Denver, Colo., Feb. 11.—Unless it can be proved that the liquor is manufactured "for sale or gift" a home brewer cannot be convicted of violating the prohibition law, criminal Judge George W. Dunn decided today in a case involving alleged violation of the prohibition

Increased Tax Upon Personal Property Lost

Senate Defeats Bill Lifting Burden of Taxation Borne by Real Estate

Real property in Oregon must continue bearing the major portion of Oregon's tax burden while per- sonal property, although fully as valuable as that of real property continues to enjoy immunity from taxation except to the extent of 12 per cent of the total burden.

A certain Portland bank which was advertising foreign bonds to yield 15 per cent on the investment had been unusually active in opposi- tion to the measure which would impose a reasonable proportion of tax upon this class of wealth, ac- cording to Vinton.

Bearcats Leave For Week's Tour Of Inland Area

Ten men were taken by Coach Matthews to Portland this afternoon where the Bearcats are scheduled to play a return game against the Multnomah athletic club against this evening. The Bearcats triumphed the Wined-M aggregation by his score of 38 to 14 last week in a game played at the armory.

Cleveland, Feb. 11.—"No cause shown." This Judge Florence L. Allen, America's only woman Common Pleas Judge, tersely dismissed the plea offered by Mrs. Mildred M. Falls, twenty-three, pretty and a recent bride, when she asked to be excused from serving on the jury to try Robert Mommens for the murder of Henry Thompson last November.

Bill Requires Good Penmanship Among Physicians

Oregon physicians must bush up on their penmanship if a bill intro- duced this morning by Senator Hunt becomes law. The bill re- quires that prescriptions be writ- ten in "plain, legible English" and wholly in the English language wherever possible.

Salem May Play Albany Baseball

Another indication that athletic relations may be resumed between the Salem high school and Albany high school was seen in a letter received from Principal J. C. Nelson of Salem today, in which the Al- bany officials expressed the desire to play Salem. The letter follows: "Your letter in regard to arrang- ing a baseball game between Salem and Albany received. We had pre- viously thought of devoting all our time to track this year instead of baseball. This has not been fully decided, however, and we would be glad to consider the two dates you have mentioned in case we are able to make arrangements for baseball. We will let you know immediately. I hope we shall be able to play your team."

Man Missed Church Once in 48 Hours

Haverhill, Mass., Feb. 11.—An- drew E. Fay has probably been to church more times than any living person in Haverhill. After forty- eight years of continual service as sexton of St. James' Church he has retired. Fay's record is a remark- able one for faithfulness to duty. Only once since 1873 did Fay miss a service at the church on Sunday.

Legislators Admit Oil Octopus Stronger Than State; Vote Test Repeal

That old friend of the Oregon motorist—fifty six degrees specio gravity—found only two friends— Senators Bell and Jones both of Lane county—when it put its head on the execution block in the senate chamber this morning. Sena- tor Hare's bill repealing the gravi- ty test for gasoline sold in Ore- gon was passed by the upper house by a vote of 28 to 2 with two members absent. The bill makes no provision for a test in substi- tution for the specific gravity test, which, in view of Oregon's past experience, Hare contended, would be a mere waste of effort.
