Prunes Here To Bring Growers Near 2 Million

Approximately 16,000,000 pounds prunes which, at ten cents a buyers-will bring growers in e vicinity of Salem $1,600,000 Salem. Il be dried here this fall promint local brokers opined this orning. At 16 cents, the average paid last year, the prones be wor'h in the neighborod of $2,560,000.

Th crop near Salem, buyers said, Il be far superior in quantity id quality this year than it has sen for many seasons. In the orthwest, 50,00000 pounds of unes will be handled, it is be-

Local handlers hesitate in specuting concerning the market, hich has not yet opened, but they gree that it will be comparatively eak this year. Jobbers, who re-ived a hard wallop while sparing in the sugar market, are not articularly interested in buying,

Prune pickers in this vicinity will adoubtedly receive less money per ushel this year than last, buyers greed. This, they say, is natural this season's crop is far superior ad will be much more easily hand-id, than was that of last year. Vhile pickers of last year were aid about 12 cents a bushel, they till receive about ten cents this

Grand Jury Is Scheduled to Adjourn Soon

considered, the Marion county and jury will convene Tuesday. eptember 14 at, 1030 p. m. This as announced Tuesday by District ttorney James C Heltzel

The case of the State against B. Davies is one of the important ises scheduled for investigation y the jurymen. Davies, who ap-eared in Department No. 1, while acing a civil action, created a fur-re recently by swallowing a scrap f paper bearing a signature alleg-d to have been forged by him

Aftre strenuous efforts by the heriff and the county physician, avies disgorged the incriminating vidence which will constitute a ortion of the evidence to be rought against him. Davies will ace forgery charges in connection with a note for $1500 which he lalmed was made out to him by als wife, but which is declared to ave been a forgery.

The second case for consideration by the jurymen is the action f the State of Oregon against Lloyd arker, who is held in the Marion ounty fall under charges of lar-eny from a building. With Alert Asher Parker is alleged to lleged to have stolen a trunk from the Baker hotel at Turner. Asher is being held in the Mulnomah county jall at Portland, facing other charges from that county Several secret indictments are also pending. Prosecutor Heltzel announces that individuals who have been bound over to the grand jury and who have furnished ball will not be included in Tuesday's Members of the

Nervous Breakdown

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly"—"My nerves are all on edge"—"I wish I were dead." How often have we heard these expressions or others quite as extravagant from some loved one who has been brought to this state by some female trouble which has slowly developed until the nerves can no longer stand up under it. No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition without giving that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

Read the Letters of These Two Women.

North East, Md .- "I was in ill health four or five years and doctored with one doctor after another but none helped me. I was irregular and had such terrible pain in my back, lower part of my body and down each side that I had to go to bed three or four days every month. I was very nervous, tired, could not sleep and could not eat without getting sick. A friend asked me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-Compound and I am sorry I did not take it sooner for it has helped me wonderfully. I don't have to go to bed with the pain, can eat without being sick and have more strength. I recommend your medicine and you are at liberty to publish my testimonial."— ELIZABETH WEAVER, R. R. 2, North

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was run down and nervous, could not restat night and was more tired in the morning than when I went to bed. I have two children, the youngest three mouths old and it was drudgery to care for them as I felt so irritable and generally worn out. From lack of rest and appetite my bely did not get enough nourishmy baby did not get enough nourishment from my milk so I started to give him two bottle feedings a day. After taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman, full of life and energy. It is a pleasure to care for my children, and I am year harmy with them and and I am very happy with them and feel fine. I nurse my baby exclusively again, and can't say too much for your medicine."—Mrs. A. L. Miller, 2633 E. 24th St., Minneapolis, Minn.
