

Equity Cases Keep Polk Court Hard at Work

Dallas, Jan. 20.—The equity court in Dallas, under the judiciary direction of Judge H. H. Belt, has been grinding out equity with some degree of speed during the past two days.

The case of Mrs. P. E. Compton vs. G. T. Goodman began Tuesday morning and lasted throughout the day and a night session was held until 10 o'clock. The case was finished Wednesday morning. The plaintiff demanded possession and re-delivery of property which had been leased by the defendant on the 23d day of February, 1918, for a term of five years. The lease was for approximately 200 acres of land and the farm implements, also some stock.

The decree was given terminating the contract and giving the defendant $300 for the improvements that he made upon the place. Neither party was allowed costs in the case.

Divorce Granted.
The next case was that of Golda E. Hamilton vs. Roy L. Hamilton in which the plaintiff asked for a divorce alleging non-support and cruel and inhuman treatment. It developed in the case that the plaintiff went to live at the home of the defendant Roy Hamilton, about four miles north of Rick-well, after their marriage July 3, 1919. In the home of his parents were two brothers, three half brothers and two sisters. She alleged that the defendant criticized her house work and her habits in the presence of his folks, much to her embarrassment, and that she became sick a few weeks after their marriage and he refused to furnish medicine and medical aid. She went to her parents' home near Pedee in September. Later on, she secured the services of a doctor and he informed her she had typhoid symptoms and had tonsils which were later removed.

Just before her operation for the removal of her tonsils, her husband, phoned the doctor that he would not be responsible for her bill and also published a notice in the papers that he would not be responsible to anyone for indebtedness incurred.

After many witnesses were examined on each side, taking up several hours during the day, the court granted the divorce. Golda E. Hamilton restoring her maiden name of Golda Eevens and allowing her costs and disbursements in the suit.

Two Others Divorced.
Nina E. Collins presented herself in court asking for a decree against Ralph L. Collins on the grounds of desertion. There are five children to the marriage ranging from 4 to 11 years of age. She was granted the decree and the custody of the children and declared owner of an undivided one-third part of 82 acres of land.

Russie Williamson presented herself before the court seeking a divorce from her husband on the grounds of desertion. The court after hearing her case, which was a default, granted her a decree and gave her the custody of two minor children.

He was bound over to the grand jury. Pulley has been held in jail since his arrest nearly two weeks ago in default of $200 bail.

Canning Company at Woodburn Is Host to Public
Woodburn, Ore., Jan. 20.—Farmers, business men and citizens of Woodburn, numbering close to 500, were guests of the Graves Canning Company of this city at a luncheon and general welfare meeting held in the Arduary Tuesday afternoon and evening.

The Graves Canning Company, who operate canning establishments at Woodburn, Brownsville, Tillamook, Sheridan and Sherwood, propose to float $150,000 worth of stock and the meeting here was to interest the people of this vicinity in buying stock. The afternoon session was devoted to the farmers and the evening session to the business men and citizens of the city. It is said that more than 200 farmers and fruit growers were present. With scarcely an effort further than to state the company's purpose, farmers subscribed for stock very readily. One farmer subscribed for eleven shares at $100 each and another subscribed for ten shares at the same price. Among the farmers and business men combined approximately $10,000 worth of stock was sold. The company expects to sell $15,000 worth of stock in Woodburn and at the rate the movement has started they will not be long in disposing of all the stock they wish to dispose of here.

The announcement was made at the meeting that the Graves Canning Company will begin at once to erect the cannery which was burned at Brownsville recently. This was almost fully insured.

It is said the company's object in floating the stock at this time is to better equip the different factories in operation.

Corey Probing Alleged Freight Rate Charges
Acting upon complaint from shippers of Central Oregon, H. H. Corey, public service commissioner has instituted an informal investigation into alleged discriminations in freight rates against the central Oregon territory and in favor of out-state points.

With a surplus of thousands of tons of alfalfa hay in central Oregon it is alleged, shippers are unable to compete with shippers of the Yakima country in selling to Willamette Valley and coast points because of discriminatory freight rates. The rates from Bend to Portland, a distance of 254 miles, is $1.00 per ton, whereas the rate from Yakima to Portland, 312 miles, is only 27 cents. The same situation is claimed, exists with reference to potatoes.

Commissioner Corey declared that no difficulty should be experienced in ascertaining any discriminations which are found to exist in these rates.

Hubbard, Jan. 20.—Citizens living east of the city limits are making an effort to interest the city council in the matter of extending the water mains to their tracts of land for irrigation and domestic purposes. The proposition has been appealed to the council to the end that the cost of such extension is being investigated.

HAIR CAME OUT IN HANDFULS
Had Dandruff and Pimples on Head. Cuticura Healed.
"I had a very bad case of dandruff and there were pimples on my head. It would itch and burn at night so I could hardly sleep. My hair was dry and lifeless and I could comb it out by the handful. A friend told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I decided to give them a trial, and when I had used three cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment I was healed."
