foreign countries. The department of state is receiving notices from numerous American consuls, that articles of mail posted in the United States reaches foreign countries correspondingly insufficiently prepaid, in accordance with the requirements of the regulations of the Universal postal convention, double the deficiency in postage is collected from the addressee in cases of this kind. This causes unfavorable comment prejudicial to American business interests, and the public is asked to exercise more care in the matter.

Winning Guess Comes Within 6 of Population

The winner of the $25 offered by Charles W. Niemeyer, Salem real estate broker, to the person who estimated nearest to the population of Salem in the latest census is Miss Mary Lebold, 1517 Chemeketa street, S.W. Her guess was 17,685. The official total being 17,679. Miss Lebold estimating within only six.

The next nearest estimate was that of H. H. Jewett, 1205 N. 16th street, with 17,689 or ten too many. Miss Leoni Delaplain, 969 S. 13th street, guessed 17,694 or 15 too many. Other near estimates were those of Mrs. H. E. Armstrong, 2444 Hazel avenue, with 17,583; Chas. A. Kibbe, 695 S. Commercial street, with 17,580; Mrs. T. G. Cappingler, R. F. D. 3, Salem, with 17,345; Mrs. J. A. Rise, 960 Center street, and Mrs. Clara Minard, R. F. D. 3, each guessed 17,777, and Miss Lillie Feller, 434 S. Cottage street, estimated 17,791.

But the hardest luck was in the guess of Miss A. M. Luthy, 1497 S. 25th street. She had the correct figures, only they were not in the right order. Miss Luthy estimated 17,976, it was 17,679, actually.

A striking feature of the estimates were the optimistic figures given. Out of more than 3000 guests submitted, fully 99 per cent were over 18,000. One real optimist, Mrs. E. J. Marshall, 1600 Wilbur street, believed Salem to be a city of 37,467. On the other hand, one gloomy old man could do no better than make a bid at 14,444. No less than 22 persons sent in the figures 13,999.

If Miss Lebold will call at Mr. Niemeyer's office in the Masonic Temple, she will receive a check for the $25.

Million Dollars Pledged to Back Wood Says Loeb

Chicago, July 7.—One million dollars with which to further the campaign of Major General Leonard Wood for the republican nomination for president was underwritten by a group of New York men a year ago, William Loeb, eastern treasurer for Wood, told the senate investigating committee.

Mr. Loeb, formerly private secretary to Theodore Roosevelt, said he was called into conference with Geo. A. Whalen, Rufus Patterson, Colonel Ambrose Monell, Zoth Freeman and others to give his opinion as to what Wood's campaign would cost.

"I estimated the expense at $1,000,000," he told the committee.

"Colonel Monell underwrote $250,000; Mr. Whalen $250,000; William Cooper Proctor $250,000 and I agreed to get the rest."

Loeb presented checks showing the amounts he received. Senator Reed questioned him concerning an item of "five cashiers checks, $250,000."

Loeb said he mailed such checks under orders from former Postmaster General Hitchcock. One check went to Florida, one to Georgia, one to a Colonel Smith, one to a national committee in the District of Columbia and one to Maryland. They were for $5000 each, he said.

These checks were put in envelopes with letters and mailed, the witness said.

When Senator Reed asked if this was not an unusual way to send money, Loeb replied: "Not in politics."

Housewives Bill On Profiteering Filed Too Late

Under the impression that filing time for initiative petitions for measures to be submitted to the voters at the November election did not close until August 9, a copy of a proposed measure aimed at profiteering was received by the secretary of state's office, Tuesday, from the Housewives' Council of Portland. The measure proposes a law "to define, prohibit and declare illegal profiteering and creating or attempting to create any such trust or monopoly and to provide for the suppression of the same and to promote free competition in the state of Oregon." Draconic penalties for profiteering are included in the bill. The proposed measure including a fine of from $250 to $5000 or a sentence to the county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than one year, or both, for the first offense. For the second offense the penalty would be fixed at from one to five years in the penitentiary, with a fine of not to exceed $10,000. In the case of corporations the penalty for violations is fixed at a fine of from $5000 to $15,000.

Secretary of State Kozer has informed Mrs. F. J. Kane, secretary of the council, that the petition is too late for a place on the ballot for the forthcoming election.

Muriel Grant and Jack Pousler Are Married Sunday

Dallas, Or., July 7.—One of the surprises in the matrimonial field of Dallas came to night Monday when Dallas people learned of the marriage of Muriel Olivia Grant to Jack C. Pousler.

Miss Grant is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen O. Grant of this city. She received her early education in the Dallas public school and graduated from the Dallas high in 1916 after which she entered the newspaper work.

After several years of successful work on the Polk County Observer she accepted the position as society editor on the Statesman at Salem, but returned to Dallas a year ago and took up her work on the Observer.

Mr. Pousler was formerly of Long Beach, Cal., but took up the work as field salesman for the Shattuck Motor company here about eight months ago. The young couple left Dallas July 3rd and joined Mr. and Mrs. Victor Page of Portland with whom they intended celebrating their wedding.

The party visited Forest Grove and many beach towns but late Sunday they returned to Portland and slipped away from the party of friends and proceeded to Vancouver, where they were united in marriage at 6:40 p. m. by Rev. C. C. Curtis, formerly pastor of Dallas Christian church.

No one knew of the romantic termination of the outing until the couple disclosed the facts later in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pousler returned to Dallas yesterday and will make this their home.

Mr. Pousler will continue her work on the Observer.

73 Gets Jobs At City Hall; Flax Pullers Needed

With 73 men placed in positions, last week was the biggest in the history of the employment bureau conducted free by Police Judge Earl Race in the city hall.

Forty-six cherry pickers, 24 farm workers, one dairyman, one painter and one man-of-all-work secured jobs through the bureau.

Ten flax pullers are needed Monday, Judge Race said, and it is very necessary that the work be done.

"If I can't find anybody else to do the work, I'm going to make a call for business men," Judge Race declared.

German Rural Folk Reductant to Give Up Their Firearms

Berlin.—There is a reluctance on the part of some German farmers to surrender their firearms, due to "the legitimate desire to protect their homes against marauders," Minister of Agriculture Braun said to a Tageblatt representative. He added, however, a number of farmers have been "storing arms deliberately for subversive purposes," but he said these were not as numerous as generally believed.

"If the people will only keep their heads," Herr Braun said, "I do not believe there will be any organized outbreak on the near future. The rural situation as this time inspires confidence."

Cox Unable To Accept Request To Attend Meet

St. Louis, Mo., July 7.—Governor James M. Cox has been invited to speak from the same platform with Senator Warren G. Harding with July 25 at the dedicatory ceremonies of a war heroes memorial cemetery. The invitation was telegraphed to Governor Cox today by the local branch of the American Legion, and emphasized the affair would be non-political.

Dayton, Ohio, July 7.—Governor Cox today wired the St. Louis branch American Legion, that it would be impossible, because of pressing business at home, for him to accept the invitation to speak with Senator Harding at the dedicatory ceremonies July 25. Oregon School System Praised

The Oregon state department of education is highly praised by the New York department in a letter received by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, Saturday, from William McAndrew, assistant superintendent of the New York department, commenting on copies of the Oregon course of study in moral instruction recently loaned to that state by Oregon. "You people certainly do manage to keep ahead of the times in things educational," McAndrew declares.

At Tuesday night's meeting it was pointed out that many ex-service men are missing many advantages through their failure to attend meetings of the post.

Plans relative to the construction of a soldier's memorial were discussed and it is hoped that something material in the campaign for funds can be done in the near future.

Amos Pinchot Well Pleased With Results

Chicago, July 7.—Amos Pinchot of New York, a member of committee of 48 which meets here Saturday in a national convention issued the following statement today:

"The democratic platform like the republican convention was highly satisfactory to the men and women of America who want a new party. We could have hoped for nothing more evasive or less calculated to meet the needs of the public either in the matter of the platform or the candidate.

"The democratic platform is a decidedly eloquent document that is full of sound and means nothing at all. So is the republican platform. It has no constructive policy or program. It is the expression of a few politicians who if they had ideas, dared not express them by expressing them. It goes on the theory that the public's appetite for buncombe was not fully satisfied by the republican performance and so it offers another full meal.

"As to Mr. Cox, like Mr. Harding, he was chosen because he is a mediocre man whom the financial world can trust, because he has a record of political conformity and friendly relations with the same gentleman, who, were entering the mine, according to reports reaching here. Those firing at the Blackstone hotel in Chicago selected Mr. Harding to head the republican forces."
