Overseas Veteran and French Girl Married Sunday

Independence, July 26.—Cyril Richardson, who was formerly a member of company L and was one of the first boys to enlist in the service, was married last Sunday to Mlle. Yvonne Brun, whom he met in France. Young Richardson was transferred to the 41st division, A. E. F., and was doing military police duty at Aix les Bains, France, when he met his bride. He could not talk French, she could not speak a word of English, but the heart language of both countries was the same and both understood it. About the time they met Cyril was ordered to advance thru Argonne forest after American artillery had opened a barrage with 5000 guns. It was during this fight that Richardson dodging across No Man's land with ammunition for an automatic gunner hidden in a shell hole, was himself hit by a machine gun bullet in the left forearm. Making his way back to the trench he had left the commanding officer dispatched another man with him to walk to the dressing station in the rear. When he arrived there his arm was dressed temporarily but he was told that, weak as he was, he would have to walk back to the next station, as the ambulances could not come that far front. Just at that time the Germans opened a bombardment, and for an hour he was forced to lie wounded in a dugout. The bombardment over, Richardson dragged himself back to the ambulance station, from where he was transported to an American hospital train and finally to the American base hospital Bordeaux. He was at Bordeaux when the armistice was signed. He was then sent to the Presidio near San Francisco until he was thoroughly well. His admiration for mademoiselle did not waver. She arrived in Portland last week and Sunday they were married at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson, Dr. J. R. N. Bell, grandfather of the groom, read the service in the presence of a few friends. The vows were exchanged under an arch of flowers and ferns, where the tri-colored flag of France and the Stars and Stripes of America blended with the other decorations. The couple will make their home in Corvallis where Mr. Richardson will continue his studies at O. A. C. He is a graduate of Independence high school, also of the Monmouth normal.

Work will begin on the high school gymnasium in the early fall. Bids for the construction of the building are being advertised now to be opened the first week in August. The members of the school board were in Salem this week conferring with an architect of that city.

Miss Vivian Whiteaker, daughter of Mrs. Nancy Whiteaker, was married Friday to Kenneth Honeyman of Portland. The Episcopal service was read at the home of a friend, Mrs. Good at 1141 Park street, and the news came as a complete surprise to the friends of both the participants. Mrs. Honeyman is descended from one of Oregon's early governors while Mr. Honeyman is well connected, being a member of a pioneer Portland family. After a wedding trip to Long Beach, Wash., and several Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Honeyman will be at home in Portland where he is connected with an automobile firm.

Dr. H. C. Dunsmore went to Portland today and in company with his daughter, Mrs. O. A. Macy, will pass his vacation at Belknap Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smiley and daughter, Ernestine, have gone to Nova Scotia to visit Mr. Smiley's mother.

The members of the Methodist Ladies aid gave a surprise birthday party last Thursday for Mrs. H. Ingram, Mrs. Chas. Smiley, Mrs. Chas. Kurze and Mrs. I. H. Ingemanson. The tables were decorated with varicolored sweet peas and Shasta daisies, and a delightful birthday repast was served to forty one guests. On Sunday the primary S. S. presented Mrs. Ingram with a beautifully bound Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson of Vancouver, B. C. were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were returning from a motor trip through California.

Mrs. Hobart Dickson has returned from a extended visit with Seattle relatives.

Last Monday night the K. P. lodge had a rousing good fraternal time. They exemplified degree work before several neighboring towns. A speaker from Oakland gave a most enthusiastic talk. This was followed by an elaborate banquet highly spiced with good fellowship.

Mrs. W. H. Craven entertained with a delightful porch party last Saturday afternoon for her guests, Misses Lelah and Pansy Robertson of Tulsa, Okla., and Mrs. C. H. Robertson and Miss Mabel Robertson of Salem.

Otto Miller of the City Market has purchased the Mitchell residence on G street. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will go to Portland to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradner have arrived from Seattle to make their home here. Mr. Bradner will take over the management of the creamery. The former superintendent, Martin Schott, and Mrs. Schott, who were here from Tacoma will leave soon.

Mrs. Otto Kropstad of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. Claggett this week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Hewett motored to Vancouver, Wash. Monday, returning Tuesday.

Mrs. C. F. Eddy and children are in Newport.

Salem - Dallas Road Partly Open

The paving on the Salem-Dallas road has been completed to the Independence road and the crew will begin work this week near Rickreall. Traffic to Independence and Dallas has been greatly improved by the completion of the paving to the Independence road.

Following the wrecking of their church, partly destroyed by fire, the Baptists of Bend are planning to erect a new fireproof structure to cost $35,000.

Today's Dallas News

Dallas, July 26.—The session of the Polk County Farmers' union Saturday with the Smithfield union was well attended, particularly for this busy season. All reports made showed that the different locals are growing, and that the union is in a prosperous condition.

Most of the session was devoted to making plans for the session of the state union in Dallas in December, from about the 9th to 11th, the exact date not having yet been set. It requires considerable work to arrange for such a convention and the farmers of Polk county are determined to put over the affair in good shape.

Poor telephone service has been discussed. One man stated that he became angry at the service being given him one day, and said some impolite things to the operator. The result has been that he is unable to get central over his instrument. A committee was appointed to interview the local management before formal complaint is made to the proper officials. The telephone situation was gone into thoroughly and it was agreed that something must be done to remedy a situation that is becoming intolerable to the farmers.

Independence Phone Rates Are Increased

Independence, Ore., July 26.—Subsequent to a conference held here several weeks ago between the Independence Telephone Co., now serving Independence and Monmouth, and the Public Service Commission, an increase in rates has finally been granted by the Commission. In this city the monthly rental of business phones has been increased 50 cents, and residence phones 25 to 50 cents, with the exception of two party lines, the rental of which has been reduced 25 cents. In Monmouth the business phones have been increased 25 cents and the residence phones will be under the old rate, with the exception of the old rate, with the exception of 75 ten party line, which is advanced 75 cents. There is an increase of 12 1/2 cents per month on rural lines. Reductions are made in extension phones in both towns. A 10 cent toll rate between Independence-Monmouth and Dallas-Falls City on a three-minute basis is also granted, and the company is also permitted to limit the free service between Independence and Monmouth to three minutes, with a charge of 10 cents for each additional minute, or fraction thereof.

Business men and private citizens objected to the increase asked for by the company on the ground of inadequate service, and under the order granting the increase in rates the company is required to improve the service. The new rate takes effect at once.

Revival Meetings To Open Tonight

The King-Allen-Moreland Co. of the International Home mission of Portland will begin a series of revival meetings at the corner of Liberty and Market streets, beginning Monday night July 26, at 8 p. m. Rev. Geo. King is the editor of The Gospel Live Line, one of the best Holiness papers published in the northwest; Dr. J. P. Allen is a converted infidel and lecturer, who helped Bob Ingersoll compile the 3000 contradictions of the Bible; Miss Leona Moreland, the 10 year old girl preacher, is a most remarkable child for her age; converted when but 6 years old, and claims to have a call to the missionary field in Japan. Her ability to preach the gospel at such a young age is indeed wonderful. Those who have heard her say that her intuition is far beyond the average theological student. Mrs. Moreland and Mrs. King are Christian workers and will lend assistance wherever, and whenever the occasion requires. One night a week will be set aside especially for Divine healing.

Long Tour Ends At Silverton

Silverton, July 26.—Rev. L. A. Roseland and family of Crookston, Minn., are visiting at the home of his father, Rev. J. C. Roseland, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church in this city, having arrived Saturday evening. Rev. Roseland, Jr., drove all the way from Crookston to California and stops here for a few days en route home. He tells of a startling experience encountered near Wallace, Idaho, when the car went over an embankment, falling several feet. None of the occupants of the car was hurt seriously injured, however, and the machine was not damaged beyond repair. After some little delay the journey was continued.
