Native of Polk County Passes; Ill for Months

Dallas, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Nora Jones Brown passed away Wednesday at the Dallas hospital after an illness of five weeks. She was the wife of Jay J. Brown of Salt Creek. She was born April 12, 1891, at the old home place near Euclid, and since that time has lived in and near Dallas. She was married in September 1912, to Jay Brown, and the union two children were born. The funeral services were held at the Harmony church and cemetery, by Rev. James of Sheridan. The floral offerings were beautiful.

J. W. Robinson, living at Park-wood, south of Independence, brought to the office of Rich Reimann, a real estate man, a fine sample of estate weighing one pound and seven ounces, and fine samples of corn standing eleven feet high.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles P. Johnson of the Methodist church were tendered a farewell reception last evening by the members of the congregation.

The church was attractively decorated with autumn leaves, with bouquets and vases of asters placed about the room. A splendidly arranged program was given during the evening and responses were made by both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. F. H. Morrison gave a talk expressing the regret that the congregation felt in the loss of the Johnsons. D. A. McKenzie of the Presbyterian church gave a pleasing talk and said that they would not only be missed by the people of the church but by the town people as well.

After the program a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Jos. Shaw and Mrs. Randall Buell were chairmen of the refreshment committee.

Rev. Johnson returned a few days ago from Olympia, Wash., where he attended the Washington state conference of the Methodist church. He goes to Tacoma to become corresponding secretary of the Methodist college at that point.

Woodburn Boy Marries Red Cross Worker

Woodburn, Sept. 17.—Word was received here a few days ago from Baltimore, Md., announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret P. Wood of Baltimore, to C. W. Oathout, a farmer living a few miles east of here.

The wedding culminates a romance which had its beginning at Camp Holabird, Md., during the war. Mrs. Oathout was a Red Cross worker at the centers of the camp and Mr. Oathout was an enlisted man in the motor transport corps. The bride and groom are expected to arrive here soon and will make their home on his farm a few miles east of Woodburn.

Catarrh Quickly Ended by a Pleasant Germ-Killing Antiseptic

The little Hyomel Inhaler is made of hard rubber and can easily be carried in pocket or purse. It will last a lifetime.

Into this inhaler pour a few drops of magical Hyomel.

This is absorbed by the antiseptic gauze within and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ-infested membrane where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarrh germs. Hyomel is made of Australian eucalyptus combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to end catarrh, sinusitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds or money back. It cleans out a stuffed-up head in two minutes.
