Rescue From Reactions of War Is Need

Northampton, Mass., July 27.—Rescue from the reactions of war was described as the transcendent need of the nation in an address which Governor Coolidge delivered here today in acceptance of the republi can nomination for vice-president. "The chief task that lies before us," he said, "is to repossess the people of their government and their property."

Law Observance Urged. "The observance of the law," he said, "is the greatest solvent of public ills."

Scene of the notification was given by the reprobation ground of Allen Field, a natural amphitheater. A platform large enough to accommodate the speakers and a few distinguished guests was erected at one end of the field and on the grassy slope before it the great assemblage stood.

Says Suffrage to Win. The nominee said equal suffrage is coming, that relief from distress is at hand and that the best way to secure the right of suffrage is the recognition of the rights of negroes.

Morrow Makes Notification. This nomination is tendered you as the spontaneous wish of your party," said Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky, principal speaker at the ceremonies attending the nomination here today by Governor Calvin Coolidge of his nomination as vice-president of the republican part for candidate.

Administration Scored. "You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Governor Morrow continued. "At home grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have too long in the past, and now continue, press for and demand solution and upon their proper solution depends our prosperity, security, commercial and financial welfare of our people."
