Monster Bear Attracts Big Game Hunters

Jasper Peak, Alta., Oct. 19.—"Old Crisp" woke in his lair in the Mount Robson country this summer and found himself famous. He is declared to be the biggest grizzly ever seen in those mountains.

Where he came from is a mystery. He made his bow to society when he rose on his hind legs behind a patch of briars and quietly surveyed at a distance of ten feet a party of berry pickers, including two women from Tete Jaune, on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

The party returned to town hurriedly, leaving their packs and traps to the bear. Since then he has been seen a number of times by miners and prospectors. He limps in his off fore foot. His injury, which is perhaps a souvenir with a hunter, has given him the name of "Old Crisp."

Dr. Frank Roming, J. Paul Thompson and Morris Ackerman, of Cleveland, and Dr. Clarence F. Hardy of Milwaukee, have arrived here on a hunting expedition. When they learned of the monster bear they prepared to invade the wilderness domain and swore they would bring back the hide of the Mount Robson monarch among their trophies. Mr. Ackerman is a noted big game sportsman.

They have taken the trail with 25 pack horses and three mountain guides, headed by J. A. Phillips, of Jasper. They will spend forty days in pursuit of bear, moun- tain goat, deer and mountain sheep the big game, it is said has not been so plentiful in the Fraser river country for years.

Goltra Admits Paying Money To Delegates

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 19. (Lead)—Edward F. Goltra, democratic national committeeman from Missouri, and backer of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer in the pre-convention campaign, gave $4,198 toward payment of expenses of delegates attending the state convention at Joplin, Mo. That was the outstanding point in the morning's testimony before the senate committee investigating expenditures, which resumed its session here today.

Mr. Goltra told the committee men he gave twenty eight democratic committeemen in the city of St. Louis $150 each. Of the $4,200, he explained, $4,198 came out of his own pocket. Two democratic friends were each asked to give $1. Mr. Goltra asserted, so he could tell the committee men the fund was "contributed by delegates." He did not want them to feel under obligation to him, he said.

Relief Work in Central Europe To Be Continued

Berlin, Oct. 19.—American relief administration will concentrate their principal efforts during the coming winter in Germany, Austria and Hungary, while it is being continued on a very reduced scale in the Czechoslovakia. Conditions in these countries are reported to have sufficiently improved to justify the withdrawal of assistance.

The plans for relief in Austria call for feeding 300,000 children a day in American relief kitchens. The needy children will also be supplied with necessary under-clothing, shoes and stockings. The estimate for Poland contemplated the daily feeding of 500,000 children. Due to the devastation by the recent fighting it is now estimated that the number of children who will absolutely require feeding will more than nearly approach one million.

Long Waists and Bare Backs Mark Winter Fashions

London, Oct. 19.—Long waists, bare backs and vivid color notes are the features of the Winter fashions.

Vermillion, jade green, indian red, the most brilliant hue, tangerines and flame-colored frocks were conspicuous at the dress display held by the Maison Rose at their showrooms.

Skirts, judging from this display, are shorter and tighter than ever, and even where floating drapery gives a wider effect, there is a narrow "hobble" skirt beneath.

Most of the evening frocks had a sheath-like effect, ending in a fish-tail train.

Other dress frocks stood out above the knee like that of a ballet dancer.

Nearly all the frocks have an Eastern effect, both in gorgeousness and color.

The long waist line was much

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 19.—"Any dance, barring only the shimmy shake, is all right if you assume the correct position for dancing it," says Mrs. Evelyn Scatterday, city dance hall inspector, who rules that dances should be things of delight.

Handsome Hubby Is Forgiven for Thirteenth Time

Chicago, Oct. 19.—John and Frances Ebron recently decided to forgive and forget and begin their married life all over again.

Many estranged couples have one through the experience, but a loss tally of the marital adventures of John and Frances discloses that this is the thirteenth reconciliation.

But John and Frances are optimistic.

"We understand each other now," said Mr. Ebron. "You see, all our troubles came because John is so handsome—and so irritable. It annoyed him when I found out about other women."

Ebron is on probation for a year with a bond imposed by Judge rule, of Chicago's court of domestic relations, to insure a check for his handsome appearance.

"I smiled—and he shot me"

AFTER MONTHS and months, MY WIFE persuaded me, TO HAVE it done, SO I went around, TO THE photographer, AND GOT mugged, WHEN THE pictures came, I SHOWED them to a gang, OF AMATEUR art critics, AND PROFESSIONAL crabs, DISGUISED AS friends, WHO FAVORED me, WITH SUCH remarks as, "DOESN'T HE look natural?" "HAS IT got a tail?" "A GREAT resemblance," AND THAT last one, MADE ME sore, SO WHEN friend wife, ADDED HER howl, I TRIED again, THIS TIME they were great, FOR HERE'S what happened, THE PHOTOGRAPHER said, "LOOK THIS way, please," AND HELD up something, AS HE pushed the button, AND NO one could help, BUT LOOK pleasant, FOR WHAT he held up, WAS A nice full pack, OF THE cigarettes, THAT SATISFY.

Mexico City, Mexico, Oct. 19.—Mexico's reforms under the new regime are extending to the closing of the gambling houses at Tacubaya, in the outskirts of Mexico city and elsewhere.

Tacubaya has been a sort of "Monte Cristo" for years. The gambling houses have been much frequented by rich Mexicans and foreigners and tales of large sums lost at the tables are frequent.
