Machine Turns Over on Highway

Aurora, Feb. 14.—An automobile containing four men from Portland turned wheels on near the "Y" where the Molalla railroad crosses the highway north of Barlow, a few days ago, injuring a man who gave his name as Sam Ferry. He sustained a broken shoulder, and was taken to Oregon City and placed in the hospital. Later he was taken to his home in Portland. He stated that something went wrong with the steering apparatus, but persons who saw the accident, say the machine was running at high speed. The car went into the ditch and was badly damaged.

Monmouth News

Monmouth, Or., Feb. 14.—State deputy fire marshals, Horace Sykes and George W. Stokes were in town Wednesday and inspected the city's fire-fighting equipment and the hazards. While they report finding numerous things worthy of commendation, they also found many things which will bear earnest criticism. They inspected the business houses and public institutions and will make a report to the city council at some near future meeting. Thursday night they again visited Monmouth and met a committee of business men and citizens who are interested in the matter of organizing a fire department.
