Silverton News

Silverton, Ore., Dec. 22.—Elmer O'Kane is taking a forced vacation this week occasioned by a recent fall while working at the mill when his left shoulder blade was dislocated.

Don O'Kane has leased the Bowen ranch west of town and moved there with his family a few days ago.

Mrs. Mary Hoge has secured a lease of a store room in the Masonic building and will move her millinery store there next week.

Geo. L. Pratt who has been employed in the S. P. station here for some time past has taken a similar position in Grants Pass and has moved his family to that city to reside.

A. H. Menary went to Mehama the latter part of the week after two valuable hunting hounds which had been missing from his place.

The hounds had been away for some time and Mr. Menary had given them up as lost until he received word from the superintendent of the logging camps near Mehama that the animals were there. They had been out on a hunting expedition.

The Pythian Sisters have made great preparations for the Christmas tree to be given in the K. of P. hall tomorrow night, and if all the Pythians and kiddies do not have a good time it will not be the fault of the sisters.

Wm. Kaufman has just installed a new light and water system at his fine farm southwest of town.

Klopfenstein Bros. had a barrel half full of apple cider until a few nights ago and now they haven't even the barrel. Parties broke into the basement at their house southwest of town and took the barrel.

and contents. They claim the loss of the barrel is greater than the elope as it had reached an age where it was poor vinegar.

The Loe farms east of town and Roy J. Fox of Lyons, Ore., will hold a joint auction sale of their big type Poland China hogs at the C. A. Loe farm about the first of January.

Silverton schools will close Thursday evening of this week for the holiday vacation and will remain closed until the first Monday in January.

C. E. Jones has sold his residence property in the city to John Dymowski who recently arrived here from Kansas.

Glenn A. Howe recently underwent an operation at the silverton hospital for appendicitis. He is getting along nicely.

Henry E. Stamm and Miss Della Jackson, both of this city, were united in marriage Saturday. They will reside in Silverton.

For a merry Christmas morning

What a fine start for Christmas Day — your steaming cup of FOLGER'S GOLDEN GATE Coffee! From the first taste — its smooth, uniform flavor radiates joy and happiness.

But why not let your relatives and friends enjoy it too? A 2½-lb. or 5-lb. tin of FOLGER'S GOLDEN GATE Coffee will make a practical, acceptable Christmas present for you to give.

Ask the lady of your own house how she would like such a present. See if she doesn't consider this a sensible solution to your Christmas gift problem.

If your friends have never before used FOLGER'S GOLDEN GATE Coffee, they will always thank you for the introduction because you are giving them the coffee they'll like more and more.
