of preferred preferred stock stock

1. You will get 7% before the Common Stockholders get ALL ALLAND anything.

2. If dividends to the Common Stockholders are more ... than 7%, you get an equal amount.

3. If the Preferred dividend is passed you do not lose because accumulated dividends must be paid before the Common Stock gets anything.

If the books show that the value of the Common Stock is increasing in building up a surplus, Preferred Stockholders may convert their stock into Common at the book valuee of Common, (its value today is $142) and get a bonus for their stock of:
