Moscow,—Turkey has turned to here. Best prime beef sells Soviet Russia "as the sole nation 1-2 cents and rice for 1 1-2 asserted in theory at the close of the great war," said Djemal Pasha, member of the Young Turkish party. to the correspondent of The Associat ed Press. Djemal, formerly Turkish

Minister of Marine is on extradition We are facing a crisis which involves our national existence. It is a question of might against right, in which we have been forced to momentous decision by the Entents powers, as we were in 1914", Djemal said.

"After the conclusion of the armistice the Young Turkish party was discretited through British Intrigues and forced to turn over the government to Izzet Pasha. begun for the dismemberment Turkey.

"Our hopes of saving Turkey, with the exception of the loss of Arabia, vanished as plans of the British and French imperialists became clear and the Versailles treaty utterly reputlated the principles asserted President Wilson's 14 points. A tolian Turks saw the inevitable outcome, and the consequence was the revolt led by Mustapha Kemal, ending in theestablishment of the provisional government of Angora, sup-
