Wearing House For Stolen Bonds Unearthed by Secret Service Operatives Today

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 9.—Positives were secured today by the secret service agents of the United States department of justice for the wearing house of a stolen bond. The agents, who are searching for the man who is believed to have sold the bonds, were today in possession of a pair of shoes which they charge more than $1000 worth of bonds have been hidden in.

Prowler Annoys Women

That a prowler has been loitering about the Miller apartment house, was the complaint registered with police last night by one Miss Anderson. The man has been seen by several women who have returned home late at night, she said. Officers Victor and Brown were sent to the neighborhood with instructions to arrest the man, if he could be found. They discovered no trace of him, however. The prowler was described as being tall, with a slight limp, and is said to wear a long gray overcoat.

Deductions Can't Come From State's Bridge Profits

No deductions can be made from the state's share of the profits in the operation of the Interstate bridge across the Columbia river between Multnomah county and Clark county, Wash., according to an opinion prepared by Attorney General VanWinkle. The law provides, Van Winkle points out, that before the profits for the operation are declared the commissioners shall make allowance for necessary repairs to the bridge after which the net profits shall be divided 25 percent to Multnomah county and 75 percent to the state.

Gas Company Asks To Increase Rates

Authority to increase rates on gas to its patrons at Marshfield, North Bend, Eugene and Springfield is sought by the Mountain States Power company in an application filed with the public service commission this morning. In the case of Marshfield and North Bend it is proposed to increase the rate on the first 400 cubic feet from one dollar to $1.50 per thousand cubic feet. The proposed rates for Eugene and Springfield patrons is $1.25 per thousand cubic feet or less, as against a rate of 75 cents in effect now. The proposed increases on additional gas is less radical than that on the original unit.

Students Decide Against Uniform Awards Measure

The matter of uniform awards for all athletes at Willamette university came up for final decision Tuesday in student body meeting and was defeated by a small majority. The proposed amendment has been before the students for some time, and has aroused spirited discussion. The defeat of the proposed amendment leaves the awards as they were last year, but it is thought that a new amendment will be proposed giving basketball and baseball men the same size letter, as is awarded for football, and designating track and tennis as minor sports, with a small award. The clause providing white sweaters with W. U. monogram to be provided for yell king and crown prince carried, and also an amendment to the constitution providing a new plan for handling funds accruing from games. The desired change in the type of sweater, incorporated in the award amendment, was defeated, and this matter is referred back to the revision committee.

C. Railroad Company Must Reimburse Land Purchasers

California and Oregon railroad companies must reimburse the land purchasers for the amount of the purchase price of the land, according to a decision of the supreme court today. The court held that the railroad companies are liable for the amount of the purchase price of the land, and that the land purchasers are entitled to be reimbursed for the amount of the purchase price of the land. The court's decision is based on the fact that the railroad companies are the ones who are responsible for the purchase of the land, and that the land purchasers are the ones who are paying for the land. The court's decision is a landmark one, as it is the first time that a railroad company has been held liable for the purchase price of the land. The court's decision is based on the fact that the railroad companies are the ones who are responsible for the purchase of the land, and that the land purchasers are the ones who are paying for the land. ## Horse Aids In Delivery Of Bootleg

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 9.—A man trained for bootlegging was confiscated in southeastern Laffors county, Oklahoma, Sunday by John T. Tidale, federal prohibition enforcement officer with headquarters here. A still of 100 gallons capacity was seized in the same raid. Tidale said the horse, without a rider, carried the whiskey in saddle bags from the still to a rendezvous, where the purchaser of the liquor relieved the animal of its load.

Manhattan Is Under Guard Plot Feared

New York, Nov. 9.—Twenty-five additional patrolmen today were distributed throughout the financial district to guard financiers and financial institutions because of threats alleged to have been made at recent secret meetings of radicals. The detective force in the Wall street district also was greatly increased.

Police Net is Thrown Around Financial Center as Result of Bomb Rumors

The additional force has been made a permanent detail and will watch over prominent Wall street figures and also messengers carrying millions in securities about the streets. Special instructions to permit no parking of vehicles recalled the "death wagon" which figured in the disastrous Wall street explosion in September.

Army Unit Ordered To Strengthen Second Division Will Be Recruited To Full Strength; Reason is Announced

Washington, Nov. 9.—Telegraphic orders were sent today to the army recruiting stations to recruit the second division to its full strength immediately. It was explained at the war department that under the national defense act one division of the army must be kept at full strength and that the second had been selected as the unit. The division, which is stationed at Camp Travis, Texas, is 6000 short of its full strength and the war department said that the recruiting service never before in time of peace had been given a similar task.

Relics Found by Road Builders Held Priceless

The Dalles, Or., Nov. 9.—That important archaeological secrets of great value are still probably contained in the earth at Big Eddy, near Celilo, and that the matter of further excavation will be taken up without further delay was the statement today of George H. Himes, curator and assistant secretary of the Oregon Historical society, who yesterday made a complete investigation of the relics thus far uncovered and also of the site where they are being found.

Flour and Sugar Touch Bottom

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 9.—For the first time in almost four years, flour sold under $10 a barrel at the mills here today. Quotations on family patents broke 25 to 75 cents today, making the range of prices sharp decline in wheat was given as the cause.

Delicacies Are Collected For Bayard Invalids

The War Mothers' organization of this city reports that several families have responded to the call for jams, jellies and other delicacies to be sent to tubercular soldiers at Fort Bayard, N. M. To date, about 41 quarts have been received, or an average of about one-fifth of an ounce of fruit for each of the 3500 families in Salem and vicinity.

Cherrians Urged Out For Tonight's "Musical-Smoker"

With Walter Jenkins, Portland community song leader, in charge of the musical festivities, Salem Cherrians will tonight lay forth at what will perhaps be their biggest social gathering of the year. The entertainment, according to King Bing C. B. Clancey, is to be in the nature of a "musical smoker."

Relief Work In Near East Is Threatened

New York, Nov. 9.—Conditions in Asia Minor and Turkey in Europe are so serious that the Near East relief will not run the risk of sacrificing American lives by sending further relief workers to the war torn areas. This announcement was made today by the Near East relief following receipt of cables from Constantinople reporting that J. P. Coombs is held by Turkish nationalists at Samsoun. Coombs is director of the relief's activities in the district.

Landis Offered $50,000

Chicago, Nov. 9.—With the major leagues engaged in a baseball war, declared yesterday, both sides today were making strong efforts to obtain allies and munitions. The eight National league clubs and three American league clubs—New York, Boston and Chicago—having formed the "new national league" which is to be a twelve club circuit, today awarded word from Federal K. M. Andie to whom last night they tendered the chairmanship of a new baseball board of control at a salary of $50,000 a year. Judge Landis said he felt honored by the offer and asked time to consider it.

Linn County Men Tie In Race for Constablerships

Albany, Or., Nov. 9.—Constables to serve the next two years in two Linn county justice districts will be selected by lot. This condition results from the votes cast in the election Tuesday. In a few of the districts there was no candidate on the ballot for constable and names were written in. The official count discloses that in district No. 7, composed of Waterloo and Soda-ville precincts, and in district No. 8, which comprises Foster and Sweet Home precincts, two men tied for the high vote. County Clerk Russell will cast lots to determine the winners.

Baseball War Certain With Minors Opposed To Commission Plans

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—War to a finish was declared here today by President B. B. Johnson of the American league and his five "loyal" club owners in the fight against the formation of a new twelve club league. President Johnson declared that clubs would be established in Chicago, Boston and New York next season to take the places of the clubs that have joined the "new national league."
