> -Eat Prune Like Buttermilk? Is Has Big Wallop

Hend, Ov., Feb. 18.—Since the sent visit of a government chemnt and acohibition agent, whose stay in Bend was kept a profound secret, District Attorney A. J. Moore is wondering why the biburisk of fermenting and distilling liquous. They might just as well use buttermith, he says, quoting from ligues on alcoholic content given him by the government agent.

"Even a rise apple has thre per cent of alsohal," said the district attorney quoting from the same source of information "but then an apple for a beverage. The pro-abilition law doesn't include fruit. Good, ripe builtornille, however, is supposed to contain four per cent of alcohol, just eight times the am-ount allowed by the nighteenth

In suite of these figures, the district attorney has no inclination of sharing a cruesde against butter-mik drinkers. He believes that any redividual who can drink enough buttermilk at a time to get a "kick
