

City Briefs

CURRENT EVENTS

Nov. 22—At the public library auditorium, Dr. J. H. Matthews of Seattle will give the assembly hour address at the Community School for Religious Education, at 8 p. m.

Nov. 24—Thanksgiving day.

Nov. 25—Football, Willamette vs. Whitman college, Salem.

Nov. 25—Football, Salem high school vs. The Dalles high school, The Dalles.

Nov. 30—Baby clinic, Marion County Children's Bureau, Commercial club.

Nov. 27—War Mothers' bazaar, armory.

Dec.—Junior Guild dance, home hall.

Dec. 6—First Concert by Salem Symphony Orchestra, armory.

Court House Notes

Circuit Court

Mary Flynn vs. Willmer W. Flynn, Execution.

Lucy M. Hardin vs. Orin W. Hardin, Order, affidavit.

Fred W. Durbin vs. W. Jay Denham, Summons.

Viola T. Wilson vs. Belle Bryant et al, Summons.

Midred Schrank vs. James F. Schrank, Motion, affidavit.

Probate Court

A. J. Lowry estate, Final account, order setting time.

Benjamin H. Keiser estate, Receipt.

Mary Anna Bowers estate, Order, petition, oath.

Marriage Licenses

Dell Dewey Porgey, 22, railroad employe, Albany and George's Fern Reeves, 21, stenographer and clerk, Salem.

Daily Statistics

Died

LYTLE—At the family home, near Hayesville, Saturday Nov. 20, 1920, Max Andrew Lytle, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lytle.

Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the City View cemetery, where interment was made. Rigdon and Son had charge of the remains.

ANDREWS—In Salem Saturday November 20, 1920, Mrs. Ida Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wederman of Salem, at the age of 30 years.

Besides her father and mother she leaves two brothers, A. Wederman and R. Wederman; one half brother, Alex Papalpu, and three children, Alex, aged 12; Hilda, aged 10, and John, aged nine. The funeral was held from the Rigdon chapel at 2 p. m. this afternoon. Interment was made in the Lee Mission cemetery.

de VRIES—At his home near Putnam, Saturday November 20, 1920, Hermann de Vries, at the age of 75 years.

He is survived by his wife and six children, Fred, H. W., and William of Putnam, and Mrs. Anna Grusing of Lydia, Kans., Mrs.

Lena Bauman of Portland and Mrs. Theda Brunkow of Portland. The deceased had been a resident of this vicinity for 18 years, coming to the United States from Germany 35 years ago. The funeral was held this afternoon at one o'clock from the German Methodist church, 13th and Center streets. Interment was made in the Lee Mission cemetery. Rigdon and Son had charge of the remains.

Salem's biggest football game of the season, Willamette vs. Whitman, Thanksgiving day. Tickets $1.

Mr. Churchill and family, who have been living in California for some time past, are moving back to Salem and will occupy their home on North 20th street this week.

Liberty steak 15c lb. Sausage 15c lb. T-bone steak 20c lb. Midget Market. 281*

Chas. Siegmund has purchased a 45 acre ranch two miles from Salem on the Garden road, and will move to the place this week. He will retain his position, however, with GHe and company.

U. G. Boyer, county clerk for Marion county, eloped from his post Saturday and attended the football battle at Corvallis.

A. N. Pierce, manager of the Hotel Marion, has returned from Portland after a two day sojourn in the misty city.

Sausage 15c lb. Pure lard No. 5 25c lb. Pork steak 25c lb. Midget Market. 281*

W. F. Fay of Jefferson, Wis. was a Salem visitor Friday and Saturday.

F. L. Stelson of Eugene transacted business in Salem Friday morning.

W. J. Mishler of Woodburn and S. C. Morton of St. Helens were among those who were guests of the Marion hotel Thursday and Friday.

Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

F. B. Thorp of La Grande visited friends in this city Friday.

The funeral of Charles R. Scott who died in Salem Friday afternoon, will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from the Highland Friends church. Interment will be made in the City View cemetery.

Grand today, vaudeville. 280*

His bicycle was stolen from in front of the Oregon theater, Cleone Patton, of the Florence hotel, complained to police Saturday night.

10,000 people ought to see "Snooky," the Humanzee next Friday and Saturday. 281*

Choice turkeys, geese or chickens, dressed or live, low prices. Phone orders to 1743 or 1604, 280

A bicycle which, he said, he found on a woodpile in front of his home, 125 N. 13th street, was taken to the police station Saturday by Lee Hop Sing. The police believe the wheel had been stolen.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

Flue fires made necessary two runs by the Salem fire department Sunday night, but the flames were easily extinguished. One of the fires occurred at the corner of 16th and Nebraska streets, and the other at Myrtle street and Highland avenue. 279*

Don't fail to attend the Shirley Co. Concert and dance, armory Wed. night Dec. 1st, American Legion, both concert and dance $1.

Jack Moist, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, spent a short time visiting here last week end.

Among those returning from Corvallis Saturday night was Geo. W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools.

Vaudeville, Grand tonight. 280*

Officer White Saturday left at the police station a suitcase which he found just east of the Oregon Electric depot in the suitcase was a report card on which the name "Opal Goodman" of Mills City was scribbled.

Miss Era Godfrey, instructor in the physical education department at the Salem high school, left last night for Portland where she will spend several days.

Thanksgiving football Willamette vs. Whitman, conference game Tickets $1.

After spending a short time visiting in Salem, Walter Banks returned to his home in Portland last night.

Grand today, vaudeville. 280*

His bicycle was stolen from in front of the Oregon theater, Cleone Patton, of the Florence hotel, complained to police Saturday night.

10,000 people ought to see "Snooky," the Humanzee next Friday and Saturday. 281*

Choice turkeys, geese or chickens, dressed or live, low prices. Phone orders to 1743 or 1604, 280

A bicycle which, he said, he found on a woodpile in front of his home, 125 N. 13th street, was taken to the police station Saturday by Lee Hop Sing. The police believe the wheel had been stolen.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

Flue fires made necessary two runs by the Salem fire department Sunday night, but the flames were easily extinguished. One of the fires occurred at the corner of 16th and Nebraska streets, and the other at Myrtle street and Highland avenue. 279*

Don't fail to attend the Shirley Co. Concert and dance, armory Wed. night Dec. 1st, American Legion, both concert and dance $1.

Jack Moist, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, spent a short time visiting here last week end.

Among those returning from Corvallis Saturday night was Geo. W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools.

Vaudeville, Grand tonight. 280*

Officer White Saturday left at the police station a suitcase which he found just east of the Oregon Electric depot in the suitcase was a report card on which the name "Opal Goodman" of Mills City was scribbled.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

Flue fires made necessary two runs by the Salem fire department Sunday night, but the flames were easily extinguished. One of the fires occurred at the corner of 16th and Nebraska streets, and the other at Myrtle street and Highland avenue. 279*

Don't fail to attend the Shirley Co. Concert and dance, armory Wed. night Dec. 1st, American Legion, both concert and dance $1.

Jack Moist, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, spent a short time visiting here last week end.

Among those returning from Corvallis Saturday night was Geo. W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools.

Vaudeville, Grand tonight. 280*

Officer White Saturday left at the police station a suitcase which he found just east of the Oregon Electric depot in the suitcase was a report card on which the name "Opal Goodman" of Mills City was scribbled.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

The daughters of Veterans will hold a special meeting in the Odd Fellows hall Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. This will be inspection night and five officers from Portland will be present. Mrs. Shirley, who will do the inspecting, is a practicing attorney in the metropolis. Members of the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans who desire to do so are invited to attend.

Grand today, vaudeville. 280*

His bicycle was stolen from in front of the Oregon theater, Cleone Patton, of the Florence hotel, complained to police Saturday night.

10,000 people ought to see "Snooky," the Humanzee next Friday and Saturday. 281*

Choice turkeys, geese or chickens, dressed or live, low prices. Phone orders to 1743 or 1604, 280

A bicycle which, he said, he found on a woodpile in front of his home, 125 N. 13th street, was taken to the police station Saturday by Lee Hop Sing. The police believe the wheel had been stolen.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

Flue fires made necessary two runs by the Salem fire department Sunday night, but the flames were easily extinguished. One of the fires occurred at the corner of 16th and Nebraska streets, and the other at Myrtle street and Highland avenue. 279*

Don't fail to attend the Shirley Co. Concert and dance, armory Wed. night Dec. 1st, American Legion, both concert and dance $1.

Jack Moist, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, spent a short time visiting here last week end.

Among those returning from Corvallis Saturday night was Geo. W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools.

Vaudeville, Grand tonight. 280*

Officer White Saturday left at the police station a suitcase which he found just east of the Oregon Electric depot in the suitcase was a report card on which the name "Opal Goodman" of Mills City was scribbled.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

Flue fires made necessary two runs by the Salem fire department Sunday night, but the flames were easily extinguished. One of the fires occurred at the corner of 16th and Nebraska streets, and the other at Myrtle street and Highland avenue. 279*

Don't fail to attend the Shirley Co. Concert and dance, armory Wed. night Dec. 1st, American Legion, both concert and dance $1.

Jack Moist, a student at the Oregon Agricultural college, spent a short time visiting here last week end.

Among those returning from Corvallis Saturday night was Geo. W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools.

Vaudeville, Grand tonight. 280*

Officer White Saturday left at the police station a suitcase which he found just east of the Oregon Electric depot in the suitcase was a report card on which the name "Opal Goodman" of Mills City was scribbled.

For sale, Olympia or any other hard wheat flour in stock, at $2.99 per sack, $11.50 per bbl., all old wheat flour. Will sell at above price as long as stock will last. E. T. Barkus & Son, Phone 755, 280

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 54 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. 275*

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Mann, who died here November 17, were shipped today to Indianola, Neb., for interment, by Rigdon and Son. The remains were accompanied by Mrs. M. H. Uter, of Salem and Mrs. Annie Walker of Portland.

Vocational teachers of the Salem schools are permitted to observe classes in other schools this week, and several of them are out of town. Superintendent George W. Hug, stated this morning.

F. B. Guthrie of Roseburg was a Salem visitor Sunday. James E. Edmondson of Medford transacted business in this city Monday. While in Salem, Mr. Edmondson is registered at the Hotel Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Todhunter of Los Angeles arrived in Salem, Saturday and will visit relatives in this city for a short time. Mr. Todhunter has two brothers residing in Salem, Marshall Todhunter of 680 Summer street and M. J. Todhunter, 600 north High street.

Miss Hazel Todhunter, a former member of the clerical force in the office of Attorney General George M. Brown, left Saturday for Rochester, Minn., at which place she has accepted a position with the administrative department of the Mayo Brothers' clinic.

C. H. Wieder, owner of the Capital City Laundry of Salem and the Albany laundry, was a Salem visitor from the Linn county city, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ves J. Jones of Houston, Texas, were guests of the Marion Monday, while Mr. Jones is transacting business in this city in connection with his interest in oil properties in the Lone Star state.

The public library offers prizes to the high school students for the best poster to foster better books in the home. The posters are to be presented at the library at 4 p. m. Wednesday Dec. 1. Miss Paden will criticize and give some assistance if the designs are planned by the Monday preceding. The prizes offered are $2 for first and $1 for second best.

The case of R. L. Davis, charged with non-support of his family, was today continued by Judge G. E. Unruh until tomorrow morning. Davis' family is said to reside in Portland at the present time.

George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools, will address members of the Richmond Improvement club at a meeting to be held in the school at eight o'clock night. A musical program has been arranged for the and all members and the club are urged to Make your reservation for your Thanksgiving at Marion hotel

Members of the First Christian church will attend a meeting to be held in the church parlors at 4 p. m. today afternoon, November

CU 2 Morrow at The Bligh

Charlie Chaplin

Thanks-giving Needs

For the Kitchen and Dining Room

Roasters Carving Sets Cake Pans Pudding Moulds Dinnerware Glassware Orange Candles and Shades

Infact everything to prepare a successful Thanksgiving Dinner.

Wm. Gahlsdorf The Store of Housewares 135 N. Liberty Street

THE GREAT SHIRLEY CO.

Will be presented in a splendid

CONCERT and DANCE

By Capital Post No. 9
American Legion
Wednesday Night, December 1 at Salem Armory

A wonderful program of 20 numbers will be rendered.

This will be a rare treat--Everybody invited.

Admission to both Concert and Dance $1.00

Knit Underwear For the Children

Children's fine fleeced Union Suits made in several different styles are priced at 69c to $1.35 a garment.

Children's fine fleeced separate vests and pants are splendid for cold weather wear and are priced at 48c to 75c each.

THE HIGHEST OF VALUES IN OUR WOMEN'S KNIT UNDERWEAR.

Women's fine fleeced separate vests and pants are very popularly priced at 69c to $1.25 each.

Women's fine fleeced union suits made in several different styles are priced at 98c to $1.98 a garment.

WE CARRY STANDARD MAKES

of knit underwear such as "Keysers" and "Carters" knitwear in a completed line of styles in union suits, vests and pants in weaves of cotton, silk and wool, wool and cotton and all wool. Our prices in this department, as throughout our entire store, meet the new market prices in their reductions.

U. G. Shipley Co.

THE "PAY AS YOU GO" PLAN SPELLS SUCCESS—AND THE STORE THAT INTRODUCED IT SPELLS ECONOMY!

Final Clearance in Dress

These come in models of Silk and Wool, but desirable in every way.

FINAL CLEARANCE they are marked less than $14.95 cost—

Two-Tone--All Silk Jersey Petticoats

Through a most fortunate purchase, direct cash, we can offer this almost unbelievable value. There are many shades and combinations to select from.

They are strictly High Quality, manufactured by experts in the business. We have set the $4 price for a rousing special, at .....

Just Received! Pure Wool Sweater

A most beautifully knit Sweater, from the finest of yarn colors that embrace the season's demands. They are styles open down the front, to be worn with Vests, and are particularly adapted for school girls' wear. We have put them in $3 this Thanksgiving Event at Special .....

JERSEY SPORT JACKETS, in navy blue, brown and hea

The very last word in Knit Jackets, specially priced $12

MILLER'S

Good Goods.

BUSICK'S

Retailers at Wholesale Prices
More Loaves for a Dollar

VIM FLOUR

The Best Flour Cheaper

Life of Wheat

Easy to Order, Call 186 or 198, Say VIM

OREGON Theatre

"The Restless Sex"

AND A NEW SENNETT COMEDY

TODAY

DOUGHTON & MILLER Hardware

Our new store is now open for business. We will carry everything in the line of hardware and will guarantee satisfaction.

For Thanksgiving Needs

Carving Sets, Roasters, Aluminum, Granite, and Pyrex Cooking Ware, Kitchen Cutlery, etc. Full line Paints, Varnishes and Glass

$10.00 Pize for the best slogan to be used for our business. Contest closes Nov. 30.

DOUGHTON & MILLER HARDWARE

286 NORTH COMMERCIAL STREET