

Heppner Man To Succeed Bean As U. O. Regent

C. E. Woodson of Heppner has been appointed to succeed Judge Robert S. Bean of Portland, resigned, as a member of the board of regents of the University of Oregon, according to announcement by Governor O'Connell, Wednesday, Judge Bean, who has been president of the board of regents, has been compelled to resign because of the demand upon his time of his official duties. Woodson is a prominent attorney of Heppner, a graduate of the University of Oregon and formerly a member of the university faculty. He was a member of the last state legislature and is the republican nominee to succeed himself. He is the second member of the present board from eastern Oregon.

Elks Will Have No Profiteering At Meeting Here

Positive assurance that there will be no profiteering by landlords or merchants during the Elks' convention to be held here July 22-24, was given today by the executive committee in charge.

us together with the price which is to be charged for accommodations," the chairman of the committee stated, "and anybody overcharging for anything will be accountable to Elks." More than 2000 rooms have already been secured by the housing committee. Accommodations will be provided for all visitors.

Arrangements have been completed for Billy Sunday to speak at the Albany chautauqua July 18.
