Loganberry Laughs

Patriotism can survive almost any ordeal except peace.
Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands rich.
It frequently happens that the possessor of a soft head thinks it a soft heart.

And now for a generation or two the world will stand at Armageddon and pay taxes.
Europe's orgy of spending ended soon after America recovered from her orgy of lending.
The wicked are adroit, but it is easy to see through a man who has a clear conscience.

There are always two sides to a moot question. Eating raw oysters is a raw deal for the oysters.
In Russia the martyrs to the cause don't keep their stomachs empty as a matter of choice.

How do the dear creatures resist the temptation to write a postscript on their ballots?
Dear foolish extremists the torch of liberty was never used to reduce argument to arson.

The difficulty is not so much to find a house as to find a house that will impress one's friends.
If a monkey bite is fatal to a king, it's a wonder some disgruntled "nobleman" didn't discover it years ago.

Keeping a socialist candidate in jail doubtless causes Debs to reflect that he would rather be right than precedent.
When we get accustomed to paper clothing, it may be all right to refer to an evening dress as the quire invisible.

Democratic Party Not Dead

Harley Christiansen, recent candidate for president on the Farmer-Labor ticket, declares that the Democratic party is dead, killed by the election, and can never be revived. In 1908, after the defeat of the Democrats, Mr. Debs made the same declaration. The party of the future was to be the Socialist party. Similar pronouncements have been forthcoming following Democratic defeat since the civil war, and still the Democratic party survives.

The Democratic party has had many overwhelming defeats, yet in spite of slavery and copperhead leadership during the civil war, and green-back leadership following, it recovered to elect Tilden in 1876, though he was cheated out of the presidency. In the election following the Democrats cast within 10,000 as many votes as the Republicans and afterwards twice elected Cleveland as president.

Populism, Free-Silverism and Bryanism sent the democrats to defeat in 1896 and keep them in the hopeless column until Wilson was twice elected. Though the Democrats have been overwhelmingly defeated again, at no time in their history have they less to regret. Having won a world war, it met defeat championing world peace and no party that battles for such principles is doomed. Time will vindicate its position for its policies are sound.

In most other elections the democrats earned their defeat. This time was the exception. Its cause is just. Its rejuvenation will break all records. As the New York World says:
The Democratic Party may be temporarily bankrupt in majorities but it is not bankrupt in assets. It has had a record of achievement during the last eight years that is without parallel in American history.

A Unique Strike

The "temperament" of artists, particularly Italian artists, is vividly portrayed in a recent strike called to protest the "insult" offered an English painter by a manufacturer, which has resulted in international complications.
Lord Leverhulme, the British manufacturer, to show his displeasure over a painting of himself by Augustus John, the London painter, whom he had commissioned to execute it, decapitated the portrait. The artist protested and raised the question of the moral right of an artist to have his work preserved for future generations, in spite of objections of the owner.

Good Judgment After Eating

Giving the Stomach the Alkaline Effect by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet is Worth Remembering
You cannot, as a rule, say in advance that this, or the other food will cause indigestion. Experience has taught most people that even mince pie fits snugly at times while at others a glass of milk raises hobs with the stomach.

One good rule to follow is the preventative measure of taking one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. You thus avoid gas, sour stomach, heartburn and such distresses due to indigestion or dyspepsia. These tablets also help to digest the food by giving the stomach the alkaline effect to offset acidity; they relieve the distress when the mince pie or milk should be more than a match for your digestive powers. Get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store and note how nicely they seem to calm the stomach when it feels all upset.

alous that this overgrown, sandy-haired boy was watching her sometimes with frankly flattering admiration, sometimes furtively, as though in sly curiosity.
"Who is that kid?" she distinctly heard him say to another boy. She calmly turned her back. And was presently aware of the elder Grismer's expressionless gaze concentrated upon herself.
Is this the little girl?" he said to Cleland Senior in his hard, dry voice.

$50,000 Offered For B. Leonard-Mitchell Fight

Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—The Milwaukee board of directors offered a purse of $50,000 for the proposed fight for the lightweight title between Benny Leonard and Ritchie Mitchell, according to an announcement by Mitchell's manager.
Crisis on Ground.
Washington, Nov. 10.—The protected cruiser Cleveland, attached to the newly organized squadron on duty in Latin-American waters is aground in the harbor at Cartagena, Colombia; the navy department was advised Tuesday.

Valley Youths Enlist in Army

That life still has its charms for modern day youth is attested to by the enlistment rate in Salem for the period, November 4 to 8.
Sergeant Charles Davis, local recruiter, handled a busy day's work Monday, when he enlisted the following in the branch of service designated:
Saul Janz, 21, Salem, quartermaster corps; William Wood, 22, Brooks, quartermaster corps; Pete Hepper, 21, Dallas; Arthur Clark, 18, Lucas, Wisconsin, and Walter Markham, 18, Pleasant Hill, Oregon were applicants for infantry service.
On November 4 Felix Ray, 19, Portland, enlisted here for service in the infantry and on November 6, Peter Parsons, 32, of Mill City, enlisted in the air service.

Germans Show No Hatred for British Boxers, Is Report

Boxing, Nov. 10.—International boxing in Germany has recovered very quickly from the war, and followers of the ring apparently retain neither hatred nor prejudice for their recent enemies when they meet in sport.
George Groves, English middleweight, has been having great success and is a big drawing card in Germany. The International News Service correspondent sought Groves out to learn how a British pugilist is treated in Germany.
"How on earth did you ever happen to come to Germany to fight?" Groves was asked.
"About four months ago a German manager came to London and hired several of us. I went to the British military and foreign office and they had no objections, so I came over. The manager put up money in a London bank for the fight, so I couldn't possibly lose anything. After three fights I saw a chance to improve my connection and broke with him and went under another manager."

falling. My kidneys worried me a great deal, and there were such pains in my back I felt like it was coming in two.
"I also suffered with rheumatism in my arms, legs and every joint in my body. My nerves were in such bad shape I could never get a good night's sleep. I lost weight and finally became so run down and weak I simply had to stop work entirely. All my friends thought I was down and out for good, for although I had tried every kind of medicine I could hear of, nothing helped me a particle.
"Six bottles of Tanlac not only completely relieved me of all my troubles but I have gained fifteen pounds in weight besides. For three years I had just about every thing the matter with me anybody could have. I lost my appetite, and even when I did force down a little something it caused me awful suffering. I would blot up with gas until I could hardly breathe, have intense pains in the pit of my stomach and my heart would palpitate dreadfully. I had headaches nearly all the time and often became so dizzy I had to take hold of something to keep from

SLEEPY-TIME TALES THE TALE OF BROWNIE BEAVER

He saw a flash of light, to be sure, and a good many stars to get free and began to feel hunkry.
You can see that he must have been worried, because there was the tree, with plenty of bark on it which he could eat.
But he never noticed it for a time.
At last, however, he happened to remember that in the beginning he had started to cut down that very tree so he could reach the bark and eat it.
Then Brownie Beaver had a good meal. And just as he finished eating, another thought came into his head. Why shouldn't he snare right through the tree?
Since there seemed to be no answer to that question, he began to gnaw big chips out of the wood. And in a surprisingly short time he had cut the tree apart just where it pressed upon him.
Then, of course, all he had to do was to get up and walk away.
When he reached the village he found that all his neighbors had been looking everywhere for him.
That is," Granddaddy Beaver explained, "we looked everywhere except near the tree where you had that adventure a few nights ago. I advised you wouldn't be there, for I advised you to keep away from that spot, as you will recall."
Now, Brownie Beaver said nothing more. He knew that it was an unheard-of thing for one of

"JUST TELL THEM TO CALL ME" - RUSSELL

Declares He Would not Take All the Money in the World for the Good Tanlac Did Him and Will Tell Anyone About His Case
"My telephone number is Proctor 3115, and if anybody wants to talk to me about the good Tanlac has done me and what I think of it, all they have to do is to just call me up," declared K. C. Russell, 3712 North Ninth street, Tacoma, Wash.
"Six bottles of Tanlac not only completely relieved me of all my troubles but I have gained fifteen pounds in weight besides. the Beaver family to be caught by a falling tree. To have every-one know what had happened to him would be a good deal like a disgrace.
But there are plenty of people who would think they something quite clever in gnawed through a tree-though that was that never, once entered Beaver's head.

Does Your Husband Come Home Tired, Nervous, Irritable

Physician Says Thousands Of Men Are Breaking Simply Because Their Blood Lacks Iron—To Convince A Husband That He Needs NUXATED IRON To Help Make Red Blood, Strength and Endurance
"Simply because his blood lacks iron, many an American husband would be feeling young, full of health, vigor and energy and in a position to show his family with every comfort and luxury is actually struggling to make ends meet—a disappointed and discouraged 'old' man who will probably end up in a nervous breakdown or be carried off by his first illness," says Dr. H. B. Vail, formerly physician in the Baltimore Hospital and a Medical Examiner.
"Because man, in the rush and tear of modern life has so little time to think about his blood's condition and is often so slow to admit any weakness, the signs that his blood may be low in iron are often first detected by the watchful, loving eyes of his wife. Does your husband come home pale and fagged out and too tired to do anything or go anywhere? Does he complain about being overworked—the lack of opportunity today—some other fellow 'lucky' does the first fault with the food, the home or the youngsters' behavior? Does he seem unable for one reason or another to get ahead and make big money as you and he once confidently expected?"
"Then it may well be true that his blood lacks iron, for the men with plenty of iron in their blood are the healthy, strong ones with the keen minds and the physical energy and stamina to overcome all obstacles—make their own opportunities—and force their way to big positions, power and wealth. My advice to the wife who believes her husband capable of big things in this world is to see that he builds up the iron in his blood and for this purpose I have found nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron. By enriching the blood, creating new blood cells, it strengthens the nerves, rebuilds weakened tissues, and helps instill new

NUXATED IRON For Red Blood, Strength and Endurance

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform functions without aid. For this purpose the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle and older on account of their gentle action.

You Save Money says the Good Judge

And get more genuine chewing satisfaction, when you use this class of tobacco. This is because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often.
And a small chew gives more real satisfaction than a big chew of the ordinary kind ever did.
Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
