

City Briefs

CURRENT EVENTS
 Oct. 20—Commercial club open forum.
 Oct. 21—Football, Salem high vs. Silverton high, Salem.
 Nov. 11—Armistice day.
 Nov. 11—Football, Willamette U. vs. Pacific U.
 Oct. 23—Eugene clinic, Commercial club, Marion County Children's Bureau.
 Nov. 11—Armistice day.
 Nov. 11—Eighth annual Melody Minstrel, penitentiary.
 Nov. 11—Football, Salem high vs. McMinnville high, Salem.

Daily Statistics
Born
 PATTON—To Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Patton of Chemama, a daughter, October 21, 1920, to be named Shirley Elizabeth.
 SUMNER—To Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sumner, 1267 Marion street, a son, October 21, 1920, to be named Willis Jr.
 POUND—To Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound, at 245 South Winter street, a boy, October 21, 1920, to be named Robert Allen.

Died
 HARAGER—At Pueblo Col., Oliver Harager, at the age of 41 years. The remains have been received here by Rigdon and son. Interment will be made this afternoon in the City View cemetery following the funeral at the Rigdon chapel.
 Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

Dressmaking and dressmaking school 1193 S. Liberty. Phone 882.
 Mrs. N. L. Lee and Mrs. Nellie McFadden of Junction City are visiting in the city this week.
 Salmon for canning very cheap. Phone 111, Pitts Market.
 Dancing at Moose hall Thursday and Saturday nights, music by the "new Revelation" orchestra.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Westbrook of Albany have been visiting in Salem for a few days.
 Magazines at bargain prices. Send for our new subscription club rate catalogue. The Ace, 127 N. High.
 The soap and furniture day at Woodry's on Saturday see ad. 253.
 H. W. Libby, district state engineer for the Pacific highway commission who has been occupying office rooms at Eugene for some time past, will make his headquarters in Salem hereafter, having closed his office in that city yesterday.

The M. W. of A. Foresters team is ordered to report at our hall Thursday evening, October 21, 1920 at 8 o'clock sharp. By order of Chief Forester.
 Dancing at Moose hall Thursday and Saturday nights, music by the "new Revelation" orchestra.
 G. F. Hurd made a business trip to Eugene yesterday.
 Dancing at Moose hall Thursday and Saturday nights, music by the "new Revelation" orchestra.

Mrs. L. G. Curtis is giving a great reduction on all winter millinery. Come and make your selection early.
 John Goltra has been visiting his parents in Albany this week.
 F. A. Turner returned last evening from a business visit at Portland.
 Feet hurt? See Chas. E. Tatro, foot specialist, 404 Masonic bldg.

Alumni night was held by the Websterian literary society of Willamette university Wednesday night, with a number of former members present and taking an active part in the program. Those present were James Crawford, Roy Shields, Alpheus Gillette, Oliver Matthews and Lloyd Lee.
 Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 50 this evening. Work in the F. C. degree.
CARD OF THANKS
 We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown at the death of Mrs. W. A. Chute. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings.
 W. A. Chute, J. J. Stratton and wife, A. R. O'Reilly and wife, Vivian Stratton and wife.

"MERELY MARY ANN"
OREGON
 BRYANT WASHBURN
 IN
 "A FULL HOUSE"
 2:00-7:00-9:00 P. M.

Kelso, Grace Presley, features, Hugh Doney, James Bohle.
 Direct mail orders to Salem lyceum course to Leslie H. Springer, 372 State street.
 Classes at Willamette university Thursday afternoon were dismissed to allow the students to attend the funeral of President Talbot of Kimball school of Theology.

"Should the church take sides" was the problem discussed by the Willamette university Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night with Ed Socolofsky leader.
 Flowers and ferns from the Plant greenhouses will be sold on Friday and Saturday at Fletcher and Byrd's feed store, 233 North Commercial street.

Take advantage of the Capital Journal's bargain day rate for mail subscriptions at $4 per year. Subscribe now as price advances Nov. 1.
 An abandoned automobile which had been standing on Capitol street was taken to a local garage last night by Officer Lee Morelock.

Records show it to be the property of W. E. Stone of Eugene. Whether it was stolen or not, police do not at present know.
 A man who gave his name as James Marshall was arrested yesterday afternoon for begging on the streets.
 Men who gave their names as C. E. Ayers, C. Danielson, R. Rasmussen and Robert Garrett were taken to the police station last night by Officer Victor and given a night's lodging in the city jail.

Mrs. George H. Alden is attending as a delegate of the Oregon conference the national convention of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church at St. Paul, which opened Wednesday and will continue until October 27. Following this she has been invited to give addresses in a number of eastern cities, and will not return to Salem until late in November.
 Two Chinese boys, educated in the Canton Christian college, under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal church, are on their way to Salem to enter Willamette university, according to a letter recently received by Dean George H. Alden from David Cook, a former student, who is teaching in the Canton school. Nothing further has been heard of the boys, but they are expected soon.

A new resident of Salem is M. Digon of Seattle. Mr. Digon is establishing his home here and has purchased the grocery business formerly conducted by A. Ackley, at 305 South 25th street.
 According to reports filed at the county clerk's office the following named patients have been released from the Oregon state hospital: Herbert Brown, admitted July 7, 1920, discharged October 15, as recovered; Mrs. Charlotte M. Thomas, admitted September 4, 1920, discharged October 19 as fully recovered; Arthur Birchfield, admitted July 1, 1919, discharged October 19 to be taken to the Mendocino state hospital, Ukiah, Cal.
 Sheriff W. I. Needham has received notification from the Clark county authorities requesting aid in the search for G. R. Percival, mayor of the city of Vancouver, Wash. Mayor Percival disappeared Sunday afternoon, October 17, and it is feared that he has met with foul play, or that he is a victim of lost memory. He is described as being about 60 years of age, five feet nine inches in height and of about 160 pounds weight.

More musicians. That is the demand made by the Salem boys' orchestra, states that efforts will be made to increase the organization to at least thirty parts.
 Any boy in Salem who is over 12 years of age and able to play an instrument, is invited to be a member. Practice meets are at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday afternoons at 4:15.
 Those interested should see Lyman A. Pickett, boys work secretary; Claude Burch, orchestra secretary, or Mr. Delsart.

 An automobile driven by W. A. Wilcox and a Phe company truck piloted by O. W. Everett, collided this morning at the corner of Center and 18th streets, according to the report made to police by Mr. Wilcox.
 A fender on the Wilcox automobile was damaged, the report stated. Nobody was injured.

Injuries to four players are at present worrying Captain "Pete" Reinhart. Gosser is at present out of the running with a broken hand; Purvine is laid up with a fractured finger; Ringie is out of the game for the season with an injured knee and Baggot will play against Chemawa tomorrow with a cracked rib.
 "At that we'll show Chemawa a battle," Reinhart stated this morning. "I look for the game to be very close, but I think we can beat them."

Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Salem will likely start the game with the following line-up: Aldrich and Daley, ends; Ellis White and "Pete" Reinhart, tackles; Ralph White and Baggot, guards; Jones, center; Socolofsky and Adolph, halves; Ashby, fullback.

ALL NEW
Hippodrome
Vaudeville
TODAY
The Two Wrens
 Two Bits of Scotch and Irish
Walter Gilbert
 Flexible Comedian
GLORIA SWANSON
 In
Every Woman's Husband
BLIGH
THEATRE

Salem Gridders Meet Chemawa Here Tomorrow
 Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Soap Day at Woodry's
 270 N. Com'l St.
 Saturday, Oct. 23, 1:30 p. m.
 300 Cases 300 White Borax Naptha Soap
 Mfg. Cost $6.50 per case
 Only 1 case to a customer

COLDS
 of head or chest are more easily treated externally with
VICKS VAPORUB
 Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Anniversary Sale
 A FEW SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY
 2 pounds Sugar 20c
 22 Bars Elk Savon Soap $1.00
 45c pkg. Kerr's Wheat Flakes 35c
 10 pounds Fancy Rice 82c
 3 bars Palm Olive Soap 24c
 45c Can Pineapple 33c
 We Save You Money

Farmer's Cash Store
 C. BURTON DURDALL,
 3 Stores—Salem, Silverton, Independence

Meet Me at Miller's
Lower Prices at Miller's
Every Ladies' Suit Reduced
 Our entire stock of strictly High Quality Suits, have all been marked at "EXTRA SPECIAL," no reserve. Special Sales Racks with Coats and Dresses at prices that mean quick sales. Bear this in mind—We have no shoddy, or cheap merchandise—Miller's Quality is the highest standard.
 New Arrivals
 In every Department, every day, by express.
MILLER'S
 Good Goods.

Ye Liberty
 Sunday—
 Norma Talmadge

lock. Records show it to be the property of W. E. Stone of Eugene. Whether it was stolen or not, police do not at present know.
 A man who gave his name as James Marshall was arrested yesterday afternoon for begging on the streets.
 Men who gave their names as C. E. Ayers, C. Danielson, R. Rasmussen and Robert Garrett were taken to the police station last night by Officer Victor and given a night's lodging in the city jail.

Mrs. George H. Alden is attending as a delegate of the Oregon conference the national convention of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church at St. Paul, which opened Wednesday and will continue until October 27. Following this she has been invited to give addresses in a number of eastern cities, and will not return to Salem until late in November.
 Two Chinese boys, educated in the Canton Christian college, under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal church, are on their way to Salem to enter Willamette university, according to a letter recently received by Dean George H. Alden from David Cook, a former student, who is teaching in the Canton school. Nothing further has been heard of the boys, but they are expected soon.

A new resident of Salem is M. Digon of Seattle. Mr. Digon is establishing his home here and has purchased the grocery business formerly conducted by A. Ackley, at 305 South 25th street.
 According to reports filed at the county clerk's office the following named patients have been released from the Oregon state hospital: Herbert Brown, admitted July 7, 1920, discharged October 15, as recovered; Mrs. Charlotte M. Thomas, admitted September 4, 1920, discharged October 19 as fully recovered; Arthur Birchfield, admitted July 1, 1919, discharged October 19 to be taken to the Mendocino state hospital, Ukiah, Cal.
 Sheriff W. I. Needham has received notification from the Clark county authorities requesting aid in the search for G. R. Percival, mayor of the city of Vancouver, Wash. Mayor Percival disappeared Sunday afternoon, October 17, and it is feared that he has met with foul play, or that he is a victim of lost memory. He is described as being about 60 years of age, five feet nine inches in height and of about 160 pounds weight.

More musicians. That is the demand made by the Salem boys' orchestra, states that efforts will be made to increase the organization to at least thirty parts.
 Any boy in Salem who is over 12 years of age and able to play an instrument, is invited to be a member. Practice meets are at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday afternoons at 4:15.
 Those interested should see Lyman A. Pickett, boys work secretary; Claude Burch, orchestra secretary, or Mr. Delsart.

 An automobile driven by W. A. Wilcox and a Phe company truck piloted by O. W. Everett, collided this morning at the corner of Center and 18th streets, according to the report made to police by Mr. Wilcox.
 A fender on the Wilcox automobile was damaged, the report stated. Nobody was injured.

Injuries to four players are at present worrying Captain "Pete" Reinhart. Gosser is at present out of the running with a broken hand; Purvine is laid up with a fractured finger; Ringie is out of the game for the season with an injured knee and Baggot will play against Chemawa tomorrow with a cracked rib.
 "At that we'll show Chemawa a battle," Reinhart stated this morning. "I look for the game to be very close, but I think we can beat them."

Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Salem will likely start the game with the following line-up: Aldrich and Daley, ends; Ellis White and "Pete" Reinhart, tackles; Ralph White and Baggot, guards; Jones, center; Socolofsky and Adolph, halves; Ashby, fullback.

ALL NEW
Hippodrome
Vaudeville
TODAY
The Two Wrens
 Two Bits of Scotch and Irish
Walter Gilbert
 Flexible Comedian
GLORIA SWANSON
 In
Every Woman's Husband
BLIGH
THEATRE

Salem Gridders Meet Chemawa Here Tomorrow
 Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Soap Day at Woodry's
 270 N. Com'l St.
 Saturday, Oct. 23, 1:30 p. m.
 300 Cases 300 White Borax Naptha Soap
 Mfg. Cost $6.50 per case
 Only 1 case to a customer

COLDS
 of head or chest are more easily treated externally with
VICKS VAPORUB
 Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Anniversary Sale
 A FEW SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY
 2 pounds Sugar 20c
 22 Bars Elk Savon Soap $1.00
 45c pkg. Kerr's Wheat Flakes 35c
 10 pounds Fancy Rice 82c
 3 bars Palm Olive Soap 24c
 45c Can Pineapple 33c
 We Save You Money

Farmer's Cash Store
 C. BURTON DURDALL,
 3 Stores—Salem, Silverton, Independence

Meet Me at Miller's
Lower Prices at Miller's
Every Ladies' Suit Reduced
 Our entire stock of strictly High Quality Suits, have all been marked at "EXTRA SPECIAL," no reserve. Special Sales Racks with Coats and Dresses at prices that mean quick sales. Bear this in mind—We have no shoddy, or cheap merchandise—Miller's Quality is the highest standard.
 New Arrivals
 In every Department, every day, by express.
MILLER'S
 Good Goods.

Ye Liberty
 Sunday—
 Norma Talmadge

"MEN" Satisfaction
 is what YOU want. Come to US for that new suit or overcoat and you will get it.
PRICES
$35. to $65.

lock. Records show it to be the property of W. E. Stone of Eugene. Whether it was stolen or not, police do not at present know.
 A man who gave his name as James Marshall was arrested yesterday afternoon for begging on the streets.
 Men who gave their names as C. E. Ayers, C. Danielson, R. Rasmussen and Robert Garrett were taken to the police station last night by Officer Victor and given a night's lodging in the city jail.

Mrs. George H. Alden is attending as a delegate of the Oregon conference the national convention of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church at St. Paul, which opened Wednesday and will continue until October 27. Following this she has been invited to give addresses in a number of eastern cities, and will not return to Salem until late in November.
 Two Chinese boys, educated in the Canton Christian college, under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal church, are on their way to Salem to enter Willamette university, according to a letter recently received by Dean George H. Alden from David Cook, a former student, who is teaching in the Canton school. Nothing further has been heard of the boys, but they are expected soon.

A new resident of Salem is M. Digon of Seattle. Mr. Digon is establishing his home here and has purchased the grocery business formerly conducted by A. Ackley, at 305 South 25th street.
 According to reports filed at the county clerk's office the following named patients have been released from the Oregon state hospital: Herbert Brown, admitted July 7, 1920, discharged October 15, as recovered; Mrs. Charlotte M. Thomas, admitted September 4, 1920, discharged October 19 as fully recovered; Arthur Birchfield, admitted July 1, 1919, discharged October 19 to be taken to the Mendocino state hospital, Ukiah, Cal.
 Sheriff W. I. Needham has received notification from the Clark county authorities requesting aid in the search for G. R. Percival, mayor of the city of Vancouver, Wash. Mayor Percival disappeared Sunday afternoon, October 17, and it is feared that he has met with foul play, or that he is a victim of lost memory. He is described as being about 60 years of age, five feet nine inches in height and of about 160 pounds weight.

More musicians. That is the demand made by the Salem boys' orchestra, states that efforts will be made to increase the organization to at least thirty parts.
 Any boy in Salem who is over 12 years of age and able to play an instrument, is invited to be a member. Practice meets are at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday afternoons at 4:15.
 Those interested should see Lyman A. Pickett, boys work secretary; Claude Burch, orchestra secretary, or Mr. Delsart.

 An automobile driven by W. A. Wilcox and a Phe company truck piloted by O. W. Everett, collided this morning at the corner of Center and 18th streets, according to the report made to police by Mr. Wilcox.
 A fender on the Wilcox automobile was damaged, the report stated. Nobody was injured.

Injuries to four players are at present worrying Captain "Pete" Reinhart. Gosser is at present out of the running with a broken hand; Purvine is laid up with a fractured finger; Ringie is out of the game for the season with an injured knee and Baggot will play against Chemawa tomorrow with a cracked rib.
 "At that we'll show Chemawa a battle," Reinhart stated this morning. "I look for the game to be very close, but I think we can beat them."

Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Salem will likely start the game with the following line-up: Aldrich and Daley, ends; Ellis White and "Pete" Reinhart, tackles; Ralph White and Baggot, guards; Jones, center; Socolofsky and Adolph, halves; Ashby, fullback.

ALL NEW
Hippodrome
Vaudeville
TODAY
The Two Wrens
 Two Bits of Scotch and Irish
Walter Gilbert
 Flexible Comedian
GLORIA SWANSON
 In
Every Woman's Husband
BLIGH
THEATRE

Salem Gridders Meet Chemawa Here Tomorrow
 Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Soap Day at Woodry's
 270 N. Com'l St.
 Saturday, Oct. 23, 1:30 p. m.
 300 Cases 300 White Borax Naptha Soap
 Mfg. Cost $6.50 per case
 Only 1 case to a customer

COLDS
 of head or chest are more easily treated externally with
VICKS VAPORUB
 Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Anniversary Sale
 A FEW SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY
 2 pounds Sugar 20c
 22 Bars Elk Savon Soap $1.00
 45c pkg. Kerr's Wheat Flakes 35c
 10 pounds Fancy Rice 82c
 3 bars Palm Olive Soap 24c
 45c Can Pineapple 33c
 We Save You Money

Farmer's Cash Store
 C. BURTON DURDALL,
 3 Stores—Salem, Silverton, Independence

Meet Me at Miller's
Lower Prices at Miller's
Every Ladies' Suit Reduced
 Our entire stock of strictly High Quality Suits, have all been marked at "EXTRA SPECIAL," no reserve. Special Sales Racks with Coats and Dresses at prices that mean quick sales. Bear this in mind—We have no shoddy, or cheap merchandise—Miller's Quality is the highest standard.
 New Arrivals
 In every Department, every day, by express.
MILLER'S
 Good Goods.

Ye Liberty
 Sunday—
 Norma Talmadge

lock. Records show it to be the property of W. E. Stone of Eugene. Whether it was stolen or not, police do not at present know.
 A man who gave his name as James Marshall was arrested yesterday afternoon for begging on the streets.
 Men who gave their names as C. E. Ayers, C. Danielson, R. Rasmussen and Robert Garrett were taken to the police station last night by Officer Victor and given a night's lodging in the city jail.

Mrs. George H. Alden is attending as a delegate of the Oregon conference the national convention of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church at St. Paul, which opened Wednesday and will continue until October 27. Following this she has been invited to give addresses in a number of eastern cities, and will not return to Salem until late in November.
 Two Chinese boys, educated in the Canton Christian college, under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal church, are on their way to Salem to enter Willamette university, according to a letter recently received by Dean George H. Alden from David Cook, a former student, who is teaching in the Canton school. Nothing further has been heard of the boys, but they are expected soon.

A new resident of Salem is M. Digon of Seattle. Mr. Digon is establishing his home here and has purchased the grocery business formerly conducted by A. Ackley, at 305 South 25th street.
 According to reports filed at the county clerk's office the following named patients have been released from the Oregon state hospital: Herbert Brown, admitted July 7, 1920, discharged October 15, as recovered; Mrs. Charlotte M. Thomas, admitted September 4, 1920, discharged October 19 as fully recovered; Arthur Birchfield, admitted July 1, 1919, discharged October 19 to be taken to the Mendocino state hospital, Ukiah, Cal.
 Sheriff W. I. Needham has received notification from the Clark county authorities requesting aid in the search for G. R. Percival, mayor of the city of Vancouver, Wash. Mayor Percival disappeared Sunday afternoon, October 17, and it is feared that he has met with foul play, or that he is a victim of lost memory. He is described as being about 60 years of age, five feet nine inches in height and of about 160 pounds weight.

More musicians. That is the demand made by the Salem boys' orchestra, states that efforts will be made to increase the organization to at least thirty parts.
 Any boy in Salem who is over 12 years of age and able to play an instrument, is invited to be a member. Practice meets are at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday afternoons at 4:15.
 Those interested should see Lyman A. Pickett, boys work secretary; Claude Burch, orchestra secretary, or Mr. Delsart.

 An automobile driven by W. A. Wilcox and a Phe company truck piloted by O. W. Everett, collided this morning at the corner of Center and 18th streets, according to the report made to police by Mr. Wilcox.
 A fender on the Wilcox automobile was damaged, the report stated. Nobody was injured.

Injuries to four players are at present worrying Captain "Pete" Reinhart. Gosser is at present out of the running with a broken hand; Purvine is laid up with a fractured finger; Ringie is out of the game for the season with an injured knee and Baggot will play against Chemawa tomorrow with a cracked rib.
 "At that we'll show Chemawa a battle," Reinhart stated this morning. "I look for the game to be very close, but I think we can beat them."

Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Salem will likely start the game with the following line-up: Aldrich and Daley, ends; Ellis White and "Pete" Reinhart, tackles; Ralph White and Baggot, guards; Jones, center; Socolofsky and Adolph, halves; Ashby, fullback.

ALL NEW
Hippodrome
Vaudeville
TODAY
The Two Wrens
 Two Bits of Scotch and Irish
Walter Gilbert
 Flexible Comedian
GLORIA SWANSON
 In
Every Woman's Husband
BLIGH
THEATRE

Salem Gridders Meet Chemawa Here Tomorrow
 Salem high school is expected to win by a narrow margin what will undoubtedly be a hard-fought battle with the Chemawa football team in Sweetland field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Appearances would seem to favor the husky high school lads who, when they are whipped into shape are expected to comprise one of the strongest eleven in the state.
 With a line which, with proper coaching, bids fair to develop into the stonewall variety and a speedy backfield, indications are that the black and red aggregation will be one of Oregon's most formidable interscholastic teams. "Bill" Ashby, the salty Salem fullback, is heralded by local fans as a second Bill Steers, and with Adolph and Socolofsky as halves, and Frank Reinhart at quarter, Salem high school has a backfield destined to

Soap Day at Woodry's
 270 N. Com'l St.
 Saturday, Oct. 23, 1:30 p. m.
 300 Cases 300 White Borax Naptha Soap
 Mfg. Cost $6.50 per case
 Only 1 case to a customer

COLDS
 of head or chest are more easily treated externally with
VICKS VAPORUB
 Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

Anniversary Sale
 A FEW SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY
 2 pounds Sugar 20c
 22 Bars Elk Savon Soap $1.00
 45c pkg. Kerr's Wheat Flakes 35c
 10 pounds Fancy Rice 82c
 3 bars Palm Olive Soap 24c
 45c Can Pineapple 33c
 We Save You Money

Farmer's Cash Store
 C. BURTON DURDALL,
 3 Stores—Salem, Silverton, Independence

Meet Me at Miller's
Lower Prices at Miller's
Every Ladies' Suit Reduced
 Our entire stock of strictly High Quality Suits, have all been marked at "EXTRA SPECIAL," no reserve. Special Sales Racks with Coats and Dresses at prices that mean quick sales. Bear this in mind—We have no shoddy, or cheap merchandise—Miller's Quality is the highest standard.
 New Arrivals
 In every Department, every day, by express.
MILLER'S
 Good Goods.

Ye Liberty
 Sunday—
 Norma Talmadge

lock. Records show it to be the property of W. E. Stone of Eugene. Whether it was stolen or not, police do not at present know.
 A man who gave his name as James Marshall was arrested yesterday afternoon for begging on the streets.
 Men who gave their names as C. E. Ayers, C. Danielson, R. Rasmussen and Robert Garrett were taken to the police station last night by Officer Victor and given a night's lodging in the city jail.

Mrs. George H. Alden is attending as a delegate of the Oregon conference the national convention of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church at St. Paul, which opened Wednesday and will continue until October 27. Following this she has been invited to give addresses in a number of eastern cities, and will not return to Salem until late in November.
 Two Chinese boys, educated in the Canton Christian college, under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal church, are on their way to Salem to enter Willamette university, according to a letter recently received by Dean George H. Alden from David Cook, a former student, who is teaching in the Canton school. Nothing further has been heard of the boys, but they are expected soon.

A new resident of Salem is M. Digon of Seattle. Mr. Digon is establishing his home here and has purchased the grocery business formerly conducted by A. Ackley, at 305 South 25th street.
 According to reports filed at the county clerk's office the following named patients have been released from the Oregon state hospital: Herbert Brown, admitted July 7, 1920, discharged October 15, as recovered; Mrs. Charlotte M. Thomas, admitted September 4, 1920, discharged October 19 as fully recovered; Arthur Birchfield, admitted July 1, 1919, discharged October 19 to be taken to the Mendocino state hospital, Ukiah, Cal.
 Sheriff W. I. Needham has received notification from the Clark county authorities requesting aid in the search for G. R. Percival, mayor of the city of Vancouver, Wash. Mayor Percival disappeared Sunday afternoon, October 17, and it is feared that he has met with foul play, or that he is a victim of lost memory. He is described as being about 60 years of age, five feet nine inches in height and of about 160 pounds weight.