

Fortune Left to John Pugh by First Cousin

Aurora, Or., Aug. 18.—John Pugh of Fargo has received the news that the circuit court of Indianapolis has decreed him one of 26 first cousins who will share in the estate of Marshall Pugh of that city. Attorneys of Indianapolis write that the estate is valued at more than $300,000. But as the bulk of the estate is in land it is believed that if properly handled that the property might reach above the half million mark.

The relatives of Mr. Pugh lost track of him years ago and supposed him dead. But he has been a well known citizen of the Aurora district for a number of years, where he is highly respected. The news that he will inherit a neat sum from this big estate does not enthrall him in the least, as he is a hard worker, though 70 years of age, and the simple joys of life interest him more than riches.

The following from the Indianapolis News explains the situation and the progress toward the settlement of the big estate: "With it whereabouts unknown to his family for 45 years, John Pugh of Aurora, Oregon, has appeared to claim his share of the estate of Marshall Pugh, wealthy Indianapolis land owner, who died last year. The appearance of Pugh, whom his family believed dead, made necessary the changing of a court decree made by Judge Louis E. Ewbank in the city court last week, naming the 25 first cousins of Marshall Pugh who shall share in the estate he left, and attorney today included the Oregon man's name in the court order. The share of each heir will be more than $25,000."

Upon being shown the above clipping from the Indianapolis News, Mr. Pugh admitted that he had been advised of the facts in the case for several weeks, and that the above is a practically correct statement. He has been in communication with Indiana attorneys, and there seems to be no doubt that the 26 first cousins who have their part of the estate which estimated all the way from $300,000 to $50,000.

Mr. Pugh learned of the death of his cousin through an advertisement. He is expecting to go to Indiana this fall or next spring. He is being represented in the matter by Senator McNary's firm, McNary & McNary.

Stayton

Stayton, Or., Aug. 18.—Gardner & Bennett, owner of the Stayton Water Power company, are doing considerable repair work on the ditch that carries water to the numerous wheels in Stayton. They are putting in new spillways, dredging the ditch and removing stumps and rubbish that has accumulated in past years. They will, when the work is completed, be able to furnish a larger head of water than heretofore.

E. C. Lau has his concrete mixing machine at work at Mehamah, where he is putting in the piers for the new bridge across the Santiam. One of the piers is already completed.

Quite a number of Staytonites motored to Cascade Saturday night and Sunday for a brief outing.

Kenneth Thomas has been using crutches the past few days. Saturday while working at the Brown-Petzel mill he had the misfortune to have one of his feet jammed by a heavy timber.

William Ortman and family were here from Aurora on Sunday visiting friends in and about town. Billy is still employed on the Aurora Observer, where he has been for the past five years.

Ed Blakely and baby of Cottage Grove are visiting at the Frank Blakeby home.

Mrs. Vivill Massey is visiting with relatives at Amity.

Harvesting hereabouts is about completed and many have finished threshing. The yield is reported good in all kinds of grain.

J. O. Byrd, an employe in the woolen mills, is suffering from a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman are the parents of a new daughter, which arrived the 16th.

Edward J. Bell, after an outing at Gearhart, is again at work in the Farmers & Merchants bank.

George H. Bell and family have gone for a visit with relatives in Golden Dale, Wash., making the trip in their auto.

Mrs. H. J. Rowe is home from a visit with relatives in Alger, Wash. Misses Wanda and Wava Brown are visiting at Newport.

Paving Plant at Rickreall to be Shut Down

Rickreall, Aug. 18.—The Oskar Huber Co. having the contract to pave the post road between Salem and Dallas by way of Rickreall, is engaged at present moving the plant from its former location near the little town of Eola to Rickreall. When this is completed, about the 24th of this month, the company, it is said, will lay off the crew of men indefinitely and abandon work on the road until the highway controversy has been definitely settled. Mr. Huber expected to have the road completed to Dallas this fall, but owing to the delay it will not be possible now, and there is no telling just when it will be completed. People in this vicinity are very much disappointed over the matter. The roads are very low to Dallas and as far east as Brunk's corner, where the paving ended.

Lester Cook, who has been stopping in Salem some little time, spent a day at home the latter part of the preceding week before going to Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Frank Laws and daughter are spending a few days at the coast.

Mrs. Helen Johnson of Jefferson, who had been engaged to teach in this district during the ensuing school year, has resigned her position. She offered no excuse for tendering her resignation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hill gave a party a few days ago in honor of the seventh anniversary of their daughter's birth. It was a big time for the little ones.

The season of harvest and threshing is drawing to a close, and the farmers in this vicinity are all highly pleased with the results. Grain has shown an exceptionally large yield.

Silverton Girl Dies Suddenly in California

Silverton, Aug. 18.—One day subsequent to the receipt of a letter from her sister, Miss Williams, stating that she was enjoying a visit in California, Mrs. L. H. Myers received a telegram, yesterday, announcing her death. Miss Williams went to California a few days ago accompanied by the Misses Lindquest of Silverton. She was in perfect health at the time of her departure from her home at Donald. The telegram did not state the cause of her death. The body will arrive in Donald today and while definite arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral, it is expected that it will take place at the home Thursday. Miss Williams was well known in Silverton, having spent some time here at the home of Mrs. Myers.

Youth Killed By Hunting Companion

Milton, Or., Aug. 18.—Melvin Olinger, aged 14, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper E. Olinger, who was shot and killed Saturday by a companion, was the victim of an accident, it was learned today.

Mr. Olinger and some boys including his four sons, went to the mountains for an outing the evening before. In the morning while the father was preparing breakfast at the camp the boys went out to shoot squirrels.

While Melvin was aiming at a squirrel in the tree top, his chum, Manfred Brittain, was near by loading a rifle. In raising the gun it was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck Melvin in the left side as his arm was upraised. When his father reached his side he was dead.

Ground Broken For Big Woman's Dormitory O. A. C.

Corvallis, Ore.—Ground for the first unit of the great women's dormitory at O. A. C. has been broken. The college itself being the contractor. The board of regents sought to let the contract, but all bids submitted were so high that acceptance would have meant inability to construct other campus buildings sorely needed and already planned. So the board assumed the added work and responsibility of construction in order to save the state many thousands of dollars, and supply the buildings required to house and instruct the big army of young people now planning to attend.

With the completion of the new engineering building at O. A. C. the classroom and laboratory space for engineering work will be doubled. The building will be ready for installing equipment the latter part of August, and ready for college opening this fall. The faculty has been increased 25 per cent, and much new equipment added. Thus the school redeems its promise of adequate facilities for all Oregon young men that seek engineering education.

Seventeen Workmen Killed In Accident

Seventeen workmen met accidental death in Oregon industries during July, according to the monthly report of the industrial accident commission just issued. The report shows a total of 1791 accidents during the month. Total liabilities and surplus in the compensation fund are shown as $4,592,885.11 with unassigned surplus of $79,330.74.

Postal Rulings Are Disregarded

Attention has been called to the rulings of the postoffice department regarding the general delivery service. According to the ruling general delivery is only intended for transient mail and patrons not permanently located, not to be used by persons for whom it is possible to receive mail otherwise. Persons permanently settled and who are using general delivery service, may be requested to get their mail elsewhere.

A ruling is also in effect regulating mail service received through general delivery, under an assumed name. According to postoffice ruling number 114 mail addressed to an assumed name of a person or firm or to no particular person, need not be delivered unless to some postoffice box, street number or in care of some persons. Such ruling are forgotten from time to time by patrons of the local postoffice.

Escaping Girl Severely Injured When Rope Breaks

Rosella Miller, committed to the state girls industrial school from Multnomah county a year ago, is in a hospital here recovering from injuries received in attempting to escape from the institution Sunday night. Frying the wire netting off her window on the third floor of the school the Miller girl is said to have started her descent by means of a rope improvised out of her bed clothes when the rope gave way letting her fall 40 feet to the ground. A broken leg and severe bruises about the face resulted from the fall and it is feared that she may also be internally injured.

The city of Bend has contracted for 34 blocks of street paving at an estimated cost of $90,000.

When they leased their garage to Sam Larson.

LAXATIVE for Aged People
THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
