Chicago, July 30.—Houses with southwestern connections were sellers of wheat today, and the market dropped rapidly. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1 1/4 to 6 1/4 lower with December $2.29 1/4 to $2.32 and March $2.30 to $2.31 were followed by moderate rallies from initial bottom figures. Rain in Iowa led to transient declines in the corn market. Complaints of lack of moisture continued from other sections. After opening unchanged to half higher, September $1.40 3/4 to $1.41 3/8 and December $1.25 3/4 to $1.26, values underwent a material setback but then rallied to about yesterday's finish. Oats took their cue mainly from the action of corn. The market opened 1/2 off, September 69 1/2 to 69 5/8 and later recovered.
