Wood Ready to Aid Veterans; Here Two Days

Reporting that many ex-service men are taking advantage of the new congressional act which permits resumption of lapsed insurance with payment of only one month's back premium, Cliff Wood, Oregon representative for the bureau of war risk insurance, is now in Salem.

Mr. Wood will be in this city for only two days, October 28 and 29. He is at the Marion hotel and will aid and advise ex-service men with regard to problems of insurance compensation or special aid for those who received injuries in the service.

Service men have permitted their insurance to lapse may now be reinstated with very simple requirements dependent upon the number of months insurance has not been paid. Straight war risk insurance may now be converted to various forms such as ordinary life, 30 payment life, 20 payment life, 30 or 20 year endowment and endowment at age 62.

County Gainer by $88 Through Forest Returns

"While this will not take care of the 1919 excess levy, it will aid a drifter," observed County Treasurer D. G. Drager, Wednesday, when informed that Marion county will soon receive its share of returns from national forest business in the Santiam and Marion forests.

This is the sum of $78 which is this county's return from its holdings of 61,479 acres in the Oregon forest and 136,385 acres in the Santiam forest.

Clackamas, Hood River, Jefferson, Marion, Multnomah and Wasco counties share in the receipts from the Oregon forest which embraces a total of 1,040,993 acres. Clackamas, Jefferson, Lane, Linn and Marion counties are represented in the Santiam's acreage of 667,997.

Suffrage Head To Support Cox

New York, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, National Suffrage president, has issued the following statement on why she will vote for Cox:

"To my mind the ratification of the league of nations, with or without reservation, supersedes all other problems before the American people today. Others local to the country can be settled as time goes on. I am for the league of nations and Cox is the shortest cut to that result."

"It is not true, as the supporters of Harding are saying, that Mr. Cox has insisted upon the covenant without change. Not only in his letter to Mr. Root, but repeatedly in his speeches, he has distinctly said he would accept changes in the covenant."

"The Harding supporters insist that the great issue is the reputation of the Wilson administration. This is an impossibility. The Wilson administration already is past history. Mr. Wilson is no longer to be considered an issue. Whether his administration was good or bad does not enter into the case. At this instant our main concern is to put in some one who will set us straight with the world."

Building Trust Asked $25,000 For Protection

New York, Oct. 28.—Jacob Fradus, a general contractor, today told the joint legislative committee investigating the "building trust" that William P. Brindell, president of the building trades council, had "put him out of business" after he had refused to "produce $25,000 in order that he might retain his labor and complete the job."

Fradus also testified he had paid Brindell $1000 in $100 bills for a job and a working agreement with the council.

commonly classified as game are rapidly approaching extinction. Ethically speaking, the only justifiable hunter is the 'pot hunter.' He kills because he needs the food or has to make a living, while the sportsman to whom the pot hunter is the scum of the earth, kills for the fun of killing, and from a standpoint of humanity, is ages behind the man who shoots for a living."

Warden Thomas said innocent families of prisoners have been depending upon charity, because the forty cents a day allowed by the state had been insufficient."

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 28.—The General Practitioners' Medical society has approved the proposal of Warden Thomas of the penitentiary, that the state build a factory to afford employment to married prisoners in the penitentiary. Net profits of the workers would go to their families.
