

Portland Plans For Exposition Again In 1925

Portland, Or., Dec. 10.—Plans for an exposition in Portland in 1925 to be known as "the world's peace and progress exposition" in celebration of completion of Atlantic-Pacific highways, electrical development and restoration of international trade were announced here today following a meeting of forty or more business men last night when it was definitely decided to hold the exposition. Portland was the scene of the Lewis and Clark exposition in 1905.

Lumber Orders of Coast Mills Slump Further

Orders taken by West mills for the week ending Dec. 4 show a falling off in business for all branches, including the rail trade, local business and foreign and domestic cargoes.

New business in the rail trade amounted to 675 cars as reported by 121 mills which is easily the smallest week's business for the year.

Domestic cargo business showed the smallest declines and was therefore comparatively the strongest feature of the market.

In the rail trade the unshipped business has been reduced to 5,107 cars.

Rail shipments were 14,040,000 feet above rail orders, or 69.54 per cent.

The week's production at 121 mills was 30.85 per cent below normal. Total shipments were 55,920,297 feet. Total new business amounted to 31,648,211 feet. Local orders were 8,167,270 feet and export orders were 1,890,000 feet. The unshipped totals in the cargo trade are: Domestic, 94,554,395 feet and export, 18,763,827 feet.

Cell Preferred to Life With Husband

Westfield, Mass., Dec. 10.—Offered the choice between two years in the House of the Good Shepherd and returning to her husband, Jennie Rogalski, seventeen years old, chose the cell.

"I would rather spend 100 years in the House of the Good Shepherd than one day with that man," she told the Court which a short time before had tried her for fornication.

She said she had been forced to marry Cosmo Bianchi, of Hartford, by her father at Rocky Hill, Conn., and that she had only lived with him three days.

Water McGinty, a sophomore in the college of mechanics, is the "superman" at the university this year. He is not connected with any of the athletics of the institution. Eight other students registered high grades.

Pretty Girl Arrested in Connection With Murder of Merchant

Marie Williams, also known as Marie Steel, who was arrested with her companion, Peter Treadway, in Wheeling, W. Va., in connection with the slaying of Henry T. Pierce, wealthy Philadelphia merchant. Silverton Armory Appropriation Is Asked of County

A large delegation of Silverton citizens, comprised of militia men, members of the commercial club and business men, this afternoon petitioned Judge Bushey for the appropriation of $10,000 to be used for the building of an armory at Silverton.

The building planned will cost $30,000, one-third of which is provided by state appropriation and one-third of which has been raised by Silverton, with the understanding that the remainder would be appropriated by the county.

The appropriation was made by the county last year to meet the one-third of the armory cost, but had to be withdrawn from the budget because of excessive increases. Judge Bushey had not decided the matter early this after-

TELEPHONE CREDIT

The telephone company will be compelled to borrow large amounts of money in the next few years, not only to extend its service to new subscribers, but to take care of the constantly increasing use of the service by present subscribers.

A lender in business will demand of a borrower ample security and will insist that its value be maintained without deterioration. He must be shown that this security has an assured earning power. He must be satisfied that his investment is safe; that it can be disposed of at any time without loss and that it will bring him a continuous return.

At the present time this company's operations in Oregon are conducted at a deficit. Its expenses are greater than its revenue. No return is being received by its stockholders from their property in Oregon. Not even the interest on its bonds properly chargeable to its Oregon properties is being paid from Oregon receipts.

With new capital scarce and commanding high rates of return, a business showing operating results such as these will find it difficult, if not impossible, to secure money for its necessities.

We assume that the people of Oregon wish to treat the utilities doing business in this state justly and fairly, and in this belief we have asked the Public Service Commission to approve a schedule of rates increasing our revenues. The amount asked for is relatively small to the individual rate payer, but the aggregate will place us in a position where we can obtain the outside capital necessary in our operations.

Under present conditions an adequate telephone service — efficient and sufficient — is dependent upon higher rates.
