "Elizabeth and I have been children, playmates and friends all of our lives, except when we quarrel."

"Oh you do quarrel occasionally?" was my comment.

"Not very often," said John earnestly. "Elizabeth and I do not have as many differences of opinion as you and I, Katherine. I suppose it is because we have grown up together and formed similar tastes and ideas. Oh, by the way! Here is something that she told me to give to you for the babe. I had almost forgotten it."

"And he handed me a tiny box. At the time I was rather surprised that he had spoken of her, now I know there was method in his madness. I opened the box and found a very beautiful string of seed pearls."

"Let's see how they look around her neck," said John, starting up.

"No, we won't disturb the baby when she is sleeping," I said as I put the tiny beads back in the box and covered it up.

"In my heart I had determined that my baby should never wear those

Polk County Court

Circuit Court.

Emma A. Hinshaw vs. Wm. R. Hinshaw. Case No. 5355. Summons filed.

Business Men's Adjustment company, a corporation, vs. Fred LaBranch et ux. Writ of attachment filed.

Polk county, a body politic and corporation of the state of Oregon, vs. Baker and Osburn et al. Sheriff's certificate of posting notice of tax sale filed.

A. M. Fanning vs. H. A. Yocom, Annis A. Locom et al. Notice of intention to redeem real property. Certificate of redemption.

Cassie Faye Taylor vs. Leon C. Taylor. Findings of fact and conclusions of law. Decree giving plaintiff care and custody of children and $30 per month for the support and maintenance of children.

Donnie B. Perin vs. Fred E. Perrin. Complaint filed. Suit for divorce. Sibley & Eakin attorneys for plaintiff.

In re estate of Samuel F. Ingelhorn, deceased. Petition to sell real property. Citation issued. Order setting time of hearing.

In re estate and guardianship of George Peterson, a minor. Order to show cause and order of sale of real estate filed.

Marriage License.

Clyde F. Brookman, an engineer of Philomath, age 23, to Mary E. Teter, of Hoskins, age 17.

Wallace D. Irvine, laborer of Summerville, Or., age 21, to Marie Irene White of Independence, age 18.

In re guardianship of Pearl Eveline Murray, a minor. Petition for order of sale of real estate. Order to show cause. Oscar Hayter, attorney.

In re estate of Moses Manston, deceased. Vouchers of expenditures filed. Oscar Hayter, attorney.

In re estate of Leona R. Lady, deceased. Inventory and appraisal filed. Oscar Hayter, attorney.

In re guardianship of Lester A. Guthrie et al, minors. Inventory and appraisal filed. Oscar Hayter, attorney.

In re guardianship estate of Mildred Grable, minor. Petition for letters filed. Bond filed and approved. Order appoint Hort C. Eakin guardian. Letters of guardianship issued. Joseph E. Sibley, attorney.

In re estate of Francis L. Talkington, deceased. Petition for order of continuance filed. Order for continuance. Swope & Swope, attorneys.

In re estate of David M. Metzger, deceased. Petition for appointment of

Woodburn Nine Defeats Waconda

Woodburn, Or., July 7.—Waconda met defeat Sunday at the city park grounds. Woodburn defeating them 5 to 2. It was a dandy game until the 7th inning, when the visiting pitcher wakened and Woodburn got four in the 7th and two in the 8th. The victors put up one of the nicest games of the season on Woodburn's diamond.

R. H. E.
Waconda 2 9 5
Woodburn 5 8 12

Big Transport Still Aground

Seattle, Wash., July 7.—The United States army transport South Bend, bound from San Francisco to Seward, Alaska, with men and supplies for the Alaska engineering commission, and which grounded off the mouth of Elwha river near Port Angeles Tuesday morning while trying to make Port Angeles harbor, was still fast on a sand bar early today, according to word received at the office of the army depot quartermaster. Weather conditions were reported favorable.

Food For A July Morning

—and every morning when the thought of health enters into the meal time preparation—

Grape-Nuts

This easily digested food needs no sugar, yet it has a most pleasing sweet flavor, and is full of the sound goodness of wheat and malted barley.

"There's a Reason"

Abe Martin

DRUGS COSMETICS

WINKLEY CLUB
SINGER POP
LILLY ONE-STEP
LENAWADE
ESSENTIAL
HAIR REMOVERS

Our girls are doing better everthing in their lives, but stain their eye make. Life had has taught his wife to drive, so the last is broken.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN

Ladd & Bush Optical Building
Cor. State and Commercial Sts.
Salem, Ore.